

Gift your kid a fun online world of interactive quizzes, puzzles, contests and more.

Visit www.youngworldclub.com for a free trial

NEARBY

SC refuses to stay the release of Modi biopic

NEW DELHI The Supreme Court on Monday refused to intervene in the release of the film Prime Minister Narendra Modi, alleged to be "blatant propaganda" dressed up as a work of art, in violation of the poll code. The Bench has asked the petitioner to list his objections.

NEWS ▶ PAGE 10

Assam man assaulted for selling 'beef'

GUWAHATI The police in north-eastern Assam's Biswanath district picked up five people after a mob assaulted a 68-year-old man for allegedly selling beef at his restaurant in district headquarters Biswanath Chariali. The incident happened on Sunday afternoon but came to light on Monday after a video on the assault was uploaded on social media.

NATION ▶ PAGE 7

Ethics Classes by G.Rajput (Pendrive + Notes + 2 Tests) (Special Focus On Answer Writing) BrainyIAS 84594-00000 www.brainyias.com Arrow Education

DELHI METRO ▶ 4 PAGES

BJP manifesto keeps focus on national security, farm support

Offers nationwide registry of citizenship

NISTULA HEBBAR
NEW DELHI

The BJP on Monday released its "Sankalp Patra" or manifesto for the 2019 Lok Sabha election, keeping national security and its core issues of Uniform Civil Code, abolition of Article 370 and the construction of a Ram temple in Ayodhya front and centre, welded to welfare schemes like the universal-

PM Modi and BJP president Amit Shah release the party's manifesto on Monday. ■ PTI

sation of the ₹6,000 per annum income support for farmers.

The party also affirmed its commitment to get the Citizenship Amendment Bill cleared through both Houses of Parliament and a nationwide National Registry of Citizenship, and the annulment of Article 35A which the party termed "discriminatory" towards Kashmiri women and non-permanent residents of the State. The insertions on Article 35A and a nationwide NRC were a nod to its ideological pre-occupation with action on illegal immigrants and national identity.

CONTINUED ON ▶ PAGE 10
'A BUNCH OF LIES' ▶ PAGE 10

SC increases VVPAT verification

KRISHNADAS RAJAGOPAL
NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Monday increased Voter-Verified Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) verification to five random Electronic Voting Machines (EVMS) in each Assembly constituency.

"It is, therefore, our considered view that... the number of EVMS that would now be subjected to verification so far as the VVPAT paper trail is concerned would be five per Assembly constituency or segment in a parliamentary constituency instead of what is provided by Guideline No. 16.6, namely, one machine per Assembly constituency or segment in a parliamentary constituency," the court ordered.

CONTINUED ON ▶ PAGE 10

Advantage NDA, but it may fall short of majority

BJP seems to have overcome mood of anti-incumbency

SANDEEP SHASTRI
SUHAS PALSHIKAR
SANJAY KUMAR

As the nation gears up for the first round of the Lok Sabha election, the ruling BJP and the NDA seem to enjoy a distinct advantage over its opponents. The CSDS-Lokniti Pre-Election Survey indicates that the national mood appears to be giving the ruling party/alliance a second term.

THE HINDU
CSDS-LOKNITI
Pre-poll Survey 2019

NDA favoured

CSDS-Lokniti estimates that both NDA and UPA could better their vote shares in 2019, but NDA's 'strike rate' will be reduced, possibly leaving it just short of a majority

35 Estimated vote share % of the BJP, with its allies set to get 6% of votes, for a total of 41%

23 Estimated Congress share, with its allies set to get another 7%, for a total of 30%

9 BSP and its allies could secure about 9% of votes, slightly higher than in the 2014 election

263-283 No. of seats estimated to be won by the NDA

115-135 No. of seats estimated to be won by the UPA

Over the last one year, the ruling party appears to have overcome the emerging mood of anti-incumbency and turned the tide in its favour. Each region appears to have its own trend and political direction. As things stand in the last week of March 2019, the NDA appears close to the majority mark, though the BJP itself seems well short of securing a majority on its own.

CONTINUED ON ▶ PAGE 12

FIGHTING TOGETHER ▶ EDITORIAL

Indian Air Force presents 'proof' to show F-16 was shot down

DINAKAR PERI
NEW DELHI

The Indian Air Force (IAF) on Monday presented two radar images of the aerial engagement with Pakistan Air Force (PAF) on February 27 to prove that a Pakistani F-16 was shot down by the MiG-21 piloted by Wing Commander

Abhinandan Varthaman. "The IAF has irrefutable evidence of not only the fact that F-16 was used by PAF on February 27 but also that an

IAF MiG-21 Bison shot down a PAF F-16," Air Vice-Marshal RGK Kapoor said.

DETAILS ON ▶ PAGE 10

IAF MiG-21 Bison shot down a PAF F-16," Air Vice-Marshal RGK Kapoor said.

CONTINUED ON ▶ PAGE 10

LIVELIHOOD OF 3 LAKH GOANS AT STAKE DUE TO SUDDEN STOPPAGE OF MINING OPERATIONS IN GOA!

Goa has a 70 Years legacy of sustainable mining that operated in an eco friendly manner and generated lakhs of jobs.

CLOSURE OF MINING INDUSTRY IN THE STATE HAS LED TO HUGE LOSSES TO THE STATE & NATIONAL ECONOMY!!

Speedy REVISION

C3 Curation

Core Current Affairs & related Concepts

Practice MCQs

PRELIMS COMPASS 2019

focus SPECIAL EDITION

Rau's IAS Study Circle Since 1953

SCANN HERE TO BUY NOW

INDIAN ECONOMY & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Available at stands NOW on Amazon

New Delhi Bengaluru Jaipur

GENERAL STUDIES INTEGRATED [FOUNDATION] PROGRAM FOR CSE 2020

Regular Batch 21 June 07 June 21 June

Weekend Batch 22 June 11 May 15 June

309, Kanchenjunga Building, 18 Barakhamba Road, Connaught Place, New Delhi - 110001 Tel. 23317293, 2331813536, 2373890607

2nd Floor, AKS Plaza, 10 Industrial Layout, Jyoti Niwas College (INC) Road, 5th Block Koramangala, Bengaluru - 560095 Tel. 080 - 255 35536/37/38/39, 9916035536

701, Apex Mall, Lal Kothi Tonk Road, Jaipur - 302015 Tel. 0141 - 2740594, 7877036167, 9828367796, 6350296244

www.rauias.com | (011) 40786050

Our only hope lies with the authorities.
We appeal to the concerned authorities to take necessary actions immediately!

'Restart Mining... Restart Lives'

Goa Mining People's Front

#GoaMining #RestartGoaMining

Reply to CBI's plea on arrest: SC to ex-top cop

LEGAL CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Monday sought a response from former Kolkata Police Commissioner to a plea by the CBI to arrest him in connection with the Saradha chit fund scam.

The CBI urged a Bench, led by Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi, to lift its February 8 stay order against any "coercive action" against Mr. Kumar. The agency said that his arrest was necessary to "unravel the entire gamut of the larger conspiracy in the ponzi scam cases".

The Bench gave Mr. Kumar four weeks' time to file his response.

The CBI also sought the court's directions to the West Bengal authorities to comply with the court's earlier orders "in letter and spirit" and not to create any hurdle in the probe or try to "intimidate, harass and scare the agency officials" probing the cases.

Denied ticket, sitting MLA turns star campaigner

SIB KUMAR DAS

BERHAMPUR

Ramesh Chandra Chhaya Patnaik, the sitting MLA of Odisha's Berhampur Assembly constituency, may have missed out on the party ticket but has emerged as the star campaigner for both parliamentary and Assembly poll candidates of the Biju Janata Dal in the area.

All BJD posters, banners and billboards in Berhampur city bear photos of the five-time MLA prominently, along with those of party founder Biju Patnaik and his son and Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik. Chandra Sekhar Sahu, the party's Lok Sabha candidate here, and Assembly election contestant Bikram Panda make it a point to take the doctor along during their campaigns.

Both candidates were political rivals of Dr. Chhaya Patnaik until last year, when they left the Congress to join the BJD. Mr. Panda has tasted defeat at the hands of Dr. Chhaya Patnaik four times as a Congress candidate for Berhampur Assembly seat since 2000. At rallies now, he says he might have got the BJD ticket this time but the incumbent MLA is helming his campaign.

The denial of ticket to the doctor had led to rumblings in the Berhampur BJD and among voters.

ICFAI Law School ICFAI[®] UNIVERSITY
Hyderabad | Dehradun | Jaipur | Jharkhand | Tripura | Sikkim
Approved by Bar Council of India

BBA-LLB(Hons.)
5 years
Hyderabad | Dehradun | Jaipur | Jharkhand | Tripura | Sikkim

BA-LLB(Hons.)
5 years
Hyderabad | Dehradun | Jaipur | Tripura | Sikkim

LLB
3 years
Dehradun | Jaipur | Jharkhand | Tripura | Sikkim

LLM
1 year
Hyderabad | Dehradun | Tripura

Ph.D
4 years
Hyderabad | Dehradun

Admissions 2019
ILSAT 2019
ICFAI Law School Admission Test
May 18th, 2019

Hyderabad Dehradun Jaipur
Jharkhand Tripura Sikkim

Highlights • Moot Courts • Clinical Courses • 360° Learning • Merit Scholarships

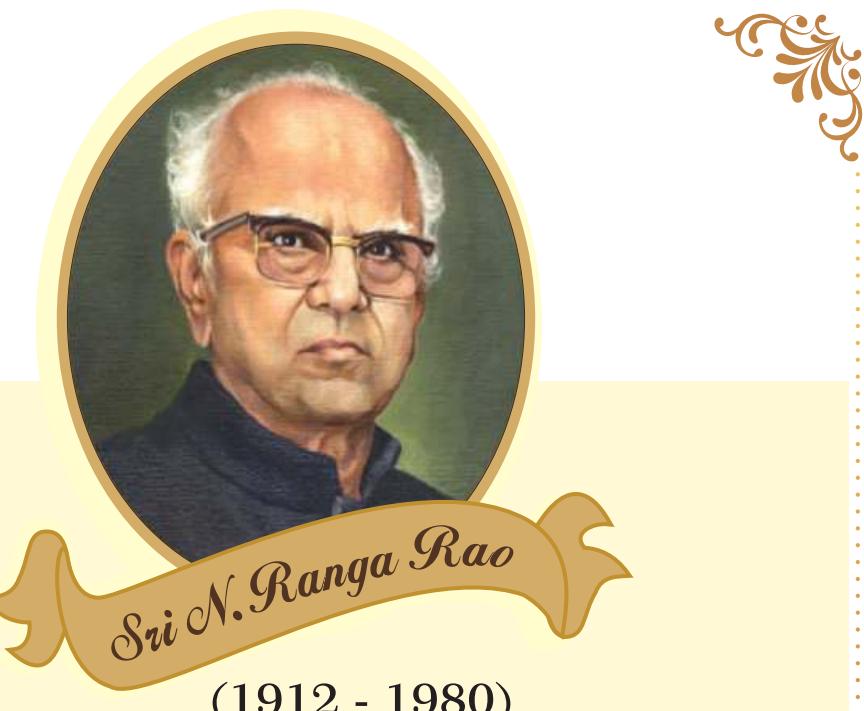

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS
Based on performance in Class XII & Semester-wise performance in respective programs

Placement Assistance

For eligibility and more details, please visit the following websites
IFHE, Hyderabad www.ifheindia.org/fol
ICFAI University, Dehradun www.iudehradun.edu.in ICFAI University, Jaipur www.iujaipur.edu.in ICFAI University, Jharkhand www.iujharkhand.edu.in ICFAI University, Tripura www.iutripura.edu.in ICFAI University, Sikkim www.iusikkim.edu.in

Toll-free: 1-800-599-0767 Facebook

ICFAI[®] GROUP
11 Universities • 9 B-Schools • 7 Tech Schools • 6 Law Schools • 3 Decades in Flexible Learning

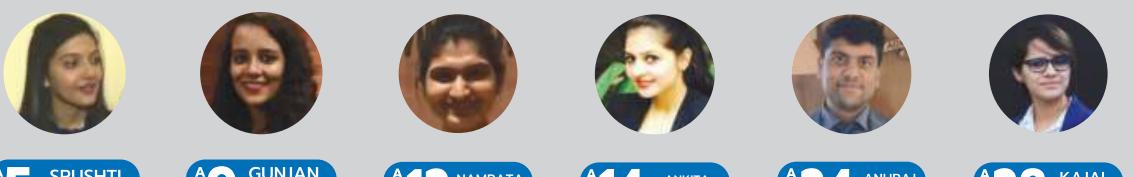

Heartfelt Tribute to Our Visionary Founder.

Sri. N. Ranga Rao was a man of great courage, vision, foresight and dreamt of building a brand committed to quality. The journey has seen us grow from an incense stick manufacturer to a globally-renowned enterprise. Following the founder's guiding principle of ethical and collaborative growth, NR Group is socially inclusive, environment friendly and gives back to the society through the NR Foundation.

ForumIAS

32 in Top 100196
Selections
in CSE '18

AIR 5 SRUSHTI DESHMUKH AIR 9 GUNJAN DWIVEDI AIR 12 NAMRATA JAIN AIR 14 ANKITA CHOURHARY AIR 24 ANURAJ JAIN AIR 28 KAJAL JAWLA

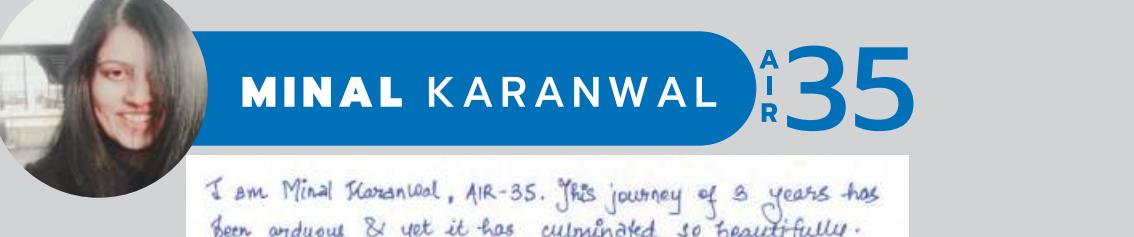

AIR 36 DEEPESH KEDIA AIR 38 LAKSHAY SINGHAL AIR 43 AKSHAY AGARWAL AIR 49 RENJINA MARY VARGHESE AIR 59 CHAHAT BAJPAI AIR 62 ANAND SHARMA

In the very 2nd year of inception, ForumIAS Classroom Program students have secured ranks 7, 13, 27, 35, 54, 70, 75, 94 and 99 in Civil Services Examination 2018.

AIR 7 K VARUN REDDY AIR 54 SUMIT K RAI AIR 70 SURAJ PATEL AIR 75 M. NAVEEN AIR 94 KARTIK JIVANI AIR 99 DHRUV MITTAL

MINAL KARANWAL AIR 35

I am Minal Karanwal, AIR-35. This journey of 3 years has been arduous & yet it has culminated so beautifully. And Forum IAS has an extremely important part to play in it. Constant support by Ashish Sir, Dipin Sir, the most pivotal CA classes of Dipin Sir and the entire management at Forum has been crucial in scripting this victory. Thankyou!!

Minal Karanwal
AIR-35

AIR 13 VARNIT NEGI

Any success is supported by multiple pillars. ForumIAS was one such pillar in my success story. Thank you AYUSH SIR (NEYANN) for your time, support and timely feedback which helped me to keep myself motivated. ASIF SIR'S guidance for improving my answers and DIPIN SIR'S expert analysis of current affairs too were extremely helpful. I would like to thank the entire ForumIAS fraternity for believing in me.

VARNIT NEGI
RANK-13, CSE-2018

Comprehensive Guidance Program (CGP) 2020

A 10 MONTH LONG CLASSROOM AND ANSWER WRITING Foundation Program by ForumIAS

STARTS

15th May, 2019

For queries

Contact: admissions@forumias.academy

SMS IAS2020 to 7772807555

2nd floor IAPL House, 19 Pusa Road, Opp. Metro Pillar No. 95, Karol Bagh, New Delhi – 110005

9821711605 academy.forumias.com

helpdesk@forumias.academy

CLASSIFIEDS MART

TO ADVERTISE:
www.thehinduads.com
011-43579738 • 43579797

EDUCATIONAL

Triumph IAS
Promoting Knowledge. Inspiring Success

CONGRATULATIONS!
TO ALL
ACHIEVERS OF CSE-18
Under Guidance of Vikash Ranjan
(Author, Educator & IAS Mentor)

150+ SELECTIONS

KANSHAK KATARIA KARUN VARUNDEO VAISHALI SINGH

NAMRATA JAIN (AIR-12) MAYANK GUPTA (AIR-177) SHUBHRA KUMARI (AIR-905) RAVI KRL. SHIBA (AIR-337) JAGDISH KRL. (AIR-594)

RAMESH K. SINGH (AIR-879) MINTU LAL (AIR-495) SACHIN KUMAR (AIR-609) DEEPMALA PRakash (AIR-708) BHAVI SINGH MEENA (AIR-709)

VIVEK KUMAR (AIR-744) CHET RAM (AIR-739) DICKDHARTH KRL. (AIR-740) YUVRAJ KUMAR (AIR-741) and many more...

SAAMAANYA AYUDHYAYAN
(फाउण्डेशन बैच-2020)

निःशुल्क कार्यशाला
के साथ कक्षा प्रारंभ

16 APRIL 3:00 PM

QIP PROGRAMME
21 दिन का कैश कोर्स
(प्रारंभिक परीक्षा-2019)

15 APRIL 12:00 NOON

HEAD OFFICE/CLASS ROOM 996 1st Floor, Mukherjee Nagar (Near Gandhi Vihar Bandh) Delhi-09
PH: 011-47058219, 9540676789, 9717767797

SCIENCE FOUNDATION & TEST SERIES 10 & 15 ESSAY FOUNDATION & TEST SERIES 21 & 28 JUNE GS MAINS TEST SERIES 18 JUNE

www.triumphias.com info@triumphias.com 7840888102, 7678628820
23-B, 3rd Floor Pusa Road, Metro Pillar No. 115, Old Rajender Nagar, New Delhi-110060

EDUCATIONAL

निर्माण IAS
हिन्दी माध्यम का सर्वश्रेष्ठ संस्थान
राफलता का पायाय कमल देव (K.D.)

Heartiest Congratulations To Our Successful Students in IAS-2018

सामान्य अध्ययन
(फाउण्डेशन बैच-2020)

निःशुल्क कार्यशाला
के साथ कक्षा प्रारंभ

16 APRIL 3:00 PM

QIP PROGRAMME
21 दिन का कैश कोर्स
(प्रारंभिक परीक्षा-2019)

15 APRIL 12:00 NOON

HEAD OFFICE/CLASS ROOM 996 1st Floor, Mukherjee Nagar (Near Gandhi Vihar Bandh) Delhi-09
PH: 011-47058219, 9540676789, 9717767797

PANINI IAS CLASSES
Medium संस्कृत विज्ञान में तेयार होने वाला विषय

संस्कृत साहित्य
मिलिए इस वर्ष के टॉपर्स से

10 APR. 6:30 AM & PM
NEW BATCH STARTS

9958122675, 9911480369, 8076250997

PERSONAL

LOST & FOUND

ASTROLOGY

Relief through Rudraksha.
www.astrorelief.in; 09896304000.

Triumph IAS
An Institute for Civil Services Examination & Expert Guidance for IAS

PT SPECIAL-2019
GEOGRAPHY
Through Maps
by Nikhil Sareen

Starts 10th April Online available @
www.triumphias.com
7840888102, 7678628820

PUBLIC NOTICE

IN THE NATIONAL COMPANY LAW TRIBUNAL, PRINCIPAL BENCH, NEW DELHI
ADVERTISEMENT OF APPLICATION
IN THE MATTER OF:
Mrs. RUBY KUMARI Versus
M/s KRISHNA ASSETS DEVELOPERS PVT. LTD.,
INSOLVENCY APPLICATION No. (B) 626(B)/2019
To,
M/s KRISHNA ASSETS DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED,
391, HAVELI HAIDER KULI, CHANDNI CHOWK,
DELHI-110009

Take Notice that an Application under section 7 of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 was presented before the Adm. Ct. of Mrs. Ruby Kumari and the said Application has been accepted as is fixed for hearing on 02.05.2019 before Principal Bench of National Company Law Tribunal, New Delhi.

You are hereby put to Notice of the said Application and to appear in person or by a pleader duly instructed by you. If you do not do so, your appearance on the date mentioned above, the application will be heard and determined in your absence.

Date: 05/04/2019
Place: New Delhi
On behalf of Mrs. Ruby Kumari
Sanket Gupta (Advocate)
Ch.No.179, Lawyers Chambers-II,
High Court of Delhi, Sheh Shah Marg, New Delhi
Mobile: +91 84477 15266
E Mail: Sanket1983@gmail.com

PUBLIC NOTICE

I Saroj Chauhan W/o Late Shri Rajesh Chauhan R/o H.No. B-357, sector-105, Noida, Gautam Budh Nagar, U.P., have disowned my Son M. Sumit Chauhan from a movable and immovable properties, due to her Misbehaviour In future I'm not responsible for any act, deed or things of Mr. Sumit Chauhan.

PUBLIC NOTICE

I Saroj Chauhan W/o Late Shri Rajesh Chauhan R/o H.No. B-357, sector-105, Noida, Gautam Budh Nagar, U.P., have disowned my Son M. Sumit Chauhan from a movable and immovable properties, due to her Misbehaviour In future I'm not responsible for any act, deed or things of Mr. Sumit Chauhan.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SM Abbas Raza S/o Late Syed Hassan, R/o A-5/E, DDA Flat Munirka, New Delhi -110067. I have lost Conveyance Deed of my Flat File No.- F37(633) 74 MIG, File No. 25060 date 25/8/2000. Founder may contact 8826368732

PUBLIC NOTICE

EXPRESSION OF Interest (EOI) Interested parties may submit their EOI for Exterior & Interior Painting of an office Building in Lodhi Road, Delhi within 3 days from the publication of this ad. For Detailed BOQ, Interested parties may contact Mr. Noel Shekhar: 9711387171, Email: noel@gss.net

It is notified for the information that my Original Qualifying Examination Certificate of 10th board Examination of Year 2009 and Roll No. 6407673 issued by CBSE has been actually lost if found. Name of the candidate NAINA RAWAT Address: Ept 140 P and T colony Sarojini Nagar New Delhi 110023 Tel: 8285557168

Relief through Rudraksha.
www.astrorelief.in; 09896304000.

New Batches Start: 10th April 10:00 am with MAIMS Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

Rameshwari's Path Towards A Bright Future
A-19, 11th Floor, Priyanka Tower, Dr. Mukherjee Nagar, Delhi-110009
8750908833, 8750918844

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

For Civil Services

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

हिन्दी माध्यम ENGLISH MEDIUM

9th April 4:00 pm MAIMS 10th April 10:00 am

Online@ www.rameshwarias.com

for GS Mains cum PT by Rameshwar

IN BRIEF

K.M. Mani's condition stable, says hospital

KOCHI
The condition of Kerala Congress (M) leader K.M. Mani is said to be serious even as the medical bulletin by the VPS Lakeshore Hospital and Research Centre says that his condition is stable. He is being treated for chest infection.

Elephant tusks: HC issues notice to Mohanlal, govt.

KOCHI
The Kerala High Court issued notice to actor Mohanlal, the State government, the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) and the Chief Wildlife Warden on a public interest litigation petition challenging the government order granting ownership certificate to the actor for the four elephant tusks seized from his house at Thovala, Kochi, in 2012.

Five girls drown in well in Telangana

HYDERABAD
Five girls in the age group of 6-11 drowned in an open well in Jogulamba Gadwal district of Telangana, police said on Monday. The bodies have been recovered. It seems after one of them began drowning, the other girls may have tried to save her and drowned in the process, a senior police official said. PTI

Maoists seek boycott of polls in Wayanad

WAYANAD
Maoists have put up posters and banners asking farmers and plantation workers in Mundakkai, which forms part of the Wayanad Lok Sabha constituency from where Congress president Rahul Gandhi is contesting, to boycott the April 23 election. The posters appeared in Mundakkai town on Monday, Wayanad District Police Chief R. Karuppasamy said. PTI

JD(S)-Congress unity fails to trickle down to grassroots

Hassan, Mysuru party workers still at war

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
MYSURU/HASSAN

The undercurrent of mutual suspicion among the Congress and the Janata Dal-Secular (JD-S) grassroots workers continues to manifest in the Mysuru and Hassan parliamentary constituencies, notwithstanding a show of unity among the party leaders at the top.

For the second time in a week, the Congress meeting in Hassan on Monday saw pro-Modi slogans being raised by a section of the Congress activists, while JD(S) workers in the neighbouring Mysuru openly expressed their disenchantment with their leaders for the tie-up with the Congress.

In the first instance, the differences manifested in a meeting at Udayapura in the Channarayapatna taluk, where a few Congress workers chanted "Modi-Modi", registering their protest against the party's decision to back the JD(S) candidate. The meeting was convened by Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) vice-president B. Shivaraju, and the Congress candidate for the Holenarsipur Assembly constituency last year Bagur Manje Gowda.

Chaos at meeting
Both the leaders had a tough time pacifying the workers. A few workers also raised slogans praising the Congress, resulting in chaos at the meeting. Such scenes were witnessed earlier at Channarayapatna, Holenarsipur, Arasikere and Belur, where a good number of Congress workers, includ-

Support Nikhil Siddaramaiah

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
MANDYA

With disgruntled Congress leaders in Mandya district continuing to support Independent candidate Sumalatha for the Lok Sabha poll, Congress-JD(S) coalition coordination committee chairman Siddaramaiah has requested the electorate and leaders to support JD(S) candidate Nikhil K.

In a one-minute-21-second video, released by the JD(S) in Bengaluru on Monday, the former Chief Minister urged workers of both parties to work together to ensure Mr. Nikhil's victory. The veteran Congress leader said he would canvass for Mr. Nikhil along with former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda in Mandya on April 12.

ing office-bearers in the party, have openly opposed the JD(S) candidate. Former MLA H. M. Vishwanath, who was till recently chairman of the Congress party's district campaign committee, has announced that he would not work for Prajwal Revanna, grandson of former Prime Minister H. D. Deve Gowda and JD(S) candidate for the Hassan Lok Sabha seat. Similarly, District Congress Committee vice-president Narayana Gowda participated in BJP meetings, ignoring warnings by his party leaders.

Cong. will offer clean politics in Telangana, says Sachin Pilot

TRS polluted atmosphere by buying MLAs, creating environment of fear'

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD

Rajasthan Deputy Chief Minister Sachin Pilot said the Congress would bring back clean politics to Telangana where the incumbent Telangana Rashtra Samiti (TRS) government had "polluted the atmosphere by buying legislators, pressuring law makers and creating an environment of fear".

Telangana Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao was doing exactly what Prime Minister Narendra Modi was doing at the Centre – using agencies to suppress the voice of leaders who question them, said Mr. Pilot at a press conference here.

He said he was part of the historic decision of the Congress that decided to help Telangana fulfil the wishes of the people and it pained him to see the State where the government suppressed people and bought legislators in violation of norms.

Mr. Pilot, who was in the city to extend support to Congress candidate in Chevella Konda Vishweshwar Reddy, said every vote to the TRS would automatically

Frontal attack: Rajasthan Deputy Chief Minister Sachin Pilot addressing a media conference with other Congress leaders in Hyderabad on Monday. ■ K.V.S. GIRI help the BJP, that had also ruined the institutions in India.

Promises delivered

"The Congress delivers what it promises and the 'Nyay' scheme is not like a 'jumla' (empty promise) like the ₹15 lakh promised by Mr. Modi in 2014 election. We could have easily said ₹20 lakh but we don't believe in such jumbas," he said. The Congress manifesto, he said, talked about helping the poorest of the poor 20% of Indian population with a promise of giving them a guaranteed ₹72,000 income per year.

Mr. Pilot said Mr. Modi had done everything to stop the NREGA of the Manmohan Singh government. The scheme had lifted 14 crore people out of poverty, but Mr. Modi was not interested in such schemes but only in waiving of loans of crores of rupees of a few industrialists, he alleged.

Expressing confidence that UPA-III would come to power after the elections, he said the party would perform extremely well in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh where it grabbed power from the BJP.

Mr. Pilot claimed that there was a wave of change across the country and various parties would come together to stop the BJP.

Land buy for Salem corridor quashed

MOHAMED IMRANULLAH S.
CHENNAI

In a setback to the AIADMK government in Tamil Nadu and the BJP government at the Centre, the Madras High Court on Monday quashed a notification issued last year to acquire land for the ₹10,000 crore, eight-lane Chennai-Salem expressway, holding that environmental clearance was mandatory for the project.

A Special Bench of Justices T.S. Sivagnanam and V. Bhavani Subbarao passed the order, allowing a batch of cases filed by landowners and others, including Anbumani Ramadoss of the PMK, which is now a constituent of the BJP-AIADMK alliance.

The Bench rejected the Centre's contention that environmental clearance was required only before the actual laying of the expressway and not at the nascent stage of land acquisition. It held that the need for such clearance should be decided on a case-by-case basis.

The court said, it was necessary to get environmental clearance before proceeding with the notification.

No reason why Modi should be kept at bay, says his brother

Siblings of PM, Shah campaign in Guntur

V. RAGHAVENDRA
GUNTUR

After two days of hectic campaigning for BJP, Sombhai Modi, brother of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, returned to Ahmedabad, on Monday. He appeared relaxed, having breakfast with Andhra Pradesh party president Kanna Lakshminarayana at the latter's residence here, barely 48 hours before the State goes to polls. Also present was BJP national president Amit Shah's brother Lalit Shah.

As the duo prepared to leave Guntur for their hometown, Mr. Lakshminarayana told them that the break-up of the alliance with the Telugu Desam Party (TDP) was "a good riddance", though it had come late, and he could undo some of the damage caused by Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu with great difficulty.

In a chat with The Hindu, Mr. Sombhai said it was his first visit to Andhra Pradesh and going by public response, he believed that the mood was pretty much in favour of Mr. Modi, whom he had seldom met in five years.

"My brother has done a lot for the country, there is no reason why he should be kept at bay," he quipped, when asked to give his assessment of the party's performance in Andhra Pradesh, while having some nice words for the hard work done by Mr. Lakshminarayana to revive the party's fortunes in the State.

At election rallies in Guntur and Tenali, Mr. Sombhai and Mr. Lalit Shah have insisted that the country would be safe in the hands of the "Modi-Shah" duo.

Sombhai Modi

UNIQUE SHIKSHA

India's top-ranked*
Civil Services Preparations' & Coaching Institute

*as recognised by Indian Education Congress
Awards-2016, '17 '18 & '19

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL RECOMMENDED CANDIDATES

A small change can make preparation more effective.

Rank 2, Rank 3 & Rank 4 and 204 other successful candidates were tutored by Unique Shiksha.

But success belongs to all 759 candidates.

We are humbled and pleased to announce scholarships to guide more of you on the path to selection:

- 100% scholarship: to all aspirants who appeared for the Interview in CSE 2018
- 50% scholarship: to all aspirants who wrote the Mains in CSE 2018

6 in the TOP 20 in CSE 2017

3 in the TOP 5 in CSE 2018

RANK
2

Akshat Jain

RANK
3

Junaid Ahmand

RANK
4

Shreyansh Kumat

UNIQUE
COURSES

Full-Time Foundation

Weekend Foundation

Graduation
Foundation

Mains
Test Series

Foundation Test Series
(Weekly, Prelims & Mains)

IN BRIEF

SC to hear bail plea of ex-cop Sanjiv Bhatt

NEW DELHI
The Supreme Court on Monday agreed to hear the bail plea of former IPS officer Sanjiv Bhatt in connection with a two-decade-old drug seizure case. The court has sought a response from the Gujarat Police. His plea had been rejected by the Gujarat High Court on March 7. Bhatt, is behind the bars since September last year. PTI

Two dead, 21 ill after consuming 'prasad'

JAIPUR
Two persons from Rajasthan's Banswara district died due to food poisoning and 21 others were taken ill after consuming 'prasad' at a temple in Madhya Pradesh. Nearly 40-50 people of Danpur village in Banswara had visited the temple in Ratlam district. M.P. Samples of the food have been sent for examination, and a case has been registered. PTI

Two govt. officials held for 'accepting' bribe

KOTA (RAJASTHAN)
In two separate cases of corruption, two government officials were arrested on Monday while accepting bribes from private contractors for clearing their pending bills for their works, said Anti-Corruption Bureau officials. Both the accused will be produced before the ACB court in Kota on Tuesday. PTI

Fake currency seized, two arrested in Kolkata

KOLKATA
The Kolkata Police has seized fake Indian Currency Notes with a face value of ₹5 lakh from the city's Maidan area and arrested two persons in this connection. The counterfeit notes were in denomination of ₹2,000, a senior police officer said on Monday. PTI

Along LoC in Jammu, Cong. finds favour with strife-torn residents

Absence of PDP, NC candidates, 'invisible' sitting MP likely to boost party's chances

JATIN ANAND
POONCH/SURANKOTE/NOWSHERA

The 200-odd-km-long Muslim-dominated belt between Jammu and Poonch along the Line of Control believes the Lok Sabha election in Jammu is a direct contest between the "face of Prime Minister Narendra Modi" and the "Congress' hand".

The reasons cited for their conviction are – the absence of the Peoples Democratic Party and the National Conference from the contest, the "clean image" of Congress candidate Raman Bhalla, who's also the party's State vice-president, and the complaints of the voters against the sitting MP, BJP's Jugal Kishore Sharma.

Voter loyalty in this region traditionally swings between the Congress and the regional parties. In 2014, all three Assembly constituencies under Poonch district voted for different parties – Poonch-Haveli elected the PDP candidate, Surankote chose Congress and Mendhar opted for the NC. With both the NC and the PDP deciding to stay out of the fray in Jammu, the Congress' decision to field Mr. Bhalla from the seat is a "double plus" for the party, feels Sabir Bitta, a teacher at the Model Higher Secondary School at Sheeshmahal in Poonch district.

Traditional support
"Just like you hear about cross-border shelling along the LoC in the National Capital Region, we too hear of cases like [Mohammad] Akhlaq's lynching [in Dadri], Bulandshahr [violence] up here. Add to that the fact that our community has traditionally supported the Congress and that he [Mr. Bhalla] has immense goodwill among the people here, you have the answer to your question," says Mr. Bitta.

A torn BJP poster along National Highway 144A in Poonch en route to Jammu. ■ JATIN ANAND

According to the official 2011 Census figures, Muslims constitute 90.45% of the district's total population of 4,76,820.

BJP flags and hoardings, bearing the photos of Mr. Modi, party president Amit Shah and State leaders, dominate the Jammu-Akhnoor Highway for a good 30 km. Congress flags on homes and shops ostensibly belonging to Muslims on one side confront BJP flags on Hindu homes on the other side in areas such as Manjakote in Rajouri district for the next 100 km on National Highway 144A. A little further on Poonch Highway, smaller BJP hoardings, similar to the ones in Jammu but mysteriously torn, hang from trees.

Mohammad Nazeer, a dhaba owner in Surankote, has just returned from a poll-related meeting at a local mosque" and asks his customers for advice. "Are you coming from Jammu? What's the mood there?" he asks in a mix of Dogri and Punjabi. "At the meeting [at the mosque] they were asking us to vote for the Congress because our party hasn't fielded any candidate. I feel uncomfortable about that. They talk about the greater good but to me it seems like giving my vote for nothing," he says, choosing not to name the "party" in reference.

'Grim' realities

Residents of the twin Rajouri and Poonch districts, 70 km apart along the LoC, are targeted frequently by Pakistani forward posts located on the mountains above. They assert that events such as cross-border hostility and India's retaliatory air strikes in Balakot are not mere electoral issues but "realities" which they are living every day.

BJP general secretary Ram Madhav's rally in town on Saturday, according to Poonch residents, "failed" to draw crowds and was a proof that voters would rather have better roads and more doctors at the district hospital than surgical strikes across the border.

"Yes, events such as Pulwama and Balakot air strikes have made the situation favourable for the BJP, but one must understand that these occurrences were, are and will remain a part of a persistent challenge. The State and political parties need to work on a rehabilitation policy for residents in LoC areas instead of just restricting the problem to being an electoral issue," says Gulshan Rashid Bhat, an assistant professor of geography at the Department of Higher Education in Rajouri.

Sunny Singh, who works for a local newspaper, says the people of Poonch, over and above religion and traditional loyalty, prioritise "local work". "There weren't people at the [BJP] rally here on Saturday but at a recent public meeting addressed by [Congress leader] Dr. Ghulam Nabi Azad there wasn't even space to set foot in. It is a fact that previous Congress governments have done a lot of work and that's why the party, on its own, is enough to contest against the face of the Prime Minister," he says.

Krishan Singh, a transporter, says he is "annoyed" with the BJP despite having benefited from a scheme for the welfare of people displaced from Pakistan-occupied Kashmir. "No one thought about us earlier but Modiji gave ₹5 lakh to the people displaced from PoK. But we are still annoyed with him because of our MP. We have heard about Jugal Kishore but never seen him," he says.

Anil Maini, a trader, says issues like the Ram Mandir and scrapping of Articles 370 and 35A aren't "real". "These are not issues but promises which won't and can't be kept," he says.

Down in Nowshera, BJP's State president Ravinder Raina's constituency, Subhash Kapoor, a leader of the local traders' community, questions the timing of the government's stance towards Pakistan. "We support the Balakot air strikes but what about jobs for youth and the condition of roads?" he asks.

Haryana
Oppn. against appointment of judge's wife to info panel

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
CHANDIGARH

Days after the Haryana government appointed Kamaldeep Bhandari, wife of the judge hearing the Kathua rape case, as one of the State's information commissioners, the issue has taken a political turn with Opposition parties terming the decision "unethical" and an attempt to influence the judiciary.

The BJP government, however, said that the decision was taken on merit after following due process.

On March 8 – just two days before the model code of conduct came into force for the Lok Sabha election – the Haryana government appointed Ms. Bhandari, Lieutenant-General K.J. Singh (retired) and Jai Singh Bishnoi as State Information Commissioners.

Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar, former Leader of Opposition Abhay Singh Chautala and Forest Minister Rao Narbir Singh, who were part of the selection committee, picked the candidates from a list of names recommended by the search committee.

"We are not questioning the integrity of anyone, but this shows the immorality of the BJP government; how they are trying to influence sensitive issues such as rape of the girl child in Kathua. The Election Commission should take cognisance of the appointment and take appropriate action," said Mr. Tanwar.

WEATHER WATCH

RAINFALL, TEMPERATURE & AIR QUALITY IN SELECT METROS YESTERDAY

TEMPERATURE DATA: IMD, POLLUTION DATA: CPCB, MAP: INSAT/IMD (TAKEN AT 18.00 HRS)

Forecast for Tuesday: Heavy rain likely at isolated places over Assam, Meghalaya, Nagaland, Manipur, Mizoram and Tripura. Heat wave conditions likely in isolated pockets over Gujarat, west Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan.

CITY	RAIN	MAX	MIN	CITY	RAIN	MAX	MIN
Agartala	0.5	29.0	22.0	Kozhikode	—	35.2	28.4
Ahmedabad	—	43.0	22.7	Kurnool	—	41.8	27.6
Aizawl	—	30.0	15.4	Lucknow	0.6	35.1	22.2
Allahabad	—	38.8	22.7	Madurai	—	39.8	25.4
Bengaluru	—	35.6	24.0	Mangalore	—	35.3	26.1
Bhopal	2.1	39.7	22.0	Mumbai	—	33.5	23.1
Bhubaneswar	0.8	32.9	25.5	Mysuru	—	36.7	21.8
Chandigarh	—	30.6	22.6	New Delhi	—	36.4	20.2
Chennai	—	35.0	27.6	Patna	—	35.0	21.8
Coimbatore	—	38.2	25.2	Port Blair	—	32.7	26.1
Dehradun	—	29.0	20.0	Puducherry	—	35.0	27.0
Gangtok	7.8	19.3	10.5	Pune	—	40.0	19.7
Goa	—	33.0	24.3	Raipur	—	39.1	28.0
Guwahati	0.9	28.3	20.8	Ranchi	—	36.8	17.2
Hubballi	—	37.0	23.0	Shillong	6	19.6	10.8
Hyderabad	—	38.5	23.3	Shimla	—	23.0	12.6
Imphal	—	27.3	15.6	Srinagar	—	25.6	12.4
Jaipur	0.2	40.0	24.0	Trivandrum	—	36.2	26.7
Kochi	—	34.0	26.4	Tiruchi	—	40.0	27.0
Kohima	1.4	23.0	11.5	Vijayawada	—	37.4	25.6
Kolkata	—	32.2	24.6	Visakhapatnam	—	32.4	27.0

(Rainfall data in mm; temperature in Celsius)

Pollutants in the air you are breathing

CITIES	SO ₂	NO ₂	CO	PM _{2.5}	PM ₁₀	CODE
Ahmedabad	15	73	26	165	—	■
Bengaluru	.4	24	44	168	—	■
Chennai	.6	11	41	145	—	■
Delhi	19	58	64	275	343	■
Hyderabad	.3	61	30	77	.97	■
Kolkata	10	67	14	75	.88	■
Lucknow	15	25	58	286	—	■
Mumbai	29	.27	86	27	.61	■
Pune	29	.14	32	.71	.88	■
Visakhapatnam	.5	28	35	36	.74	■

In observation made at 4.00 p.m., Sirsa, Haryana recorded an overall air quality index (AQI) score of 242, indicating unhealthy level of pollution. In contrast, Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh recorded a healthy AQI score of 33

Air Quality Code: ■ Poor ■ Moderate ■ Good (Readings indicate average AQI)

SO₂: Sulphur Dioxide. Short-term exposure can harm the respiratory system, making breathing difficult. It can affect visibility by reacting with other air particles to form haze and stain culturally important objects such as statues and monuments.

NO₂: Nitrogen Dioxide. Aggravates respiratory illness, causes haze to form by reacting with other air particles, causes acid rain, pollutes coastal waters.

CO: Carbon monoxide. High concentration in air reduces oxygen supply to critical organs like the heart and brain. At very high levels, it can cause dizziness, confusion, unconsciousness and even death.

PM_{2.5} & PM₁₀: Particulate matter pollution can cause irritation of the eyes, nose and throat, coughing, chest tightness and shortness of breath, reduced lung function, irregular heartbeat, asthma attacks, heart attacks and premature death in people with heart or lung disease

“MY VOTE IS NOT FOR SALE”

Do you accept Cash, Liquor, Gold, Drugs and Gifts to influence your vote?

It is a betrayal of democracy and also a punishable offence with imprisonment upto one year or fine or both.

Rs 1862.50* Crore worth Cash, Gold, Liquor and Other Items seized by Election Commission

Let's commit and pledge ourselves for an impartial and fair election

DAVP 52/10/13/0018/1920

Election Commission of India

<https://eci.gov.in>

*as on 08th April 2019

Discover something new today.

YOUNG WORLD CLUB.COM

from THE HINDU GROUP

Let your little ones READ their crackling answers on www.youngworldclub.com

Want to make a chocolate sandwich cookie?
Discover something new today.

YOUNG WORLD CLUB.COM

from THE HINDU GROUP

Let your young chefs DO as they please on www.youngworldclub.com

IN BRIEF

NIA questions chief of Hurriyat Conference

NEW DELHI
The NIA on Monday questioned Hurriyat Conference chairman Mirwais Umer Farooq in connection with a case of "funding terror groups and separatist organisations" in Jammu and Kashmir, officials said. PTI

Vice Admiral Verma moves tribunal

NEW DELHI
Vice Admiral Bimal Verma, who currently heads the Andaman and Nicobar-based tri-service command, on Monday moved the Armed Forces Tribunal over the appointment of Vice Admiral Karambir Singh as the next Chief of Naval Staff.

Assam man assaulted for selling 'beef'

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
GUWAHATI
The police in north-eastern Assam's Biswanath district picked up five people after a mob assaulted a 68-year-old man for allegedly selling beef at his restaurant.

The incident happened on Sunday afternoon but came to light on Monday after a video of the assault was uploaded on social media. The man, identified as Shaukat Ali, sustained injuries and was taken to a local hospital for treatment.

"We picked up five people, including two market committee leaders, in a bid to disperse the mob. They were allowed to go after signing a good behaviour bond under Section 107 of Code of Criminal Procedure," a district administration official said. He added that some locals had been warning Mr. Ali not to sell what they believed was beef. Things came to a head when a group went to inspect his eatery on Sunday.

Mohammed Sahabuddin, the brother of Mr. Ali, later filed an FIR at the local police station.

Army gets Dhanush artillery guns

It is the indigenously upgraded version of Bofors gun procured in 1980s

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

The Ordnance Factory Board (OFB) on Monday handed over the first batch of six Dhanush artillery guns to the Army. Dhanush is the indigenously upgraded version of the Swedish Bofors gun procured in the 1980s.

"Indigenisation to the extent of about 81%, has already been achieved. By the end of 2019, the indigenisation level of the gun will go up to 91%," the Defence Ministry said in a statement. Six guns were handed over at a ceremony at Gun Carriage Factory, Jabalpur.

"The first Dhanush regiment with 18 guns is expected to be ready by the end of next year," an Army source said. The GCF received the Bulk Production Clearance

The indigenously developed Dhanush artillery guns.

(BPC) to manufacture 114 guns from the Army on February 18, 2019.

Dhanush is a 155 mm, 45-calibre towed artillery gun with a range of 36 km and has demonstrated a range of 38 km with specialised ammunition. It is an upgrade of the existing 155mm, 39 calibre Bofors FH 77 gun. It is compatible with all North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO) 155 mm ammunition system.

Conducting of trials

The first phase of trials were conducted between July and September 2016 at Pokhran and Babina ranges and the second phase was held between October and December 2016 at the Siachen base camp with three guns. The last round of user exploitation trials were completed with six guns in June last year.

The gun is fitted with inertial navigation system with global positioning system (GPS) based gun recording and auto-laying, an enhanced tactical computer for onboard ballistic computations, an onboard muzzle velocity recording, an automated gun sighting system equipped with camera, thermal imaging and laser range finder

All 114 guns are expected to be delivered within four years. The OFB has already undertaken capacity augmentation to manufacture over 400 barrels and 250 ordnances for large calibre weapon systems.

Call for entries for
The Hindu Prize 2019The annual The Hindu literature prizes reflect the newspaper's commitment to promoting good writing, fiction as well as non-fiction, in English as well as other Indian languages, and encouraging writers of promise in all fields and languages.

The Hindu Prize for Fiction was instituted in 2010 to recognise and encourage Indian fiction written in English.

Originally limited to fiction in English, the competition has since been extended to include translations of literary fiction from the regional languages into English. The prize is awarded to a novel or short story collection that exemplifies the best work of fiction in each year.

The Hindu Prize for Nonfiction, introduced in 2018, is awarded to the best work of non-fiction in English or regional languages (in translation).

The winners in both categories, fiction and non-fiction, will receive ₹5 lakh each in cash, a trophy and a citation. In the case of a translated work being the winner, the prize money will be divided equally between the translator and the author.

The oral observations came in the backdrop of allegations raised that devotees were subject to harassment at the hands of staffers at the Jagannath temple in Puri.

"I do not know why government officials should manage temples," Justice Bobde asked.

Questioning the efficiency of government officials manning posts in temple

administration bodies, Justice Bobde pointed to the idol theft case in Tamil Nadu.

"These idols, apart from the religious sentiments, are priceless," Justice Bobde observed orally.

The comments have come even as a separate petition filed by BJP MP Subramanian Swamy seeking temples to be made independent of government control is pending in the Supreme Court.

author, written in English and published between July 2018 and June 2019.

- Translations of works from the regional languages into English published between July 2018 and June 2019 will also be eligible for the competition. The original work should have been published not earlier than August 1947.

- Only works of literary merit will be considered.

- Publishers may enter a maximum of five books from across their imprints.

- Publishers are asked to send a list of all their published titles to The Hindu. This will enable the judges to nominate additional books if they wish.

- Publishers are required to send eight (hardcover) copies of each title they submit. Paperbacks and electronic copies are not acceptable.

- Entries must be in prose.

- Self-published or electronically published books are not eligible.

- Children's books, Young Adult fiction or non-fiction, graphic and pictorial publications are not eligible.

- Publishers may not submit books written by members of the jury.

- Books that were submitted for The Hindu Prize 2018 will not be accepted.

Eligibility criteria for both categories

- The author must be an Indian citizen, or an NRI holding a valid Indian passport, or an Overseas Citizen of India, or a domiciled resident of India. It is the publisher's responsibility to verify the author's eligibility before submitting the book.

- Employees of The Hindu and their family members are not eligible.

All entries must reach The Hindu on or before May 31, 2019. All entries must be marked The Hindu Prize 2019 Fiction/Non Fiction and should be sent to Shalini Arun, Sr. Associate Editor, The Hindu, Kasturi Buildings, 859-860, Anna Salai, Chennai 600002.

For more details, contact R. Krithika@0422 2212572 (extension 334) or email to krithika.r@thehindu.co.in Top 5 About 3,127 institutions applied for different categories of the NIRF this year. A list of the top 5 across categories

Categories/Rank	1	2	3	4	5
Overall	IIT-M	IISc, Bengaluru	IIT-D	IIT-B	IIT Kharagpur
University	IISc, Bengaluru	JNU	BHU	Univ. of Hyderabad	Univ. of Calcutta
Engineering	IIT-M	IIT-D	IIT-B	IIT-Kgp	IIT-K
Medical	AJIMS, Delhi	PGIMER, Chandigarh	CMC Vellore	SGPIMS, Lucknow	Amrita Vidyapeeth
Management	IIM-B	IIM-A	IIM-C	IIM-L	IIM-Indore
Colleges	Miranda House, Delhi	Hindu College, Delhi	Presidency College Chennai	St.Stephen's, Delhi	LSR, Delhi

Indian Institute of Technology, Madras.

IIT-Madras tops Centre's higher education rankings

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

The Indian Institute of Technology, Madras (IIT-Madras) has topped the Centre's ranking of higher education institutions, followed by the Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru, and IIT-Delhi. Seven IITs appear in the top 10 list of the National Institution Ranking Framework (NIRF) for 2019, while Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi and Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, take the remaining places.

Announcing the rankings on Monday, President Ram Nath Kovind said "Recent expansion in higher education has widened access and improved equity. Even so, quality remains a concern."

The rankings, published annually since 2016, are based on multiple parameters, including teaching, learning and resources; research and professional practice; graduation outcomes; outreach and inclusivity; and the perception of the public, academics and employers. Overall, 3,127 institutions applied for different categories of the NIRF this year.

With regard to engineering, apart from the IITs, Anna University, Chennai, and NIT, Tiruchi, also make it to the top 10. Management rankings are topped by IIM-Bangalore, while XLRI, Jamshedpur, is the only institute apart from IIMs in the top 10. Delhi's Miranda House tops the list of colleges, followed by Hindu College, Delhi, and Presidency College, Chennai. VIT, Vellore, tops the list of private or self-financed institutions.

rent categories of the NIRF this year.

During the "Jagan Anna Pilippu" outreach, over 60,000 plus village level "neutral" influencers were identified and received personalised letters from Mr. Reddy. They were then invited for an interaction with him and provided an email address and phone number for suggestions for campaign and governance goals.

Several defections

As a measure of the efficacy of the campaign, the team cites the fact that there have been a total of 1,400 defections to the YSRCP from other parties, including two TDP men whose names had been announced as candidates for the Assembly poll, in the last one month.

Political campaigns are tricky things, but the team is hoping their professional management of the party's affair is here to stay.

In the Samara Shankara-

According to Asba Farooqui, who joined the team on this particular assignment after a stint as a management consultant in the corporate sector, the mini campaigns were necessary building blocks for the concerted strategy. "From booth level build up of party workers to at least two direct mass contact programmes between Mr. Reddy (referred by the team as JMR) and the public were held," he said.

In the Samara Shankara-

more than four months after he was lodged in the Sajiva Central Jail on the outskirts of Imphal on November 27 last year and days ahead of the election to the Inner Manipur Lok Sabha seat on April 18.

"The court has released my husband's after revoking NSA. We expect him to be released from jail soon," Mr.

The release order came

The "war room" of the YSRCP. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

vam for example, a goal of 11 party workers per booth was fixed, which led to a huge total of over five lakh booth workers with each booth having one convenor at the top.

During the "Jagan Anna Pilippu" outreach, over 60,000 plus village level "neutral" influencers were identified and received personalised letters from Mr. Reddy. They were then invited for an interaction with him and provided an email address and phone number for suggestions for campaign and governance goals.

According to Asba Farooqui, who joined the team on this particular assignment after a stint as a management consultant in the corporate sector, the mini campaigns were necessary building blocks for the concerted strategy. "From booth level build up of party workers to at least two direct mass contact programmes between Mr. Reddy (referred by the team as JMR) and the public were held," he said.

In the Samara Shankara-

more than four months after he was lodged in the Sajiva Central Jail on the outskirts of Imphal on November 27 last year and days ahead of the election to the Inner Manipur Lok Sabha seat on April 18.

"The court has released my husband's after revoking NSA. We expect him to be released from jail soon," Mr.

The release order came made before a Bench presided over by the Chief Justice, senior advocate A.M. Singhvi said the order violated the right to free speech and expression and did not factor in the protection given to intermediaries under the Information Technology Act.

In April, the Madurai Bench of the Madras High Court even ordered the media houses to refrain from telecasting TikTok videos. A Division Bench of Justices N. Kirubakaran and S.S. Sundar asked the Centre whether a law similar to the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) of the U.S. could be brought in to shield children from cybercrimes.

Though the High Court did not object to TikTok being used in jest, it pointed out how the application could be used for crude humour against innocent parties, leading to violation of the fundamental right to privacy.

The High Court said inappropriate contents were being made available to children and this could expose them to sexual predators.

Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi on Monday indicated that the Supreme Court would look into a petition challenging an interim order of the Madras High Court to the Centre to prohibit download of TikTok, a mobile application.

The comments have come even as a separate petition filed by BJP MP Subramanian Swamy seeking temples to be made independent of government control is pending in the Supreme Court.

In an urgent mention

Visit www.etenders.kerala.gov.in for Online Submission of Bids for:

- Proposed Canteen at Mines (Part-A Civil work)
- Protection work of Tower 15 at Royapet Corridor
- Miscellaneous Structural Work at Walayar Plant
- Unloading of packing materials from Trucks, Loading of packed cement into trucks, allied works in packing plant Walayar
- Collection & Transportation of Bulk Cement from Walayar and CGU Cherthala
- Collection and Transportation of packed cement from MCL, Walayar and Cement Grinding Unit, Cherthala to Various locations through trucks – Separate e-tenders for 14 districts.

Visit www.malabarements.com for submission of tenders for regular Engineering items & Services.

Sd/-
MANAGING DIRECTOR

TENDER NOTICE

Visit www.etenders.kerala.gov.in for Online Submission of Bids for:

- Protection work of Tower 15 at Royapet Corridor
- Miscellaneous Structural Work at Walayar Plant
- Unloading of packing materials from Trucks, Loading of packed cement into trucks, allied works in packing plant Walayar
- Collection & Transportation of Bulk Cement from Walayar and CGU Cherthala
- Collection and Transportation of packed cement from MCL, Walayar and Cement Grinding Unit, Cherthala to Various locations through trucks – Separate e-tenders for 14 districts.

Visit www.malabarements.com for submission of tenders for regular Engineering items & Services.

Fighting together

The BSP, SP and RLD need to convince voters that they are on the same page

The chiefs of the Samajwadi Party-Bahujan Samaj Party-Rashtriya Lok Dal combine threw down the gauntlet to the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party in Deoband in western Uttar Pradesh on Sunday. The scale and fiery rhetoric were clearly aimed at forcing the momentum as western U.P. constituencies go to the polls on April 11, in the first of a seven-phase parliamentary election in the State. The BJP and its partners had won 73 of 80 seats in U.P. in 2014, and the State is central to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's re-election bid. The political landscape in U.P., however, has changed significantly in the interim years, both in terms of party alliances and social realignments. Priyanka Gandhi Vadra's entry as a Congress strategist and campaigner has added new variables that could complicate electoral calculations in U.P. In this emergent situation in the State, the rally must have brought some reassurance to the triumvirate of Akhilesh Yadav, Mayawati and Ajit Singh, leaders of the SP, the BSP and the RLD, respectively. Mr. Yadav has been unambiguous in his deference to Ms. Mayawati, and they have been at pains to emphasise that they are reading from the same page, as coherence between the SP and BSP leaderships is crucial for vote transfer of their core supporters.

Ms. Mayawati is an icon of Dalit empowerment, and since the 1990s has often been deft in building social alliances around her core vote. Mr. Yadav is the inheritor of the rump of Socialist (Lohiaite) politics in the Hindi belt, which has been reduced to a purely caste-based entity around the SP's Yadav support. Both could be characterised as part of social justice politics, but the accent and rhetoric of their respective politics are dissimilar. Their opposing positions on the use of English is a case in point – the SP has been rather late in blunting its anti-English edge, while the BSP's Ambedkarite politics considers it as a tool of empowerment. Though the SP and the BSP had an alliance in the mid-1990s, they had parted ways bitterly, with an SP mob even trying to physically harm Ms. Mayawati. The rout in the 2014 Lok Sabha and 2017 U.P. Assembly elections have forced a rethink in their adversarial politics. Equally striking is Mr. Yadav's outreach to the BSP, compared to his father Mulayam Singh Yadav's. Both parties are conscious that recovering the support of their larger social constituencies, the backward castes and Dalits, which were drifting towards the BJP in the past five years with a new format of social empowerment through Hindutva, is crucial. However, since the Assembly elections, old caste cleavages have deepened under upper-caste Hindutva assertion. By joining hands with the RLD, which has a Jat base in western U.P., and reaching out to Muslims forcefully, the two parties are seeking to draw voters with a show of winnability.

Maldivian wave

President Solih consolidates power with his MDP's victory in parliamentary polls

The administration of Maldives President Ibrahim Mohamed Solih has received a shot in the arm with the parliamentary election held over the weekend. His Maldivian Democratic Party is poised to garner more than 60 out of 87 seats, paving the way for easy passage of bills and a policy agenda with a realistic chance of implementation. Mr. Solih, whose pro-democracy government assumed power after a presidential election in September 2018, has sought to break with the regime of his predecessor Abdulla Yameen, which had propelled the Indian Ocean nation into Beijing's economic embrace, described by some as "debt-trap diplomacy". While Mr. Solih was quick to signal the shift in his government's priorities, not least by ensuring that Prime Minister Narendra Modi was the chief guest at the presidential inauguration, his agenda has been hobbled by resistance from lawmakers on certain bills aimed at the previous administration. Specifically, Parliament Speaker Qasim Ibrahim, the head of the Jumhooree Party, a coalition partner of the MDP, declined to support a vote on a bill aimed at recouping stolen assets and looking into unresolved murders. With the election throwing up a single-party majority, Mr. Solih can push through his agenda with fewer stumbling blocks.

So far as India's interests in the Indian Ocean Region are concerned, warm bilateral ties between New Delhi and Male are a high priority after five years of strategic drift that benefited Beijing considerably. According to some analyses, the surging influx of Chinese infrastructure investment under the Yameen administration may have caused the Maldives' national debt to balloon to nearly a quarter of its GDP. As it seeks to unravel this web of Chinese loans, the new leadership has promised that what is owed would be paid. However, the honouring of such debt, especially where it was linked to the grant of land, lease rights and mega-construction projects, will be complicated. As Mr. Solih grapples with these challenges, the assurance that the Maldives has New Delhi's backing would be vital. Already, the elements of a strategic reset with India seem to be falling into place. When Mr. Solih visited India in December, a $1.4 billion financial assistance package for the Maldives was announced, and the two governments agreed to exempt holders of diplomatic and official passports from visa requirements. MoUs on Indian grant aid for "high-impact community development projects" have been signed, as also agreements on clean energy and regional maritime security. So long as the new government presses on with the urgent task of rebuilding and deepening the Maldives' democratic credentials, there is hope for political stability and economic development across the 1,192-island archipelago and the wider IOR.

Open up the Supreme Court

A judiciary confident of its place in a democratic republic must not worry about public scrutiny of judicial appointments

GAUTAM BHATIA

Almost 10 years ago, on September 2, 2009, the High Court of Delhi handed down a landmark judgment dealing with the fledgling Right to Information (RTI) Act. It held that the Office of the Chief Justice of India (CJI) was a "public authority", and therefore, subject to the provisions of the Act. Information held by the CJI – including, in the context of the case, information about judges' assets – could be requested by the public through an RTI application. In ringing words, Justice Ravindra Bhat declared that the RTI was a "powerful beacon, which illuminates unlit corners of state activity, and those of public authorities which impact citizens' daily lives, to which they previously had no access".

The Supreme Court appealed against this judgment, and the case eventually wound its way to the Supreme Court, where a stay was granted, and matters remained in limbo for a few years. Earlier this month, however, a five-judge Bench of the court finally heard the case on merits, and reserved judgment. By this time, the issues under consideration involved not only Justice Bhat's ruling on the status of the Chief Justice as a public authority and the disclosure of judges' assets, but also the question of whether the correspondence of the Collegium (the body of judges that selects and makes appointments to the higher judiciary) was subject to the RTI.

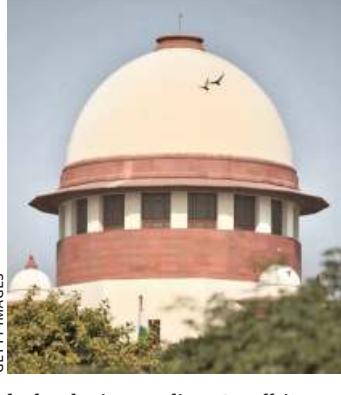

The basic question

The basic question, i.e. whether or not the Office of the CJI is subject to the RTI Act, has an easy answer: yes. As Justice Bhat correctly observed in the High Court judgment, "all power – judicial power being no exception – is held accountable in a modern Constitution". A blanket judicial exemption from the RTI Act would defeat the basic idea of "open justice": that the workings of the courts, as powerful organs of state, have to be transparent and open to public scrutiny as any other body. Nor would bringing the judiciary under the RTI Act destroy the personal privacy of judges: as the High Court judgment noted, the RTI Act itself has an inbuilt privacy-oriented protection, which authorises withholding the disclosure of personal information unless there is an overriding public interest. While disclosure of assets is arguably justified by an overriding public interest, medical details or information about marital status, for example, are clearly not. There will always be borderline cases, of course, but that only calls for nuanced and fine-grained analysis of such cases, nothing more.

The Collegium

During the hearings, however, the question most at issue involved the disclosure of the correspondence of the Collegium. The Collegium includes the five senior-most judges of the Supreme Court, who collectively constitute the selection panel for judicial appointments to the Supreme Court (and the three senior-most judges when it comes to the High Courts). India is one of the few countries where judges have the last word on judicial appointments, through the mechanism of the Collegium. The Collegium itself is not mentioned in the text of the Constitution: it arose out of a judgment of the Supreme Court, and in response to increased executive interference in judicial appointments, particularly during Indira Gandhi's regime.

GETTY IMAGES

The Collegium began life, therefore, as a tool to secure and guarantee the independence of the judiciary. In 2015, the Supreme Court struck down a constitutional amendment establishing a National Judicial Appointments Commission, which would have replaced the Collegium. A majority of the five-judge Bench held that judicial primacy in appointments was the only constitutionally-authorised way of securing/ensuring judicial independence against an increasingly powerful political executive.

Through this time, however, the Collegium had come under increasing criticism. A major point of critique was its opacity: it was increasingly being perceived that judicial appointments were too often made in an ad hoc and arbitrary manner. Perhaps the most vivid example of this was when former Supreme Court Justice Markandey Katju admitted that, as the Chief Justice of the Allahabad High Court, he had refused to recommend a High Court lawyer for judgeship because that lawyer was in a live-in relationship without being married. One may wonder what connection there is between a lawyer's marital status and his ability to discharge judicial functions, but this was, at any rate, a stark example of what the critics had in mind. Indeed, the Supreme Court's own NJAC judgment acknowledged this critique, and vowed to evolve a system where concerns of transparency were addressed. A small step towards this was made during Dipak Misra's tenure as CJI, when the resolutions of the Collegium began to be published online.

It is in this context that we must examine the arguments of the Attorney-General of India, who represented the Supreme Court before the Constitution Bench. The AG argued that disclosing the correspondence of the Collegium would "destroy" judicial independence. The CJI seemed to agree, noting that disclosing the reasons for rejection of a judge would "destroy" his or her life or career.

This is, however, a bewildering argument, when we consider that the Collegium system was specifically put in place by the Supreme Court in order to guarantee judicial independence. It is rather self-servingly to argue, first, that there is only one permissible method to secure judicial independence – and that is through ensuring judicial primacy in the appointments process – and then to argue that the only permissible way in which this system can work is by making it immune to transparency. The Supreme Court cannot eat its cake and have it too: if it has instituted a process of appointment that makes itself the final arbiter of judicial appointments, then it must also ensure that that same process meets the standards of accountability in a democratic republic.

Indeed, a look at judicial appointments elsewhere suggests that transparency in appointments is integral to the process. In the United States, for example, candidates for judicial appointments in the federal judiciary are subjected to public confirmation hearings by the Senate. In Kenya and South Africa, the interviews of candidates taken by judicial appointments commissions are broadcast live. The public, thus, is in a position to judge for itself the selection process. This is crucial to maintaining public faith in the impartiality of the institution.

The Collegium, however, has immunised itself from any form of public scrutiny. The nomination process is secret, the deliberations are secret, the reasons for elevation or non-elevation are secret. This creates an extremely unhealthy climate, in which rumours become staple, and whispers about executive interference are exchanged in court corridors. CJI Ranjan Gogoi's publicly stated concern that "in the name of transparency, you cannot destroy an institution" betrays a refusal to engage with the manner in which institutions are actually destroyed: in an insidious and incremental manner, through the slow drip-drip erosion of trust.

Open to sunlight

"Sunlight is the best disinfectant" is a trite and overused phrase. In the context of public scrutiny of the Supreme Court, however, it is an apt one. The Collegium's recent decisions to recommend a set of names for elevation, and then hastily backtrack on them without any publicly stated reasons, dealt a serious blow to its reputation for impartiality and independence. The only way to salvage this is to open up the court. A judiciary that is confident of itself and of its place in the democratic republic should not be worried about subjecting judicial appointments to public scrutiny. The occasional discomfort that might come from the harsh public glare is more than outweighed by the cleansing value of transparency.

Gautam Bhatia is a Delhi-based lawyer

Playing politics over the Golan Heights

U.S. recognition of Israeli sovereignty is a challenge to the rules-based international order

ARUN K. SINGH

On March 21, U.S. President Donald Trump upended another long-standing American policy, tweeting: "After 52 years it is time for the United States to fully recognize Israel's Sovereignty over the Golan Heights, which is of critical strategic and security importance to the State of Israel and Regional Stability!"

Third pro-Israel step

This was another major pro-Israel step Mr. Trump has taken as President. On May 8, 2018, he had walked out of the 2015 JCPOA (Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action) with Iran, negotiated by the Obama administration with provisions for sanctions relief in response for Iranian restrictions on its nuclear programme. Israel had opposed the agreement and any sanctions relief for Iran, seeing a continuing threat to itself from Iran's growing presence in Syria, its support for Hezbollah in Lebanon and Hamas in Gaza, its refusal to recognise Israel's right to exist, and its military capabilities.

Before that, on December 6, 2017, in a speech from the White House, Mr. Trump had declared: "I have determined that it is time to officially recognise Jerusalem as the capital of Israel." He also proceeded to close the Palestinian office in Washington DC, as well as U.S. consulate in Jerusalem dealing with the Palestinian Authority.

Hitherto, U.S. policy had been that any formalisation of status changes on the ground, following Israel's victory and gains in the 1967 Israel-Arab conflict, could only flow from negotiations among parties concerned. UN Security Council Resolutions 242 (1967) and 338 (1973) had asserted inadmissibility of acquisition of territory by force, and called for Israeli withdrawal. UNSCR 497 (1981) had declared that "Israel's decision to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration in the occupied Syrian Golan Heights is null and void and without international legal effect".

Mr. Trump's decisions have a bearing on U.S. and Israeli domestic politics. The American Jewish community, traditionally around 65% Democratic, has grown in its support for him, despite an increase in anti-Semitism within the U.S. because of his encouragement to right-wing groups. His base among Evangelical Christians backs Israel. Some of the major contributors to his campaign are also ardent supporters of Israel. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, facing a tough election on April 9, and under threat of indictment for corruption and misdemeanour, is touting his influence on Mr. Trump as having potential for further gains for Israel. This has been interpreted by many in Israel as beginning of the process of establishing the legitimacy and its military capabilities.

Before that, on December 6, 2017, in a speech from the White House, Mr. Trump had declared:

"I have determined that it is time to officially recognise Jerusalem as the capital of Israel."

He also pro-

would not carry out any withdrawal of Israeli settlements from the West Bank, putting an end to the "land for peace" formula advocated since the Camp David Accords of 1979.

Faced with international opposition, Israel and its supporters have, in the past too, leveraged the support of the leading global power of the time to advance their cause. On November 2, 1917, Lord Balfour, the British Foreign Secretary, declared that "His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people". This eventually led to the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948, despite Palestinian and Arab opposition. In an April 14, 2004 letter to Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon, U.S. President George W. Bush stated that "in light of new realities on the ground, including already existing major Israeli population centers, it is unrealistic to expect that the outcome of final status negotiations will be a full and complete return to the armistice lines of 1949" (position before the 1967 conflict). This has been interpreted by many in Israel as beginning of the process of establishing the legitimacy and its military capabilities.

Before that, on December 6, 2017, in a speech from the White House, Mr. Trump had declared:

"I have determined that it is time to officially recognise Jerusalem as the capital of Israel."

He also pro-

Following Mr. Trump's announcement, U.S. National Security Adviser John Bolton tweeted that to allow Golan Heights "to be controlled by the likes of the Syrian or Iranian regimes would turn a blind eye to the atrocities of Assad and the destabilizing presence of Iran in the region".

Tepid global response

The new U.S. position has not received support from any other country, including its European allies. While Iran, Russia, Turkey, among others, have been critical, the Arab response has been assessed as insufficiently strident. This is no doubt a reflection of reduced influence in Washington, with greater U.S. leverage on oil supplies, divisions among Arab countries over Qatar, pressure on Saudi Arabia because of Yemen and the Jamal Khashoggi issue.

India's interests are not directly involved immediately. It has a strong and growing relationship with Israel, and has maintained its relations with Syria. Indian troops have been a part of UN peacekeeping presence on the Golan Heights. Mr. Trump's move, however, is indicative of shifting geopolitics in the West Asian region, with longer-term implications for India. It also asserts unilateralism, a challenge to a rules-based international order, and is contrary to positions U.S. has taken elsewhere, as for instance in its response to Russia and Crimea.

Arun K. Singh has served as India's Ambassador to the U.S. and Israel

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters emailed to letters@thehindu.co.in must carry the full postal address and the full name or the name with initials.

Gandhiji and politics

If Mahatma Gandhi were alive today, he would have never participated in our elections, national especially. He was never a leader of a political party; rather, he was the undisputed leader of the masses. He never required votes to gain power. His immense power sprung from the belief of the masses in him. But, hypothetically, if he were to, it would be to fill the large moral vacuum in the political sphere (OpEd page, "If Gandhi were alive today", April 8). Politics today is devoid of values and morals. It is largely about money and power.

SANDEEP SETHIA,
Mandsaur, Madhya Pradesh

■ Gandhiji predominantly based his leadership on secular principles and nation-building and not for any material gains or personal aggrandisement.

The difference today is that political parties want to grab power by hook or by crook, which includes buying votes.

E.S. CHANDRASEKARAN,
Chennai

■ Young voters – like me – who are about to cast their first votes in these elections must note that Gandhian politics can alter our political parties. Most of the changes would be seen in the organisation of the Congress party itself as Gandhiji was strongly opposed to dynastic politics. Overall, it is foolish to expect our politicians to ever follow Gandhiji in spirit.

KIRAN BABASAHEB RANSINGH,
New Delhi

■ In the current political era of coalition, competitive and unprincipled politics, it would be difficult for political parties to follow what is right and of long-term significance; anything which gives instant gratification to the masses works well.

Gandhiji is obviously well respected and studied but not followed because his ways were hard and do not suit the game of contemporary power politics. But why point a finger at our politicians, who only show the mirror to us; they are an integrated and extended part of us and reflect the thinking of our societies at large. We as a society have to grow and evolve with maturity to see a future built on the principles of justice, equality, truth and peace. It is only then, with time, that we can demand and deserve disciplined politics from our leaders.

SALMAN MAHMUD,
Noida, Uttar Pradesh

■ Young voters – like me – who are about to cast their first votes in these elections must note that Gandhian politics can alter our political parties. Most of the changes would be seen in the organisation of the Congress party itself as Gandhiji was strongly opposed to dynastic politics. Overall, it is foolish to expect our politicians to attributed to indoor pollution caused due to conventional chula use.

Factors that must be considered are the possible high cost of a refill as well as the unavailability of an LPG cylinder in rural India. A point in the report, of a common misconception that "eating food cooked on gas causes gas in the stomach", can be tackled with proper awareness. The health and well-being of women in rural India are important.

N. VIJAY,
Coimbatore

Weather resilience

There is a strong possibility of a monsoon deficit according to the IMD (Editorial, "The heat is on", April 8). In many Tier II cities such as Coimbatore, there is the pressure of development which is leading to rapid depletion of green cover. This too is sure to have an impact on heat stress and water scarcity. Are planners taking this into account?

NITHYANANDHAM V.G.,
Coimbatore

MORE LETTERS ONLINE:
www.hindu.com/op

FROM PAGE ONE

Manifesto keeps focus on national security

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who spoke at the event at the party's headquarters in New Delhi, said three main themes emerged from the manifesto: nationalism which he termed as the party's inspiration, 'an-tyodaya' (catering to the last man in the queue) terming it the party's philosophy and "Sushasan" or good governance as the party's mantra.

Mr. Modi spoke at length on the need to make development a people's movement saying that his government "trusted the citizens" of the country to choose empowerment and eschew doles. "There is a fallacy that people are never satisfied with what is given, I don't believe so, I have seen how crores of Indians gave up cooking gas subsidy and senior citizens eschewed subsidies on railway tickets for the benefit of people at large," he said, a nod to the Congress' minimum income scheme NYAY. "Only the poor can defeat poverty," said the Prime Minister, adding that it was by empowering the poor, fulfilling basic aspirations, that more could be done.

Union Home Minister Raj-

Supreme Court increases VVPAT verification

The Supreme Court's order would be implemented in the Lok Sabha election, scheduled to begin on April 11. The court refused to go into the issue of integrity of the EVMs at this belated stage.

A Bench led by Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi increased the number of EVM-VVPATs subjected to physical verification in order to "ensure the greatest degree of accuracy, satisfaction in election process."

"Not only political parties but the poor and the illiterate should be satisfied," the apex court observed.

Earlier, under the ECI guideline 16.6, only the VVPAT slips from one EVM in every Assembly segment/constituency was subjected to physical verification. Now, with five such EVMs under physical scrutiny, the apex court said the election nath Singh who chaired the manifesto committee, said it was a unique crowd sourced exercise that distilled the suggestions of nearly 6 crore people through various means including manifesto trucks that were sent out to solicit suggestions, group dialogues and even social media into the 45-page document.

Senior party leaders, including Ahmed Patel and Randeep Surjewala, released a document that detailed 125 "failed promises" by the BJP after five years in government.

Mr. Surjewala said no BJP leader – Prime Minister Narendra Modi, party president Amit Shah or Ministers Rajnath Singh and Sushma Swaraj – spoke on these crucial issues.

Shah meets veterans Advani, Joshi

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Hours after the launch of the BJP's manifesto on Monday, party president Amit Shah met the two veterans, L.K. Advani and Murlis Manohar Joshi, who, after many years, would be absent from contesting polls. Mr. Shah met the leaders amid strong indications that their exclusion from the candidate list and the manner in which they were excluded rankled.

"Mr. Shah drove to the residence of these two leaders, gave them copies of the election manifesto released on Monday and sought their blessings for victory," a senior BJP leader said after the meeting.

No statement was forthcoming from either Mr. Advani, who has been replaced by Mr. Shah as candidate from Gandhinagar, or Mr. Joshi.

Earlier Mr. Advani has penned a blog stating that calling opponents anti-national for holding different views was not the BJP's way.

Mr. Joshi had penned an open letter to voters of Kanpur stating clearly that he had been asked not to seek ticket by party general secretary Ram Lal.

BJP manifesto a bunch of lies: Congress

Says there is no mention about jobs, goods and services tax, black money and demonetisation

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday called the BJP manifesto for the 2019 Lok Sabha polls a bunch of lies, and said the ruling party had not mentioned anything about jobs, the goods and services tax (GST), black money and demonetisation.

Questions galore: Congress leader Randeep Surjewala said time has come for BJP to wind up its government. ■ FILE PHOTO

"It is going to be lies versus nyay (justice). They should bring out a maafi na-ma (letter of apology) ... People have now realised that their promises remain only cetic but never fulfils his promises," Mr. Patel said.

Mr. Surjewala questioned the BJP on the promises made in 2014, and said that it was time for the BJP to wind up its government since people had seen through it.

"You promised two crore jobs every year, which translates into 10 crore jobs in five years. In reality, during these five years, the number of jobs has actually reduced by 4.7 crore. And it's not something that I am saying, but what has been said by the government's own NSSO (National Sample Survey Organisation) data," he told reporters.

The Congress leader also said that the BJP had not brought back ₹80 lakh crore of black money and deposited ₹15 lakh in each citizen's bank account as it had promised.

"The reality was that Lalit Modi, Nirav Modi, Mehul Choksi and Vijay Mallya looted ₹1 lakh crore of the taxpayer's money and fled the country right under Mr. Modi's nose."

The Congress rubbished the BJP's claim of doubling farmers' income and pointed out it would take 28 years to do so at the current rate of agricultural growth.

It said the government earmarked only five paisa per girl child under the 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' (Save the girl child programme) and claimed that the government debt during Mr. Modi's tenure grew by ₹27 lakh crore.

It is BJP's latest jumla, says CPI(M)

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

The Left parties on Monday panned the BJP manifesto with CPI(M) general secretary Sitaram Yechury calling it "the latest edition of jumla manifesto."

"We have heard similar promises five years ago. We have heard that the farmers will be stopped from committing distress suicides, but the number of suicides have increased, our youth were promised 10 crore jobs in the last five years; instead you have unemployment rate at the highest in the last 45 years," Mr. Yechury said.

He said the manifesto was mum on the promises made in 2014 or policies such as demonetisation.

Chidambaram's poser to Modi on rally cost

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Former Finance Minister P. Chidambaram on Monday questioned the source of funds spent on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's election rallies and asked if it was added to the election expenses of the candidates for whom Mr. Modi campaigned.

"Heard from people attending one of PM's election rallies: how many crores of rupees are being spent on each rally? At every rally there is a pandal that is better than a rich family's marriage pandal. There are tens of LED screens. What is the source of this huge amount of money?" he asked.

His tweets on the PM comes hours after he tweeted that I-T department was planning to raid his house to cripple the campaign of his son, Karti.

BJP, Cong. are corrupt: Mayawati

Alliance partner Jayant Chaudhary hints at BSP chief's role as Prime Minister

Show of strength: BSP chief Mayawati receiving a memento from RLD leader Jayant Chaudhary and others during a rally in Meerut on Monday. ■ PTI

the contribution and unfulfilled dreams of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar, Kanshi Ram and Chaudhary Charan Singh.

"Now, I ask you to open your eyes and see that only the person sitting on stage can fulfil those dreams and aspirations," he said.

No doles but jobs'

In her address, instead of giving ad hoc doles, Ms. Mayawati promised to give permanent jobs to the poor in the government and private sectors, if voted to power at the Centre. "Policies come and go with the governments. We want to strengthen the hands of the poor," she said.

Stating that the BSP-SP-RLD pact was not limited to the Lok Sabha elections, Ms. Mayawati said, "We will fight the next Assembly elections together and root out the Yogi [Adityanath] government [from Uttar Pradesh]."

Intoxicated by power'

The BSP supremo said the party did not believe in manifestos. "Unlike the BJP and the Congress, we don't believe in boasting. We get things done," she said.

She said before the Deoband rally, the BJP was describing the mahagathbandhan combine as a divided house. "But the massive turnout at Deoband would make them lose their sleep. And the 'Jai Bhim' chant at Meerut will make them forget 'Nammo, Nammo'.

The Prime Minister calls us 'sarak' (liquor) but he is intoxicated by power. I believe the voters of Meerut, Bijnore and Baghpat will give him a reality check," she said.

SC refuses to stay the release of Modi biopic

Bench asks petitioner to list objections

LEGAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Monday refused to intervene in the release of the film Prime Minister Narendra Modi, alleged to be "blatant propaganda" dressed up as a work of art, in violation of the poll code.

A Bench, led by Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi, said the court could not step in unless it was clear about what the film was "seeking to depict" and what the petitioner, Congress activist Aman Panwar, was objecting to. "How can we order anything without knowing what we are ordering about," Chief Justice Gogoi asked senior advocate A.M. Singhvi, who represents Mr. Panwar.

The Bench then asked Mr. Panwar to file an application, if possible by Monday, after watching the film and highlight the parts he found objectionable.

Mr. Singhvi said the court should then direct the filmmakers to provide Mr. Panwar with a copy of the movie. But the court refused. "We fail to see how such a direction can be passed by this court," Chief Justice Gogoi responded.

Tax officials search 52 places in four States

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Amid reports of searches by Income Tax officials of properties associated with Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Kamal Nath, the department late on Monday evening issued a statement saying it had conducted search and seizure operations in Bhopal, New Delhi, Indore, and Goa on a group with links to politics and business.

The order comes as Mr. Mallya awaits a judgment in a separate case. It involves an interim third-party debt order relating to £260,000 in Mr. Mallya's ICICI bank account in the UK from a consortium of public sector banks earlier this year. The banks have been attempting to recover £1.145 billion worth of assets from Mr. Mallya.

It said the searches in Madhya Pradesh had detected a widespread and well-organised racket of collection of unaccounted-for cash of about ₹281 crore. "A part of the cash was also transferred to the headquarters of a major political party in Delhi including about ₹20 crore which was moved through hawala recently to the headquarters of the political party from the residence of a senior functionary at Tughlak Road, New Delhi," the statement said.

Highway ban: J&K parties approach court

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
SRINAGAR

Political parties in J&K, including the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) and J&K Peoples Movement, on Monday approached the High Court on State Home department's order to restrict civilian traffic twice a week on the national highway.

People's Conference's chief Sajad Lone also wrote to Governor Satya Pal Malik.

The case was listed for Tuesday for a hearing.

Vijay Mallya not allowed to appeal

London High Court judge rejects businessman's plea for permission to challenge extradition order

VIDYA RAM
LONDON

A judge at London's High Court has rejected businessman Vijay Mallya's application for permission to appeal against the extradition order against him. The order was passed on Friday last week by Justice William Davis and sent to all parties on that date. It does not, however, necessarily mean the end of the story.

"The appellant has 5 business days to apply for oral consideration," a spokesperson for the judiciary explained.

If a renewal application is made on paper – via the exchange of documents between the judge and both with at a hearing." Should Mr. Mallya apply for an oral hearing, this could be a lengthy process, requiring time to be found in front of a judge at the High Court. Beyond this court, Mr. Mallya would potentially also have appeal opportunities to the Supreme Court and eventually the European Court of Human Rights (though he would not be able to appeal if he were denied permission to appeal at the oral hearing).

Mr. Mallya, who has been on bail on an extradition warrant since the start of the extradition proceedings, launched his application to appeal to the High Court after Home Secretary Sajid Javid signed the extradition order against him in early February.

The order comes as Mr. Mallya awaits a judgment in a separate case. It involves an interim third-party debt order relating to £260,000 in Mr. Mallya's ICICI bank account in the UK from a consortium of public sector banks earlier this year. The banks have been attempting to recover £1.145 billion worth of assets from Mr. Mallya.

The Delhi Directorate of Income Tax (Investigation) initiated search and seizure action on a group in NCR,

[CAMPAIGN TRAIL: CHIRAG PASWAN]

Almost smooth sailing on the road with LJP leader

I have been around the people of my constituency, so I do not need to knock on every door right now, says Lok Janshakti Party scion

SOBHANA K. NAIR

JAMUI

It's almost noon, the heat is rising and so is the pace of the Lok Janshakti Party's election campaign, urging voters to choose the party's bangla chaap election symbol, the message blaring from speakers placed atop a Toyota Fortuner piled with marigold garlands.

Party supporters wearing T-shirts emblazoned with LJP scion Chirag Paswan's photograph with the slogan 'Dil se Chirag, phir se Chirag' grow restless. Mr. Paswan is the son of LJP founder and president Ram Vilas Paswan.

On the fifth floor of Hotel GenX, a freshly minted hotel that opened six months ago, the room to his door is closed. Outside, the narrow, dark corridor is packed with a gaggle of his supporters.

Mr. Chirag Paswan leaves the hotel past 2 p.m. He jumps into the front seat of the Fortuner, his close associate Saurob Pandey sits at the back along with a security staff. A vehicle of security personnel leads the cavalcade of six SUVs as they zip around Jamui in Bihar, standing out like a sore thumb on a two-lane road.

Lending his ears: LJP leader Chirag Paswan interacting with voters in Jamui. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

Presence felt

At the first couple of stops, Mr. Paswan climbs down from his car, forge into the crowd with his smile intact, does not say much, obliges every selfie request, peering into the phone cameras of his supporters, and accepts the marigold garlands thrown at his neck. Before climbing back in, he throws the marigold garlands onto his car's deck, adding to an ever-growing pile there.

Back in the car, he says he has ensured that his presence was felt in the constituency in the past five years. He counts a Kendriya Vidyalaya, a medical college (both at the drawing board stage) and a host of railway projects among his achievements.

"I have been around the people of my constituency all through the five years; so I do not need to knock on every door right now," he said.

When told of conversations of discontentment among voters, he concedes that it is difficult to reach each of the 2,100 villages in his constituency spread across three districts. His opponent is Bhudev Chaudhary of the Rashtriya

Lok Samata Party (RLSP), whom Mr. Paswan defeated in 2014.

Vestiges of his one-movie film career remain. His lone film, Mile Na Mile Hum, co-starring Kangana Ranaut, released in 2010. The film bombed and three years later, well in time for the 2014 Lok Sabha polls, he was back in Bihar to take over the reins of the LJP from his father.

Do people still remember his film? "There was a very famous song from my movie called Katto gilhari, written by Javed sahab [lyricist Javed Akhtar] that happens to be popular in U.P. and Bihar. So when I go out, at times, they sing the song, the youngsters tell me that I look good and I must make another movie, but politics is a full-time job," he says.

Changing gears

As the roadshow gathers speed, the campaigning changes gears too. Mr. Paswan opens the door of the moving vehicle, and with one foot inside the car and the other on the landing step, he waves out to supporters. Almost on cue, two security guards also jump in beside him, three of them dangling in unison from the vehicle.

In between the waving and smiling, Mr. Paswan and his associate Mr. Pandey, have serious matters at hand. They exchange notes on possible "internal sabotage".

The roadshow also takes a discomfiting turn when the cavalcade is rudely stopped by a group of women. They have blocked the road, lining up empty buckets and pots at the Lakshmiapur market.

The lone municipal tap that serves close to 50 families here has not had a drop of water for more than a month. The women are angry.

'Won't vote'

"Nahi denge vote, ja ('We won't give the vote, get lost')," they shout. Mr. Paswan, initially clueless, gets down from his car to do the usual meet and greet routine, and cajoles the women to remove the blockade. For a moment, the protest is forgotten, and children and women stand on their toes to peek at him. But fearing worse, Mr. Paswan beats a hasty retreat.

POLL POURRI

Tura: a Sangma pocket-borough

GUWAHATI

Barring two years in between, the Tura Lok Sabha seat in Meghalaya has been with the family of former Lok Sabha Speaker Purno Agitok Sangma for 41 years, since 1977. The two-year gap, from 1989-1991, was when Mr. Sangma returned to State politics to become the Chief Minister. He nominated a loyalist for the seat. In these 41 years, the Sangma family represented the seat for four parties – the Congress, the Nationalist Congress Party, the Trinamool Congress and the National People's Party (NPP). Mr. Sangma "bequeathed" the seat to daughter Agatha Sangma (in photo), now the NPP candidate, from whom his son Conrad K. Sangma took over only to quit after becoming the Chief Minister in 2018.

Population-based quotas: RJD

PATNA

The Rashtriya Janata Dal on Monday released its manifesto promising reservation to SC/ST, OBC and EBC categories in proportion to their population, and also to implement all the suggestions of the Mandal Commission report. Party leader Tejashwi Yadav declared that toddy juice will be tax-free when his government would be formed in Bihar. "Our party is not against 10% reservation to Economically Weaker Section (EWS) but, we think that reservation to SC/ST, EBC and OBC categories should be given in proportion of their population," Mr. Yadav said.

'Blocking 1 mn accounts daily'

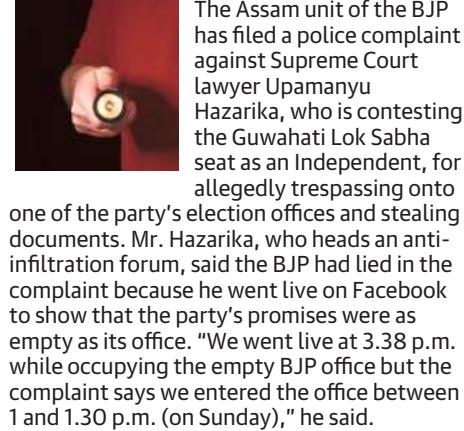

NEW DELHI

Facebook on Monday said it has been blocking or removing nearly one million accounts daily using artificial intelligence and machine learning, ahead of the Lok Sabha election.

"For a year and a half, we've been working to bring a comprehensive and strategic approach to our work on the Indian elections," Ajit Mohan, Facebook managing director and vice-president for India, said in a blog post. He added that Facebook was "absolutely committed" to maintaining the integrity of the election and would help to ensure that it is fair and free from interference, both foreign and domestic.

Trespass case against candidate

GUWAHATI

The Assam unit of the BJP has filed a police complaint against Supreme Court lawyer Upamanyu Hazarika, who is contesting the Guwahati Lok Sabha seat as an Independent, for allegedly trespassing onto one of the party's election offices and stealing documents. Mr. Hazarika, who heads an anti-infiltration forum, said the BJP had lied in the complaint because he went live on Facebook to show that the party's promises were as empty as its office. "We went live at 3.38 p.m. while occupying the empty BJP office but the complaint says we entered the office between 1 and 1.30 p.m. (on Sunday)," he said.

Injecting enthusiasm

JAIPUR

Doctors at government hospitals in Banswara district of Rajasthan have joined the voter awareness campaign. They affix the seal with the punch line, 'Vote Karo Banswara', on prescription slips to encourage voters to exercise their franchise on the April 29. Chief Medical and Health Officer Hiralal Tabiyar said the hospitals have also joined the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation programme.

Twitter I come on Twitter and so many chowkidars abusing and spewing venom. Really these chowkidars will protect us and our country? Who is gonna watch the watchmen?

ANURAG KASHYAP

FILMMAKER

POCKET | SATWIK GADE

How the islands voted

The Andaman and Nicobar and the Lakshadweep islands have one Lok Sabha seat each. Tables show winners, vote % of parties in the past

Winners in past Lok Sabha elections

Year	Andaman and Nicobar	Lakshadweep
2014	BJP	NCP
2009	BJP	INC
2004	INC	JD(U)
1999	BJP	INC
1998	INC	INC
1996	INC	INC
1991	INC	INC
1989	INC	INC
1984	INC	INC
1980	INC(I)	INC(Urs)
1977	INC	INC

In the 2014 election, in the Andaman and Nicobar islands, the BJP secured a vote % of 47.8 and the Congress secured 43.69% votes. In the Lakshadweep, the NCP secured 50.11% and INC secure 46.56% votes respectively.

The Nyuntam Aay Yojana (NYAY) or minimum income guarantee is the centrepiece of your manifesto. Several people, including economists, have questioned the scheme that promises transfer of ₹72,000 to five crore poorest households. And what happens to fiscal deficit?

■ Sure, I will answer all of this but let me tell you how it came about. The Congress president (Rahul Gandhi) told us that the poorest families are getting left behind and can we have a direct policy intervention. He said 'Let's find a solution'. That's the origin of the idea.

In the Indian context, in 2017, this government's own Chief Economic Advisor (Dr. Arvind Subramanian) talked about universal basic income. His proposal was that it would cost 1.5% to 2% of the GDP.

When we roll out NYAY, it would cost us 1.2% of the GDP. It will be about ₹3.6 lakh crore and our GDP today is ₹200 lakh crore. It is entirely doable. In-

Once we are in government, we have said very clearly that we will form an expert committee, start a pilot project and implement in phases.

So what does the data tell you about seats. How many seats do you think the Congress could get?

■ At this stage, to predict how many seats we get will be a fool's hazard. Look, data indicate that one-third of the voters decide who to vote in the week of voting.

I can only say that as of now, we will triple our seats [from the 2014 tally] and the BJP will halve their count.

INTERVIEW | PRAVEEN CHAKRAVARTY

'Cong. will triple its tally in Parliament'

Party's data analyst says the GDP can absorb the cost of minimum income guarantee

SANDEEP PHUKAN
NEW DELHI

Following up on former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh's advice to make the Congress's 2019 manifesto a talking point, the party has lined up over two dozen press conferences, seeking to steer the election narrative toward 'bread and butter issues'. Head of the party's Data Analytics team Praveen Chakravarty, who was closely involved in the drafting of the manifesto, dispels misgivings about implementing NYAY, saying India's GDP is now large enough to absorb the costs

These same questions (on NYAY) were raised when MGNREGA was planned. Today, it is an astounding success dia today is ready and we have the fiscal space!

You have not prepared a concrete roadmap on how you will fund this scheme?

■ Look, we are not writing a Cabinet note for implementation or preparing a Budget document. We have very clearly said it is going to be a combination of tax revenues, new revenues and rationalisation of non-core expenditure.

Once we are in government, we have said very clearly that we will form an expert committee, start a pilot project and implement in phases.

So what does the data tell you about seats. How many seats do you think the Congress could get?

■ At this stage, to predict how many seats we get will be a fool's hazard. Look, data indicate that one-third of the voters decide who to vote in the week of voting.

I can only say that as of now, we will triple our seats [from the 2014 tally] and the BJP will halve their count.

NDA ahead, but game on

Survey says the BJP and the Congress could increase their vote shares by 4 percentage points in 2019 compared to the 2014 elections. The BJP could lose seats due to a more united opposition in some key States

TABLE 1

After hitting a peak in 2017, BJP's estimated vote share began declining, but has picked up in the pre-poll survey. The NDA seems to have eaten into the vote shares of non-UPA parties

Party/alliance	2014 actual vote share	2019 estimate
BJP	31	35
BJP allies	7.4	6
INC	19.3	23
INC allies	3.7	7
BSP+	7.6*	9
Left	4.8	3
Others	26.2	17

TABLE 2

The BJP and its allies are expected to get fewer seats, while the Congress and BSP combines are expected to get a significantly higher number of seats

Party/alliance	2014 actual seats won	2019 estimate
BJP	283	222-232
BJP allies	53	41-51
INC	44	74-84
INC allies	15	41-51
BSP+	0*	37-47
Left	12	5-15
Others	136	88-98

*Does not include vote share of SP and RLD here; SP and RLD secured 3.4% and 0.1% votes respectively in 2014.

TABLE 3

NDA may not cross the majority mark this time, with the UPA and others expected to win considerably more seats

Front	Seats won in 2014	2019 estimate
NDA	336	263-283
UPA	59	115-135
Others	148	135-155

All for BJD; All for SP-BSP-RLD alliance; All for TMC

TABLE 4

Regional parties are expected to play a major role in States like Andhra Pradesh and Kerala

States	NDA	UPA	Others
A.P.	5	4	91 (TDP: 36, YSRCP: 46)
Bihar	53	39	8
Gujarat	56	36	8
Karnataka	46	50	4
Kerala	18	34	49 (LDF: 38)
M.P.	50	44	6
Maharashtra	57	39	4
Odisha	27	17	57 (BJD: 44)
Rajasthan	50	40	10
T.N.	37	53	10
U.P.	44	10	46 (MGB: 44)
W.B.	26	10	64 (TMC: 39, Left: 19)

TABLE 5

Estimate shows that the grand alliance could win about half the seats in Uttar Pradesh

States	NDA	UPA	Others
A.P.	0-3	0	19-25 (TDP: 6-12, YSRCP: 10-16)
Bihar	28-34	5-11	0-2
Gujarat	22-26	0-4	0-0
Karnataka	14-20	8-14	0-0
Kerala	0-2	5-13	6-14
M.P.	17-23	6-12	0-0
Maharashtra	38-42	6-10	0-0
Odisha	2-8	0-0	13-19*
Rajasthan	17-21	4-8	0-0
T.N.	4-14	25-35	0-0
U.P.	32-40	0-6	38-46
W.B.	2-6	3-7	30-36

*All for BJD; All for SP-BSP-RLD alliance; All for TMC

Raw figures of voting intention have been adjusted for the known patterns of under-reporting for independents and very small parties and over-reporting for the ruling party/alliance. Voters who did not disclose their preference have been adjusted

Demographic trend

Across geographies, classes, age groups and castes, the NDA found considerable support. It also regained support among farmers. The only demographic among whom the NDA was trailing was religious minorities

TABLE 1

A bulk of the voters in villages, small and big cities said they would vote for NDA. This percentage was highest in big cities

Will vote for...	Villages	Small cities	Big cities
NDA	46	38	49
UPA	25	28	31
Others	29	34	20

TABLE 2

The NDA found support across classes. Half the upper class respondents said they would vote for NDA

Will vote for...	Upper class	Middle class	Lower class	Poor
NDA	50	45	40	38
UPA	24	33	29	28
Others	26	22	31	34

TABLE 4

A high percentage of minority respondents believe the Modi government should not be given another chance

Group	Should get	Should not get	No answer
Overall	46	36	18
Hindus	51	31	18
Muslims	26	56	18
Christians	20	62	18
Sikhs	21	68	10
Others	35	41	24

Columns indicate % of respondents who said the NDA should or should not get another chance

TABLE 5

Those who supported the NDA government said they were more likely to exercise their franchise

Support	Very likely to vote	Somewhat likely	Not very likely
NDA	74	20	7
UPA	61	27	12
Others	63	21	16

TABLE 6

Of the 20% respondents who said their most important consideration was the PM candidate, 68% said they were voting for NDA

Most important voting consideration will be...	Voting for NDA	Voting for UPA	Others
Local candidate (32%)	35	32	33
Party (41%)	34	36	30
PM candidate (20%)	68	17	15

In the above table, the numbers in brackets indicate the % of respondents who said that their most important voting consideration will be the local candidate, party (highest proportion) and PM candidate

Advantage NDA, but it may fall short of majority

FROM PAGE ONE

it may find it difficult to achieve the high 'strike rate' of 2014.

The SP-BSP combine in Uttar Pradesh is posing a stiff challenge to the BJP. If the current trends were to continue, the BJP is likely to lose a significant chunk of seats in this politically important State. While it may continue to do well in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and even Chhattisgarh, it is unlikely to repeat its 2014 performance here.

The BJP could well make up part of this deficit it suffers in north and western India through marginal gains in the east and the northeast. Its tally in south is unlikely to see any visible improvement. The overall shortfall the party is likely to face, could well result in its partners within the NDA playing a crucial role in government formation after the election.

Non-UPA parties
It is important to highlight that as things stand today, the projected rise in the NDA vote share appears to be at the cost of the non-UPA Opposition. Ironically, among supporters of these non-UPA parties, the sentiment against the NDA is not very strong. Close to one-third of non-UPA/non-BJP voters prefer not to take a stand on the question of the Modi government getting a second chance and just four of every 10 are against giving the ruling party another opportunity.

Possibly, the supporters of the non-UPA Opposition see a limited opportunity of the parties they support coming to power and this is reflected in their stand on a second chance for the BJP. In any case, this opens possibilities for the BJP in States like West Bengal and Odisha.

If one were to undertake a region-wise analysis, it is clear that the NDA appears to be doing extremely well in north, west and central India. It is also catching up in the east and the northeast, though it is faring poorly in the south. While the NDA has made some gains in the south in the last one year, it has been unable to catch up with either the UPA or other regional parties in this region. South India is the only region where close to half the respondents (45%) believe that the country is heading in the wrong direction.

Among social groups
The BJP seems to be ahead of its opponents on account of the support it enjoys among critical social groups. It retains its lead among both upper castes and the OBCs. While it gets more support among the upper and middle income groups, its support among the low income groups and the poor is not insignificant.

Young voters
Young voters (below the age of 25) seem to be more enthusiastic in their support for the BJP. The support for the ruling party declines with age and between the oldest and youngest age groups there is an eight percentage point difference.

The BJP, which a year ago appeared to have lost ground to the Congress in small towns and cities, appears to have made up the deficit and is now ahead of the Congress in villages, towns and both the small and large cities. The farmers, among whom support for the party had declined last year, are once again rallying around the BJP.

While close to half the Hindu respondents felt that the BJP should get another chance, more than half the Muslim respondents were against a second chance for the BJP. This assertion of no second chance for the government was much higher among the Christians (six of every ten) and Sikhs (seven of every ten).

Above all, besides the social arithmetic, it is political skills that would finally make and unmake the electoral fortunes of different parties. In this respect, a fascinating piece of data deserves mention: When asked about how determined they are to go and

Summary of offset proposal of Dassault Aviation

Sl No	Avenue for offsets/ Make in India	% of offset / Make in India							Total offset (%)
		Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6	Year 7
1	(a) Direct purchase of eligible products	0%	0%	0%	1%	10%	17%	44%	72%
2	(b) FDI in joint ventures (equity investment)	0%	0%	0%	1%	0%	0%	0%	1%
3	(c) Direct purchase through investment in kind through ToT	0%	0%	0%	0%	1%	2%	4%	7%
4	(d) Investment in kind in terms of Equipment	0%	0%	0%	2%	5%	4%	9%	20%
5	(e) Provision of equipment and/or ToT, (f) Technology acquisition by DRDO								(*)
Annual offset obligation (%)		0%	0%	0%	4%	16%	23%	57%	100%

(*) Technology Acquisition (TA) projects with DRDO are foreseen to be included in the Offset Contract, following discussions to take place between Dassault and the DRDO after coming into force of the Offset Contract. Depending on the outcome of these discussions, the Offset Schedule will be amended to reflect the TA projects and their associated offset value agreed between Dassault and the DRDO. However, such amendment will not affect the Annual Offset obligation indicated in the table hereabove.

Summary of offset proposal of MBDA

Sl No	Avenue for offsets/ Make in India	Yearly fulfillment of offset ^							Total offset ^^
		Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6	Year 7
1	Direct purchase or executing export orders [avenue 3.1 (a)]	0	0	0	0	2%	6%	12%	20%
2	FDI [avenue 3.1 (b)]	0	0	0	0	0	2%	0	2%
3	Investment in kind through ToT to Indian enterprises [avenue 3.1 (c)]	0	0	0	0	1%	0	1%	2%
4	Investment in kind in terms of provision of Equipment to Indian enterprises [avenue 3.1 (d)]	0	0	0	2%	4%	14%	26%	46%
5	Provision of equipment and/or ToT to government institutions including DRDO Technology acquisition by DRDO [avenue 3.1 (e) & (f)]	0	0	0	2%	2%	8%	18%	30%
Annual offset / Make in India obligation (%)		0	0	0	4%	9%	30%	57%	100%

^ Yearly fulfillment of offset/Make in India obligation (in (%)) of the total offset/Make in India obligation)

^^ Total Offset/ Make in India (%)

FROM PAGE ONE

Rafale: Modi govt. gave waivers in offset agreements

Provisions of DPP-2013 relating to arbitration, access to books of accounts, and penalties for use of undue influence and commission agents were not complied with

N. RAM

What needs to be noted is that nothing in our current series of investigative articles raises any questions about the quality of the Rafale, or indeed the rival Eurofighter Typhoon, combat jet, or about the need to modernise the Indian Air Force. Interestingly, and as a matter of record, this was also the case during The Hindu's Bofors investigation of the late-1980s, when neither the quality of the Bofors, or the rival Sofma, howitzer nor the need to upgrade the Indian Army's artillery resources was in question.

0% offsets in first three years
There has been a major political controversy over Dassault Aviation's choice of Indian Offset Partners (IOPs), notably Anil Ambani's Reliance Group, and the non-transparent arrangements for the discharge of offset obligations. Offsets are 'domestic content-based requirements' imposed on an exporting foreign entity by an importing government or public entity as a quid pro quo for placing a large order with the exporting entity. 'Offset' is usually rendered in French as 'contrepartie' (compensation), as Eric Trappier, Chairman and CEO of Dassault Aviation, pointed out in an interview to AFP (<http://bit.ly/DasReliance>)

The total offsets to be delivered in the Rafale deal by Dassault Aviation (and its 21 Tier-1 sub-vendors) together with MBDA (and its 12 Tier-1 sub-vendors) have been fixed at 50% of the contract value. The contracted offset obligations, which are valued around ₹30,000 crore, are to be discharged over a period of seven years beginning in the fourth year, that is, from October 2019.

The discharge of offset obligations is heavily loaded on to the last two years of the seven-year period

The Indian negotiators contended that the IGA formulations could not be applied to the offset contracts, which would be signed directly by the Government of India with the two industrial suppliers. The offset contracts were clearly not part of the IGA. Acting on directions from the DAC, the INT repeatedly pressed the French side to agree to the alignment of Article 9 of the offset contract with Article 21A of Chapter V of the Standard Contract Document of DPP-2013 (<http://cgda.nic.in/pdf/DPP2013.pdf>). But Dassault Aviation and MBDA dug in and refused to do this, citing three reasons: (i) Simple and efficient wording; (ii) Agreed by both governments; (iii) No confusion or risks of overlap in Arbitration procedure for any dispute spreading from the Supply Protocols to the Offset Contract."

The INT's efforts on this issue had been weakened, if not undermined, by the parallel talks conducted by the Industrial Suppliers notably through offsets as specified through direct contracts between the Indian Party and the Industrial Suppliers for 50% value of the Supply Protocol".

However, the INT report notes, certain Articles of the offset contracts "were not consistent with the standard contract document provided in DPP-2013. Specifically, the French side was not ready to include the Articles on 'Arbitration', 'Use of Undue Influence', 'Agents and Agency Commission', 'Access to Book of Accounts' and 'Offset Performance Bond'."

The two waivers

Dassault Aviation and MBDA proposed the inclusion of the same clause on arbitration in the offset contract as in the IGA. Article 16 of the IGA, the dispute resolution provision, stipulates that both parties make their best efforts to settle the dispute through direct negotiations and that if any dispute cannot be settled through direct negotiations within 24 months, it will be settled in accordance with the arbitration clause of the Supply Protocols.

Article 21 of the Supply Protocols stipulates that all disputes are settled by direct discussions and that if any dispute cannot be resolved in this way within 24 months, it will be settled by arbitration in accordance with the prevailing United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Arbitration Rules in Geneva. (http://bit.ly/UNC_Arbit)

The Indian negotiators contended that the IGA formulations could not be applied to the offset contracts, which would be signed directly by the Government of India with the two industrial suppliers. The offset contracts were clearly not part of the IGA. Acting on directions from the DAC, the INT repeatedly pressed the French side to agree to the alignment of Article 9 of the offset contract with Article 21A of Chapter V of the Standard Contract Document of DPP-2013 (<http://cgda.nic.in/pdf/DPP2013.pdf>). But Dassault Aviation and MBDA dug in and refused to do this, citing three reasons: (i) Simple and efficient wording; (ii) Agreed by both governments; (iii) No confusion or risks of overlap in Arbitration procedure for any dispute spreading from the Supply Protocols to the Offset Contract."

The INT's efforts on this issue had been weakened, if not undermined, by the parallel talks conducted by the Industrial Suppliers nota-

EXCLUSIVE

National Security Adviser, Ajit Doval, in Paris in January 2016. The Indian negotiators found themselves up against a wall. Eventually, in July 2016, two months before the Rafale deal was signed, the DAC decided to send the issue of the lack of alignment of Article 9 – the arbitration provision in the offset contracts with the French industrial suppliers – with the mandated DPP-2013 provisions to "the government". On August 24, 2016, the Cabinet Committee on Security decided to give a waiver on this issue to the two French companies.

Subject to France's blocking statute

The INT report reveals that although the French side agreed to have a provision on 'Access to Book of Accounts' (Article 12) included in the offset contracts, it introduced an additional formulation over and above the DPP guidelines', which read: "However Dassault shall comply with French Law No. 80-538 dated 16 July 1980." This is France's controversial blocking statute which criminalises the communication of economic, commercial, industrial, financial, or technical documents or information to foreign individuals or foreign legal entities. France's anti-corruption agency, the Service Central de Prévention de la Corruption, has recommended changes in Law No. 80-538, and in December 2016 a new anti-corruption law was enacted. But the blocking statute remains in place and can be invoked if needed. (<http://bit.ly/FrenchBlock> and <http://bit.ly/2FXr4eh>)

The INT report shows that despite being repeatedly asked to remove the additional formulation, the French side insisted that "they are bound to consider the French law as stated". In July 2016, the DAC directed that "Article-12 of the Offset Contract on 'Access to Book of Accounts' which has been aligned with the Mirage 2000 MLU Contract, may be placed for a decision by the Govt". This waiver was also approved by the CCS on August 24, 2016.

Offsets are made for controversy

Offsets, as we have seen, are domestic content-based obligations that the buyer imposes on the seller as compensation for placing a large order. Although the practice is often criticised for being trade-distorting, non-transparent, and riddled with corruption and has been generally prohibited by the World Trade Organisation (with an exception made for protection of the essential interests of a country's national security), offsets are increasingly in vogue in the defence sector (<http://bit.ly/TFOffsets>).

India's "Defence Offset Guidelines", which form Appendix D of DPP-2013 (<http://bit.ly/DPP2013>), lay down that the Defence Acquisition Council may, after consideration by the Services Capital Acquisition Plan Higher Categorisation Committee (SCAP HC), "prescribe varying offset obligations above 30 percent or waive the requirement of offset obligations in special cases." In the original process, initiated by the United Progressive Alliance government, to procure 126 Medium Multi-Role Combat Aircraft (MMRCA) as well as in the new Rafale deal for 36 fly-away Rafale jets, the DAC prescribed offset obligations to the extent of 50% of the contract value.

It is important to note that the offset contracts, which were concluded between the Government of India and the two private French companies, were not part of the Indo-French Inter-Governmental Agreement. Although signed on the same day, September 23, 2016, as the IGA, the two offset contracts were completely separate from it. This crucial fact was brought up in the official talks by the Indian Negotiating Team with a singular lack of success, mainly because their efforts had been undercut by the "parallel negotiations" conducted by officials of the Prime Minister's Office and the National Security Adviser (<http://bit.ly/DefMinNote>)

The significance of these offset-related issues and the 'unacceptability' of the French demands were brought out sharply by M. P. Singh, Adviser (Cost), A. R. Sule, Financial Manager (Air), and Rajeev Verma, Joint Secretary and Acquisitions Manager (Air), the three domain experts on the seven-member INT, in their June 1, 2016 note of dissent: "The offsets are not part of the G to G agreements and therefore the Offset Contract must be in line with the one prescribed in the Defence Procurement Procedure (DPP). In the MMRCA process also, the French Industrial Suppliers would have been required to follow the Offset Guidelines and the Government hospital at Kuppam with the best medical and surgical equipment is hit by a shortage of medical and paramedical staff. Over 500 villages still face a drinking water problem.

Now, Kuppam with its 2.13 lakh voters is again all spruced up for what will more likely be another "one-sided battle." In 2014, YSRCP chief Jagannath Reddy kicked off his campaign from Kuppam, with the slogan of "Pulivendula tiger in Kuppam." But the hype did little to sway Kuppam which remained loyal to Mr Naidu.

Standard Clauses of Contract prescribed in DPP. The proposed draft Offset Contract is still not aligned with the one prescribed in the DPP. The arbitration clause proposed by the French Industrial Suppliers in the draft Offset Contract is not as per the DPP and cannot be agreed to. The French Industrial Suppliers have insisted upon reducing the maximum ceiling for penalty from 20% as prescribed in the DPP to 8.5% of the Offset value, which is not acceptable.

The allegations revolve round the charge of crony capitalism - the charge led by Congress president Rahul Gandhi that as a quid pro quo for the new Rafale deal the NDA government had secretly nominated the younger Ambani scion as Dassault's leading offset partner. It may be recalled that the controversy took off in September 2018, after the former French President, François Hollande, told Mediapart, the independent French online investigative journal: "We didn't have any say in this matter. It is the Indian government which had proposed this service group, and Dassault who negotiated with Ambani. We didn't have the choice, we took the interlocutor who was given to us."

The allegations gained traction when Mediapart reported that it had obtained an internal Dassault document that revealed that a senior executive of the French group told staff representatives that the joint venture with Reliance was agreed as a 'compensation' in the Rafale deal in securing the fighter contract".

The allegations have been denied by Dassault Aviation, by Anil Ambani, and by the NDA government, which has maintained that it has had nothing to do with the aircraft manufacturer's choice of IOPs and has not even received official word on who they are. However, the Dassault chief, Eric Trappier, has gone on record to say that DRAL, the joint venture that was building a manufacturing facility in Mihan, Nagpur, would make components of the Legacy Falcon 2000 series of civil jets and deliver "about 10% of these offset obligations" (<http://bit.ly/DASNagpur> and <http://bit.ly/DASReliance>)

What part Reliance Defence Limited, other Indian companies, or the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), will play in the discharge of the offset obligations in the Rafale deal will be known only in the months and years to come.

Our present state of knowledge is that a group that entered the defence manufacturing sector some weeks before a new Rafale deal was announced in Paris is the only publicly known offset partner.

In Kuppam, TDP worried only about Naidu's margin of victory

Chandrababu Naidu has transformed the remote, water starved region from a punishment posting to the cynosure of both supporters and rivals

K. UMASHANKER
CHITTOR

Till 1995, Kuppam, on the tri-junction of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Tamil Nadu, was a place of "punishment posting" for government officials. The tail-end of undivided Andhra Pradesh was not considered a part of Chittoor district at all, but an interior State zone.

However, when the MLA from this forgotten corner, Nara Chandrababu Naidu, became the Chief Minister after a dramatic turn of events in 1995, Kuppam attained a celebrity status overnight.

The three-decade-old saga continues.

Overnight, the punishment posting changed into "Chief Minister's constituency". And when the people from the area visited the Secretariat, the word "Kuppam" was their passport to the CM's chamber.

After three decades, Mr. Chandrababu Naidu still holds sway over Kuppam and his victory is taken for granted. All that matters is the margin of victory. In 2009 and 2014, the margin stood at 46,066 and 46,927, respectively.

Even the nomination papers of N. Chandrababu Naidu in Kuppam are filed by party workers. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

"Hundi". What made Mr. Naidu choose Kuppam as his forte?

When the region was reeling under a perennial drinking water scarcity, the TDP leader kick-started the construction of about 650 overhead tanks and arranged water supply along with the water supply for hitherto desperate farmers.

Both the government degree college building was inaugurated in Kuppam only a few months ago, and it is yet to function. The 350-bed go-tive to Mr. Naidu in Kuppam.

"When his son Nara Lokesh

ELSEWHERE

Fire at Imran Khan's office causes evacuation

ISLAMABAD

A fire broke out at Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan's Office on Monday, triggering evacuation, according to a report. The fire broke out on the sixth floor of the building and Mr. Khan was reportedly one floor below in a meeting, The Express Tribune reported. It was later contained and a police official said an electrical short circuit may have caused the incident. PTI

Air strike forces closure of Tripoli airport

TRIPOLI

Fighting raged around Tripoli and an air strike closed its only functioning airport on Monday, as Libyan commander, Field Marshal Khalifa Haftar, defied international calls to halt his advance on the capital. Thousands were also reported by the UN to be fleeing the capital city in face of Field Marshal Haftar's surprise assault which has left dozens dead. AFP

U.S. designates Iran's elite military unit as a 'terrorist organisation'

IRGC promotes terrorism as a tool of statecraft: Trump

AGENCE FRANCE-PRESSE
WASHINGTON
President Donald Trump on Monday announced the United States is designating Iran's elite military force, the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC), a terrorist organisation.

Mr. Trump said in a statement that the "unprecedented" move "recognises the reality that Iran is not only a state sponsor of terrorism, but that the IRGC actively participates in, finances,

Nielsen had initially resisted the move, advocated by Mr. Trump, but weeks later, in the spring of 2018, made a choice to sign a memo bringing to life a policy that was widely seen as an inhumane.

Images and reports – including from lawmakers – surfaced showing disused warehouses being used as detention centres, with children being kept in cage-like enclosures, sleeping on floors on mattresses and foil blankets.

Two children died in custody at the border in 2018, and a third minor, a 19-month-old baby, died a few weeks after being released from a detention centre.

Nielsen will go down in history as presiding over an exceptionally cruel regime that separated families and violated human rights," Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal tweeted. "I welcome her resignation and believe she should be held accountable for the abuses that happened under her watch."

Mr. McAleenan was among those who had encouraged Ms. Nielsen to sign the family separation memo in 2018, The New York Times reported. In June last year, a judge had ordered that separations under most circumstances would not be permitted and that separated children had to be reunited with their parents.

U.S. President Donald Trump with Homeland Security Secretary Kirstjen Nielsen in California. •REUTERS

However, almost 250 families have been separated since – without violating the June order, the government claimed in February this year.

Ms. Nielsen was grilled in March by a U.S. House of Representatives committee on the border situation, and questioned repeatedly on whether the enclosures in which children were held were significantly different from dog cages.

The Secretary, who posted her resignation letter on Twitter, hit out at Congress and the courts in the document. "I hope the next Secretary will have the support of Congress and the courts in fixing the laws which have impeded our ability to fully secure America's borders and which have contributed to discord in our nation's discourse," she wrote.

Ms. Nielsen had a complicated working relationship with Mr. Trump – she was often berated for not being tough enough and alternated between resisting some of Mr. Trump's more outlandish policy requests and first capitulating, then defending the administration's policies.

The dissonance between Mr. Trump and Ms. Nielsen had become particularly pronounced as the Secretary struggled to keep up with his agenda.

Some 58,000 migrants were apprehended at the border in January and some 1,00,000 in March, as per the Department of Homeland Security. The rising numbers – part of a pre-summit surge – have frustrated Mr. Trump.

Sri Lanka seeks enhanced military training from India

Sirisena meets Defence Secretary

MEERA SRINIVASAN

COLOMBO

Sri Lanka has sought enhanced military training from India, according to President Maithripala Sirisena's office.

Currently, over 60% of Sri Lanka's military personnel pursue their young officers' course, junior and senior command courses in India, according to defence sources in Colombo.

Visiting Indian Defence Secretary Sanjay Mitra called on Mr. Sirisena on Monday, and wide-ranging matters, including bilateral defence cooperation between the neighbouring countries and regional security, were discussed, officials said.

"India and Sri Lanka agreed to increase cooperation in security and defence spheres in several areas, including regional security, curbing drug smuggling and human trafficking and training of members of the security forces," a statement from the presidential media unit said.

Thanking India for its partnership, Mr. Sirisena requested to increase the number of personnel trained by India. The Indian Defence Secretary agreed to look into the possibility of enhancing training facilities, the statement further said.

Meanwhile, 'Exercise Mitra Shakti', the sixth edition of the joint military training exercise between the Indian Army and the Sri Lankan Army, concluded in Badulla district, in Sri Lanka's Central Province, on Monday.

Contingents from the two countries jointly planned and executed a series of "well-coordinated tactical operations based on scenarios that are likely to be encountered in rural and urban environment", a press release from the Indian Ministry of Defence said.

Thanking India for its partnership, Mr. Sirisena requested to increase the number of personnel trained by India. The Indian Defence Secretary agreed to

Modi congratulates Solih on MDP's landslide win

Prime Minister reiterates India's 'neighbourhood first' policy in deepening the bilateral partnership

MEERA SRINIVASAN

COLOMBO

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday called Maldivian President Ibrahim Mohamed Solih to wish him on his party's landslide victory in the recent parliamentary election.

In retaliation, Iran's Supreme National Security Council declared the U.S. a "state sponsor of terrorism" and U.S. forces in the region "terrorist groups", the country's state media said.

The leaders of Iran are racketeers, not revolutionaries," Mr. Pompeo said. "Businesses and banks around the world now have a clear duty to ensure that companies with which they conduct financial transactions are not conducted with the IRGC in any material way."

A statement from Mr. Solih's office said Mr. Modi "personally called" on Monday, "to congratulate him on his party's exceptionally strong performance" in the Maldives's Majlis election, in which the Maldivian Democratic Party (MDP) secured 65 of 87 seats, securing a significant majority in Parliament.

Mr. Modi said the poll outcome was indicative of "the high level of trust and support" that Maldivian citizens had vested in their government and its policy priorities.

"He [Mr. Modi] further conveyed his full confidence that the Maldives government can deliver on their promises towards the Maldivian people in the upcoming five years, and that the Indian government will always stand ready to be of assistance to the Maldives," the statement said.

An official press release from the Ministry of External Affairs said, "The Prime Minister reiterated India's deep commitment in keeping with its 'Neighbourhood First' policy, to work closely with the Maldives in further deepening the partnership and assist the Maldives as per the latter's requirement in its socio-economic development."

Maldivian President Ibrahim Mohamed Solih. •AP

PM speaks to Nasheed

Former President and prominent MDP leader Mohamed Nasheed, who won a seat in capital Male and made a political comeback, later tweeted: "Had the pleasure of speaking today with Indian Prime Minister @narendramodi, and yesterday

New Delhi has been watching developments in Male closely, as it tries to renew ties with the neighbour after the relationship turned increasingly hostile during the Abdulla Yameen administration.

(With inputs from Kallol Bhattacharjee)

AMAR MAHAL PALACE

Amar Mahal Palace, built in the 19th century for Raja Amar Singh, a Dogra King by a French architect on the line of a French Chateau. The palace has been converted into a museum which has many exhibits including a "Golden Throne" weighing 120kg, a library of 25,000 antique books, Pahari & Kangra miniature paintings & rare art collection.

AMAZING JAMMU

Department of Tourism, Jammu & Kashmir

www.jktourism.jk.gov.in

JandKTourism

jktourismofficial

0191 252 0409

MARKET WATCH

	08-04-2019	% CHANGE
Sensex	38,700	-0.42
US Dollar	69.67	-0.63
Gold	33,215	1.3
Brent oil	71.14	1.87

NIFTY 50

	PRICE	CHANGE
Adani Ports	379.90	-7.25
Asian Paints	1496.35	-18.10
Axle Bank	754.60	-7.60
Bajaj Auto	2853.35	-8.30
Bajaj Finserv	7347.25	-50.55
Bajaj Finance	3024.10	-90.10
Bharti Airtel	354.95	-1.70
BPLC	351.00	-7.10
Britannia Ind.	2971.50	-22.55
Cipla	525.40	-6.70
Coal India	232.95	-1.75
Dr Reddy's Lab.	2763.70	9.35
Eicher Motors	20612.65	-367.65
GAIL (India)	341.90	-6.90
Grasim Ind.	840.45	-8.50
HCL Tech	1096.35	3.55
HDPC	2054.90	-4.30
HFDC Bank	2289.40	-16.20
Hero MotoCorp	2586.85	-31.55
Hindalco	214.45	-0.95
Hind Unilever	1664.90	5.80
Indiabulls HFL	859.35	-43.70
ICICI Bank	387.10	-3.45
IndusInd Bank	1751.50	-16.95
Bharti Infratel	316.10	-0.70
Infosys	767.25	7.95
Indian Oil Corp	152.05	-6.40
ITC	292.75	-1.80
JSW Steel	290.40	-3.85
Kotak Bank	1343.25	7.30
L&T	1373.65	-0.15
M&M	667.00	8.80
Maruti Suzuki	7129.45	21.75
NTPC	135.55	0.75
ONGC	158.10	1.55
PowerGrid Corp	198.35	2.05
Reliance Ind	1329.25	-24.65
State Bank	312.80	-4.25
Sun Pharma	462.45	-0.70
Tata Motors	200.55	-4.60
Tata Steel	549.05	-0.25
TCS	2070.75	22.45
Tech Mahindra	787.15	9.90
Titan	1104.40	-2.00
UltraTech Cement	4166.85	-23.55
UPL	946.80	5.80
Vedanta	186.65	-5.05
Wipro	263.70	1.60
YES Bank	260.05	-6.80
Zee Entertainment	404.75	-6.75

EXCHANGE RATES
Indicative direct rates in rupees a unit except yen at 4 p.m. on April 08
CURRENCY	TT BUY	TT SELL
US Dollar	69.47	69.79
Euro	78.12	78.49
British Pound	90.69	91.11
Japanese Yen (100)	62.33	62.62
Chinese Yuan	10.34	10.39
Swiss Franc	69.49	69.82
Singapore Dollar	51.25	51.50
Canadian Dollar	51.96	52.20
Malaysian Ringgit	16.95	17.04

Source: Indian Bank

BULLION RATES CHENNAI
April 08 rates in rupees with previous rates in parentheses
Retail Silver (1g)	40.9	(40.5)
22 ct gold (1g)	3053	(3028)
Retail Silver (1g)	40.9	(40.5)
22 ct gold (1g)	3053	(3028)

SBI sets terms for Jet Airways sale

Maximum stake on offer is 75% in the cash-strapped airline; last date for receipt of EoI is April 10

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

MUMBAI

State Bank of India (SBI) on Monday invited bids from strategic and financial investors for stake sale in the cash-strapped Jet Airways.

SBI, the lead bank of the consortium of lenders of Jet Airways (India) Ltd., has offered bidders a maximum of 75% stake (8,51,98,037 shares). The minimum stake on offer is 31.2% (3,45,42,383 shares).

SBI Capital Markets Ltd., on behalf of the SBI, has invited expression of interest (EoI) for a change in control and management of Jet Airways. The last date for receipt of EoI is April 10.

Selected bidders are required to submit binding bids by April 30, 2019.

A competitive bidding

White knight wanted: A competitive bidding process will be followed for identifying a suitable investor. ■ REUTERS process would be followed for identification of a suitable investor to acquire ownership of the company on as-is where-is basis.

The winning bidder is expected to settle the obligations of the company in relation to existing bank loan facilities.

EoIs had been invited from individuals, including foreign nationals, trusts, cooperative societies, private limited companies, public limited companies, partnership firms and sole proprietorships. Bidders can be strategic investors (SIs) or financial investors (FIs).

In the event of a bidder not being a consortium, the SI bidder should have a minimum net worth of ₹1,000 crore in the immediately preceding financial year or have funds available for investment in Indian assets of ₹1,000 crore or more or a minimum of three years of experience in the commercial aviation business.

If the bidder is an FI, then it should have minimum assets under management of ₹2,000 crore in the immediately preceding completed financial year or committed funds available for investment in Indian assets of ₹1,000 crore or more.

A consortium that may bid would consist of not more than three members with shareholding of an individual member not being less than 15%. There must be a lead consortium member to take decisions.

Access to data

After conclusion of the EoI stage and following execution of a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) and payment of bid access fee, the qualified bidders would be provided access to the data room to provide information about the company.

Interested parties are expected to submit a preliminary term sheet providing indicative valuation for 100% equity share capital of the company and settlement of all obligations of the company.

In first gear: For FY19, the industry clocked the highest sales and production seen in a financial year. ■ B. VELANKANNI RAJ

PVs grew 2.7% in FY19, the slowest in 5 years

SIAM pegs FY20 sales growth at 3-5%

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI

are in election year. Historical data shows that the growth before the elections remains subdued," he said. Other factors that affected demand included increase in insurance costs, a liquidity crunch and the highest-ever commodity prices that forced carmakers to raise vehicle prices, he added.

"However, if we look at the positive side, we have continued to grow. Also, it is the highest-ever sales and production [achieved] in a financial year," he added.

Two-wheelers, the data showed, grew 4.85% in FY19, with the industry body forecasting growth of 5-7% for this fiscal. Likewise, commercial vehicles grew 17.55% in 2018-19 and are expected to see lower growth of 10-12% this year.

Seeking lower taxes for the sector, Mr. Wadhwa noted that the change in insurance policy has resulted in prices of two-wheelers rising by about 10%. This will go up further with introduction of BS VI. "The [Centre] should look at lowering GST for two-wheelers to 18% from 28%. The impact for cars will be higher with BS VI and other safety norms. We need serious consideration from the government," he said.

Jet: different journeys for different investors

Though debt-laden and staring at oblivion, the airline can still add value to buyers

LALATENDU MISHRA

MUMBAI

Even as lenders have kick-started the process of selecting a bidder for Jet Airways, the carrier is reporting a daily loss of more than ₹20 crore with sharp erosion in cash flows, company officials said.

While Jet's promoter Naresh Goyal has stepped down in deference to the wishes of the lenders, its strategic partner Etihad Airways is unwilling to take charge.

To add to its woes, the lenders have declined to disburse the much-needed ₹1,500 crore loan. Jet Airways, once one of India's top airlines, is possibly heading towards oblivion as cash taps dry up, said the officials. The over six-month delay in the execution of the rescue plan had made the situation only difficult, they added.

Jet Airways, that had reported a negative net worth of ₹10,370 crore as on December 31, 2018 and bank loans worth ₹7,500 crore, including aircraft loans, is estimated to have recorded losses of a few thousand more crore during the January to March quarter.

"There is no clear idea about how much money the airline might have lost in the last three months," said Ansuman Deb, aviation analyst, ICICI Securities.

Analysts said the situation was grave since there had been no advance cash flows and the working capital requirement had spiralled out of control. Besides, most of the fleet had been groundeddue to non-payment of dues to lessors. As on December 31, 2018, Jet's current liabilities had exceeded its current assets by ₹9,610 crore and as on March 31, 2019, it might have increased by a few thousand crores.

"From what has been reported by the airline so far, you can easily add ₹3,000 to ₹4,000 crore to the losses," different buyers.

While Jet's total liability is estimated to be over ₹2 billion, its assets are no match.

Jet's assets

The airline's assets include 16 aircraft which, after loan repayment, are valued at ₹1,700 crore; it has booking slots for 220 Boeing 737 MAX planes, hangar at Mumbai, parking and landing slots at key airports and the goodwill of a world-class airline. Its employee base is one of the best in the industry.

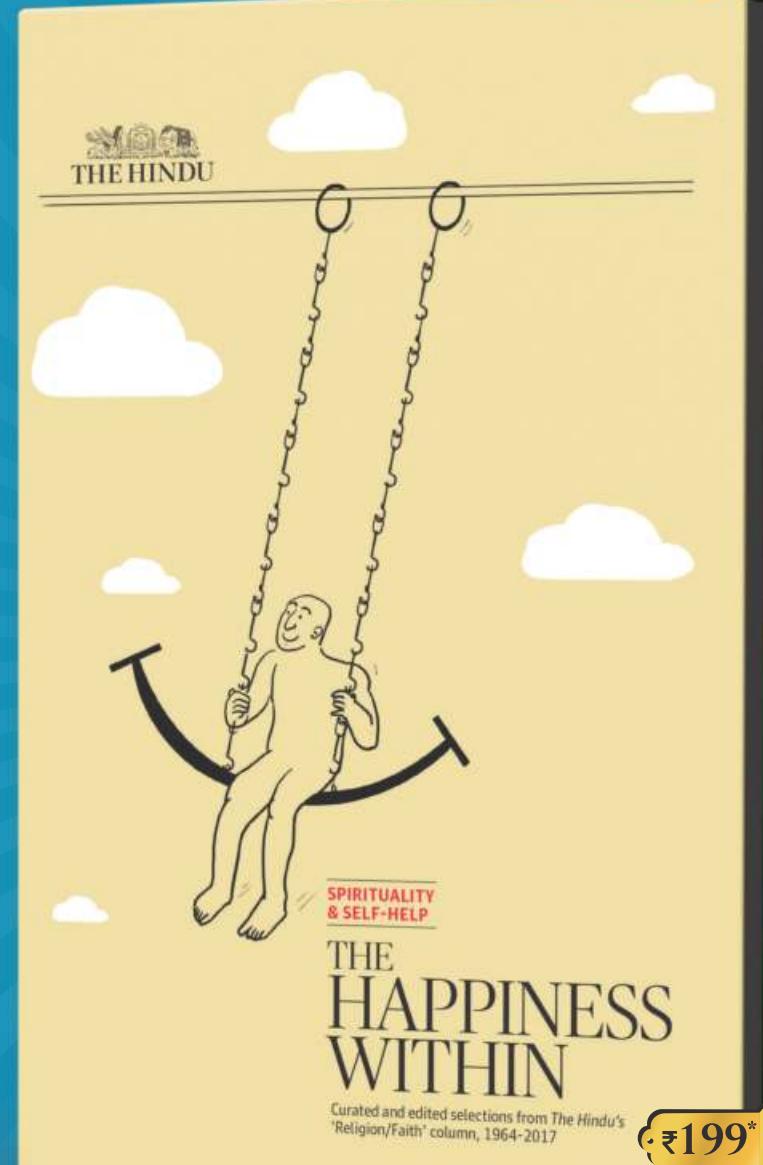

Besides, its real estate in Mumbai is estimated to be worth more than ₹800 crore.

Put together, these may still be insufficient to meet the liabilities but Jet can find a buyer as it brings different sets of value proposition to

"They may invest ₹10,000 crore but it makes sense," an analyst said. Similarly, for an investor like IndiGo, Jet Airways can enhance its international market share from 2% to 35% at one go.

"One has to think about the replacement-cost value. The value of Jet is in what somebody can do with it," the analyst said. For a new entrant, it provides market access. For a foreign airline, Jet gets a different value while for private equity investors, who would buy at deep discounts, it would have a different meaning.

A selection from Religion / Faith columns published in The Hindu between 1964 & 2017

PRE-BOOK YOUR COPY AND GET 20% OFF

To Book Online

Visit: www.thehindu.com/publications

For bulk booking, e-mail: bookstore@thehindu.co.in

For any enquiries call: 1800 3000 1878

*Shipping charges extra

Merger with Indiabulls Housing will take

IN BRIEF

Inflows into equity, income funds surge

Aided by interest rate cut and other factors, MF sector poised to grow 17-18% in FY20, says AMFI's CEO

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
MUMBAI

Equity mutual fund schemes snapped a four-month decline in flows in March leading to a marginal increase in the overall assets of the fund industry in the last month of the financial year. Income funds also saw a huge jump in inflows for the month.

According to data from the Association of Mutual Funds in India (AMFI), equity schemes saw net inflows of ₹9,014 crore in March, which was more than double the previous month's net inflows of ₹3,948 crore.

If the cumulative inflows of equity and equity-linked savings schemes are taken into account, the month saw net inflows of ₹11,756 crore, higher than February's ₹5,122 crore, which was the

Weathering the storm

Category	Net flows (₹ crore)
Income	13,856
Equity Schemes (Excluding Arbitrage Funds)	9,014
Arbitrage Funds	(3,998)
Balanced	(3,181)
Liquid/Money Market	(51,343)
Gilt	38
ELSS - Equity	2,742
Gold ETFs	(38)
Other ETFs	10,540
Fund of Funds Investing Overseas	13

Figures in brackets indicate outflows; Source: AMFI lowest since January 2017.

On an overall basis, the assets under management (AUM) of the mutual fund industry grew to ₹23.80 crore in March, marginally higher than previous month's ₹23.16 crore, while registering a 11% increase on an year-on-year basis that also saw folios rising 16% to touch 8.25 crore.

"The mutual fund industry, in one of the most difficult and uncertain years, marked with acute market volatility, credit events and border tensions, has done exceedingly well, with overall industry growing by 11% and retail by 14%," said N.S. Venkatesh, CEO, AMFI.

"With interest rates easing and impact of credit events almost normalised, and macro-economic indicators showing healthy uptrend, the mutual fund industry is poised to grow at 17-18% in 2019-20," he added.

Income funds

Meanwhile, income funds also saw a strong surge in March, registering net inflows of ₹13,856 crore as against ₹2,080 crore in the previous month. Mr. Venkatesh attributed the flows into income funds to the recent rate cut by the Reserve Bank of India and its dovish stance that made investors stay invested in such schemes.

The financial year 2018-19 saw total inflows from systematic investment plans (SIPs) of ₹84,638 crore, which was higher than the previous fiscal's net inflows of ₹67,190 crore. Further, the number of SIP accounts as on March 31, 2019 was pegged at 2.62 crore – a little over 24% higher than 2.11 crore as on March 31, 2018.

Incidentally, liquid and money market schemes continued to see huge outflows, affecting the overall rise in the AUM of the mutual fund. In March, such schemes reported outflows of ₹51,343 crore, following last month's outflows of ₹24,509 crore.

'LNG imports fell 9.1% despite declining prices'

Lower consumption driving trend

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) imports fell 9.1% during February 2019, despite global prices falling, which bucks the established trend in India where LNG imports rise when prices fall, according to a report by Ind-Ra.

This change in import behaviour could be explained by the dual trends of increased production and decreased consumption within India, the report added.

"LNG imports have been gradually declining since November 2018 and fell 9.1% year-on-year to 68 mmscmd (million metric standard cubic meter per day) during February 2019," the report said. "On the other hand, the Henry Hub prices reduced gradually to $2.7/mmmbtu (metric million British thermal unit) in February 2019 from $4.0/mmmbtu in November 2018." "This is in contrast to the historical trends seen where LNG imports have increased on a reduction in Henry Hub prices," the report added.

According to Ind-Ra, whose analysis is based on data from the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas, natural gas production rose 3.3% in February 2019 compared to a year earlier.

While ONGC registered an 8.5% increase in natural gas production, Oil India saw a 2.7% fall; private and joint venture fields saw a more drastic fall in production of 14%.

Samsung introduces new line of smart televisions in India

Consumer electronics firm to focus on AI, IoT products

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

South Korean electronics major Samsung on Monday introduced a new line of smart televisions with features specifically made for the Indian market.

"The entire new range of televisions, which we are calling Unbox Magic series, comes with specific features such as personal computer, music system, home cloud, live cast and two-way sharing. These have been developed by our R&D team in India, from insights received from Indian consumers," said Raju Pullan, senior vice-president, consumer electronics, Samsung India.

The new range consists of smart TVs with size starting at 32 inches and priced ₹24,900 onwards.

Sweetening the deal

"The consumer is moving towards 'smart' across price points... we are sweetening the deal by offering consumer-centric features and more importantly, tying up with finance companies across the spectrum to make upgrade cycle much more stronger," he said.

About non-smart TVs, Mr. Pullan said that overall TV penetration in India was 60% of which 40-45% accounted for CRT televisions.

"We see a fast conversion from non-smart to smart TVs, similar to what happened in change from 3G to 4G...big strong double digit growth. We will transition in line with consumer demand. One key area of focus for Samsung will be products with AI and IoT-based. This is not just for TVs but for all other categories as well," he said.

HDFC Bank plans to raise ₹50,000 crore

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
NEW DELHI

Private lender HDFC Bank on Monday said it was planning to raise up to ₹50,000 crore this fiscal by issuing bonds on private placement basis.

"We wish to inform you that the bank proposes to raise funds by issuing perpetual debt instruments [part of additional tier I capital], tier II capital bonds and long-term bonds [financing of infrastructure and affordable housing] up to a total amount of ₹50,000 crore in the period of next 12 months through private placement mode," it said in a filing. The bank said its board would consider the proposal on April 20.

RIL denies links to $1.2 billion money laundering probe

Case relates to over-invoicing services, works for pipeline

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
MUMBAI

Reliance Industries Limited (RIL) has denied any links to a $1.2-billion money-laundering case being probed in the Netherlands.

The allegation was Dutch pipeline company, A Hak, NL, earned $1.2 billion in profit by over-invoicing its services and works rendered to Reliance Gas Transportation Infrastructure Ltd. (RTGIL), now known as East West Pipeline Ltd. (EWPL).

This money was allegedly 'creamed-off' to Singapore-based Biometrix Marketing Limited, a company reportedly linked to RIL. Biometrix is the same firm that the Indian tax authorities are probing for the ₹6,500 crore investments made in firms belonging to RIL or its promoter group in 2007-08.

RIL has always complied with all rules, regulations and applicable laws and any suggestion of impropriety... is emphatically denied."

RGTIL used to be RIL's subsidiary when it was granted a licence to set up the 1400-km east-west pipeline connecting Jamnagar to the Krishna Godavari basin.

Later, it was hived off into an 'independent' firm controlled fully by Mukesh Ambani and renamed EWPL. Last month, Canadian investor Brookfield-led India Infrastructure Trust agreed to buy EWPL for ₹13,000 crore.

THE HINDU GROUP

THE GOD OF CRICKET LIES IN THE DETAILS

Presenting The Hindu Lounge

<https://lounge.thehindu.com>

This limited edition masterpiece is not just a stunning sketch of India's favourite cricketing legend Sachin Tendulkar. Hidden in the fine lines are Sachin's 100 centuries along with the date, score and the opponent.

A befitting tribute to the God of Cricket. And a must-have memorabilia for any Sachin Tendulkar fan.

To get your hands on this limited edition Sachin Tendulkar collectible, Log on to <https://lounge.thehindu.com> today.

Lounge

COLLECTOR'S CHOICE
LIMITED EDITION PRINTS

Rahul holds firm, guides Kings home in tense finish

Mayank, too, chips in during the chase; Sunrisers struggle early on, but a patient knock by Warner helps them post 150

UTHRA GANESAN
MOHALI

Kings XI Punjab returned to home comfort and winning ways, leapfrogging to the third spot in the table with a six-wicket win over Sunrisers Hyderabad here on Monday, despite a late mini-collapse in a below-par chase of 151.

The host appeared to have learnt its lessons in pacing the chase, Mayank Agarwal and K.L. Rahul ensuring there would be no hiccups at the finish a second time.

The duo did not let the early dismissal of Chris Gayle affect the scoring rate, making individual half-centuries and adding 114 for the second wicket to put the host in control. The only difference was the routes they took – Rahul preferring strokes along the ground and Mayank going the aerial way.

They seemed to be playing on a different pitch from what the SRH batsmen had struggled on, and the conditions did not make it any easier for the visitors. Dew helped the ball come on to the bat better and race to the boundary faster.

Sunrisers' fumbles in the field only compounded the problems, in particular the sitter dropped by Yusuf Pathan off Mayank with the batsman on 42 and Kings needing 37 for victory. Though the hosts lost three wickets in the final three overs for 16 runs, the Rahul-Mayank stand had done enough.

Uncharacteristic

Earlier, it was an uncharacteristically slow knock by Warner, who remained unbeaten on 70 with six hits to the boundary and one over it. In fact, the Sunrisers innings had a grand total of two sixes – the other one by Deepak Hooda off the last ball of the innings. Hooda's 14 runs off the final three deliveries saw Sunrisers touch 150.

The presence of Warner did give Sunrisers the anchor it needed after losing Jonny Bairstow in the second over. The middle-order, which had crumbled in the previous game against Mumbai Indians, made amends. Vijay Shankar didn't attempt flashy shots, instead favouring a strenuous partnership. Manish Pandey, mixing caution with aggression, kept the scoreboard ticking.

However, at 50 for one in 10 overs, R. Ashwin's decision to put Sunrisers in

Innings scan
SRH	KXIP
43	Dots 40
12	Fours 11
2	Sixes 5
27/1	PP 38/1
7.50	RR 7.61

Next assignment

KXIP: April 10: vs MI Mumbai, 8 p.m.

SRH: April 14: vs DC, Hyderabad, 8 p.m.

Top of the charts
ORANGE CAP	David Warner (SRH)
Matches: 6 Runs: 349
HS: 100* S/R: 146.63

PURPLE CAP
Kagiso Rabada (DC)
Matches: 6 Wickets: 11
BB: 4/21 Econ.: 7.55

*after the KXIP-SRH match on April 8

Home sweet home

7 This was KXIP's seventh consecutive win at Mohali

1 Warner's slowest 50 in the IPL (49 balls), replacing the 45-ball effort against KXIP (Hyderabad, 2017)

2 No. of times three Afghanistan players (Nabi, Rashid and Mujeeb) have played in the same IPL game - SRH vs KXIP (2018) and KXIP vs SRH (2019)

7 Warner has scored seven fifties in his last seven innings against KXIP - 58 (41b), 81 (52b), 59 (31b), 52 (41b), 70* (54b), 51 (27b) and 70* (62b) looked right. Warner struggled to find the gaps and the pitch stayed slow and low, making strokeplay difficult. His 50 off 49 balls was his slowest IPL half-century.

Vijay Shankar nicked Ashwin to Rahul in the 11th over and Mohd. Nabi was run out by the KXIP skipper who deflected a shot from Warner to the stumps. The Afghanistan player had backed off almost too far down the pitch. It looked like the Sunrisers bowlers wouldn't have enough to defend, and that's exactly what happened.

Mr. Cool: Rahul kept his nerve to take the side through with a ball remaining. ■ AKHILESH KUMAR

Super Kings not overtly focused on containing Russell

S. DIPAK RAGAV
CHENNAI

Two teams with different philosophies and approaches to T20 cricket find themselves in the top-half of the points table after one-third of the season.

Going into their sixth match at the M.A. Chidambaram Stadium here on Tuesday, Chennai Super Kings and Kolkata Knight Riders have four wins each, with the latter ahead thanks to a healthier net run-rate.

While CSK has depended on collective effort, largely led by spinners, KKR has managed to win from tough situations thanks to Andre Russell's heroics.

After starting with two easy wins, CSK had to work hard for its victories against Rajasthan Royals and Kings XI Punjab. It came about because of its ability to win key moments of a game under pressure.

The focus on Tuesday will be on how the home team contains Russell, who has been in marauding form – scoring 207 runs off just 77 balls at a strike rate of 268.8.

Key players: CSK skipper M.S. Dhoni will hope Imran Tahir and Harbhajan Singh turn it on against the KKR batsmen on Tuesday. ■ R. RAGAV

The fact that CSK's bowling, especially at the death, is thin and something the team is well aware of, means it might have to rely on its spinners on friendly conditions to get him out as early as possible.

CSK coach Stephen Fleming though said while Russell has played a key role, the team wouldn't be too focused on the all-rounder saying, "We've got to be careful we don't focus overtly on Russell. In a team that has (Chris) Lynn, (Dinesh) Karthik and (Robin) Uthappa, he makes the bowler alter his plans, plays on his mind. The margin of error against Russell is very low – and the bowler can run out of options. If it is a length ball, Russell uses his long reach, goes through with the swing and can send the ball on a flight between long-on and square-leg.

The transformation in his batting is striking. He has found ways to maximise the impact of his power-game.

Manipulating the crease
Just look at the manner Russell manipulates the crease. There are times when he stands well behind the line to get under the yorkers and pick it up on the half-volley.

And he is able to execute these strokes because of his terrific bat-speed and strong wrists that enable him get under the ball.

If the ball is really full, it is not uncommon to see him move still deeper into the crease, get under the sphere and dismiss it into the stands.

The 30-year-old's big back swing and the stability of his legs, that are spread wide to create a strong base and utilise the ground forces, lend greater potency to his strokes.

He makes the bowler alter his plans, plays on his mind.

The margin of error against

Russell is very low – and the bowler can run out of options.

If it is a length ball, Russell uses his long reach, goes through with the swing and can send the ball on a flight between long-on and square-leg.

The shifting of the weight to either leg is done effortlessly by this West Indian. Even on those occasions when he is committed on the front foot and the pace-man drops it short, Russell can quickly change plans, shift weight and flash the ball past point or hook and pull it, depending on the line.

Heavy bat

He has grown stronger, uses a heavy bat, practises range-hitting and no ground is big enough for him. Left-arm spin or leg-spin could be a useful ploy against this marauder. But then, Russell is running hot these days.

He has found ways to maximise the impact of his power-game

Scourge of bowlers: Andre Russell's monstrous hitting has often left the opposition stunned. ■ K. MURALI KUMAR

Points table

Team	M	W	L	NR	PTS	NRR
Kolkata Knight Riders	5	4	1	0	8	1.058
Chennai Super Kings	5	4	1	0	8	0.159
Kings XI Punjab	6	4	2	0	8	-0.061
Sunrisers Hyderabad	6	3	3	0	6	0.810
Mumbai Indians	5	3	2	0	6	0.342
Delhi Capitals	6	3	3	0	6	0.131
Rajasthan Royals	5	1	4	0	2	-0.848
Royal Challengers	6	0	6	0	0	-1.453

*after the KXIP-SRH match on April 8

SCOREBOARD

SUNRISERS HYDERABAD

David Warner (not out) 70 (62b, 6x4, 1x6), Jonny Bairstow c Ashwin b Mujeeb 1 (6b), Vijay Shankar c Rahul b Ashwin 26 (27b, 2x4), Mohammad Nabi run out 12 (7b), Manish Pandey c sub b Shami 19 (15b, 2x4), Deepak Hooda (not out) 14 (3b, 2x4, 1x6), Extras (w-3, lb-5); Total (for four wkts. in 20 overs): 150.

FALL OF WICKETS

1-7 (Bairstow, 1.4 overs), 2-56 (Vijay Shankar, 10.4), 3-80 (Nabi, 13.2), 4-135 (Pandey, 19.1).

KINGS XI BOWLING

Rajpoot 4-0-21-0, Mujeeb 4-0-34-1, Shami 4-0-30-1, Ashwin 4-0-30-1, Curran 4-0-30-0.

KINGS XI PUNJAB

K.L. Rahul (not out) 71 (53b, 7x4, 1x6), Chris Gayle c Hooda b Rashid 16 (14b, 1x4, 1x6), Mayank Agarwal c Vijay Shankar b Sandeep 55 (43b, 3x4, 3x6), David Miller c Hooda b Sandeep 1 (3b), Mandeep Singh c Hooda b Kaul 2 (3b), Sam Curran (not out) 5 (3b); Extras (lb-1); Total (for four wkts. in 19.5 overs): 151.

FALL OF WICKETS

1-18 (Gayle, 3.1 overs), 2-132 (Mayank, 17.1), 3-135 (Miller, 17.6), 4-140 (Mandeep, 18.6).

SUNRISERS BOWLING

Bhuvneshwar 4-0-25-0, Sandeep 4-0-21-2, Rashid 4-0-20-1, Nabi 3.5-0-42-0, Kaul 4-0-42-1.

Toss: Kings XI Punjab.

Man-of-the-Match: K.L. Rahul.
Kings XI won by six wickets with one delivery to spare.

Indian squad for ICC World Cup to be picked on April 15

IPL final in Hyderabad if Chennai fails to get clearance

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
NEW DELHI

The takeaways

- India's World Cup squad to be announced in Mumbai on April 15
- TNCA given one week to sort out empty stands issue. Hyderabad and Bengaluru kept on standby for IPL play-off games
- BCCI set to get ₹2.09 crore from Cricket Australia after reconciliation of accounts for last 10 years comfortable after BCCI zeroed in on Hyderabad as the stand-by venue for the May 12 final.

'Get clearances'

"We have given them a week's time to get clearances for the three closed stands. If they fail to procure the certificates, the final will be shifted to Hyderabad, and the playoff and eliminator will move to Bengaluru. Since Sunrisers was runner-up in 2018, it host the final," said a senior BCCI official.

The CoA also decided on the format of the mini Women's IPL which will be played in Visakhapatnam and Bengaluru. Three teams will figure in four games, including the final.

Support staff likely to get extension

Special bond: Skipper Kohli and coach Shastri are all set to continue their partnership.

VIRAJ LOKAPALLY
NEW DELHI

The Indian team's existing support staff, led by chief coach Ravi Shastri, stand a good chance of getting an extension.

The authorities are reportedly happy with their work and are inclined to stretch the contract beyond the forthcoming World Cup.

TV PICKS

IPL: Star Sports 1, 2 & Select 1 (SD & HD), 8 p.m.

Super Cup: Star Sports 3, 8.30 p.m.

Champions League: Sony Ten 1, 2 (SD & HD), 12.30 a.m. (Wednesday)

IN BRIEF

Muguruza retains

Monterrey Open title

MONTERREY (MEXICO)

Spain's Garbine Muguruza successfully defended her Monterrey Open title when an injured Victoria Azarenka retired in the final on Sunday. Second seed Muguruza was leading 6-1, 3-1 when Azarenka was unable to continue because of a leg injury. REUTERS

Warriors clinch top spot

in Western Conference

LOS ANGELES

Golden State Warriors clinched the Western Conference's top seeding with a victory in its final regular-season contest against Los Angeles Clippers 131-104 on Sunday. Elsewhere, Houston Rockets continued its three-point assault, draining a record 27 in a 149-113 win over Phoenix Suns. Rockets broke their own league single-game record with the help of 30 points from James Harden. AFP

Keys downs Wozniacki to claim Charleston crown

CHARLESTON

Madison Keys claimed the first clay-court title of her career on Sunday with a 7-6(5), 6-3 defeat of Caroline Wozniacki at the Charleston Open. It marked the fourth title of Keys' career and her first since winning at Stanford in 2017. She defeated three Grand Slam champions – Jelena Ostapenko, Stephens and Wozniacki – on her way to the title. AFP

Chinese girls down

India 2-1

KUALA LUMPUR

Pari Singh won her match but India was beaten 2-1 by China in a group-D league match of the Asia-Oceania World Junior under-14 girls' tennis tournament here on Monday. The results (league): China bt India 2-1 (Zou Ruirui bt Veda Raju Papuruna 6-3, 6-1; Sun Liang lost to Pari Singh 2-6, 6-7(2); Hou Yanan & Zou Ruirui bt Veda Raju Papuruna & Pari Singh 6-2, 6-2).

Reid is Team India chief coach

Will join the team at the national camp in Bengaluru

HOCKEY

UTHRA GANESAN
MOHALI

Hockey India, on Monday, confirmed the appointment of Graham Reid as chief coach of the India men's hockey team.

The 54-year-old Reid is likely to join the team midway through the national camp in Bengaluru that commenced on Monday.

While Reid's name had been doing the rounds for a while now, his appointment was all but confirmed when HI and the Sports Authority of India (SAI) forwarded it for final clearance to the Sports Ministry late last month.

Differences sorted out

There had been reports of differences over his salary but the federation has now ended all speculation. Unlike previous coaches, he would be moving base to Bengaluru with his family.

On board: John Reid brings to the table his vast experience as coach of Australia and the Netherlands. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

"Graham Reid is backed by a successful career as a player."

He also comes with strong coaching experience, having worked with the Australian and the Netherlands national teams.

"We are hopeful his experience and expertise will help the Indian team achieve desirable results leading up to and at the Tokyo Olympics," HI president Mohd. Mushtaque Ahmad said.

Reid was part of the Australian side that won silver at the Barcelona Olympics.

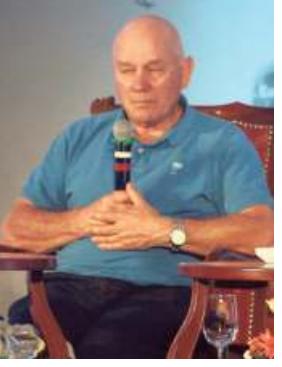

Graham Reid gets Charlesworth's backing

UTHRA GANESAN
MOHALI

The Indian men's month-long hockey camp began coach-less on Monday morning, but by evening new chief coach Graham Reid's appointment was confirmed by Hockey India.

Reid's appointment had been held up by the Sports Ministry following differences over his salary. But even before the news of his confirmation became official, Reid received a vote of confidence from Ric Charlesworth, the man considered the undisputed guru of modern hockey.

Reid was assistant to Charlesworth with Australia for six years before the latter called it a day after winning the 2014 World Cup. Reid was asked to step into the set-up.

Ric Charlesworth. ■ FILE PHOTO

and some polishing to take the next step," he said.

Interestingly, Charlesworth also hoped former National coach Harendra Singh would be part of the set-up.

"Reid is a good collaborator and will be able to work with those already there – I expect Harendra might be able to contribute too," Charlesworth said.

Also interesting would be to see how Reid handles the senior players in the side under the current policy of 'younger legs'.

Word of caution

Charlesworth had axed the likes of Jamie Dwyer after 2014 to build a new Aussie team for Rio but Reid brought them back, insisting there was no substitute for experience.

Charlesworth, however, had a word of caution. "I believe they need to give Reid the time to make a difference."

"The biggest threat is he may not be given the time to polish this team – he needs to start soon," he said.

Anand draws with Grischuk

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
SHAMKIR (AZERBAIJAN)

India's Viswanathan Anand played out an easy draw with Alexander Grischuk of Russia, while Norwegian Magnus Carlsen raced ahead with a crushing win over out-of-sorts Dutchman Anish Giri in the seventh round of Shamkir chess tournament here.

The results (sixth round): V. Anand (Ind, 3.5) drew with Alexander Grischuk (Rus, 3.5); Teimour Radjabov (Aze, 3.5) drew with Veselin Topalov (Bul, 3.5); Shakhriyar Mamedyarov (Aze, 2.5) drew with Ding Liren (Chn, 3.5); Magnus Carlsen (Nor, 5) bt Anish Giri (Ned, 2); David Navara (Cze, 3.5); drew with Teimour Radjabov (Aze, 3.5).

Malaysia, India split points

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
KUALA LUMPUR

Navneet Kaur struck twice as the Indian women's hockey team overcame a 2-4 setback in the third quarter to level the scores 4-4 in its third match against Malaysia in the five-match series here Monday.

Though it was India which established a strong position after taking an early 2-lead, the team made too many errors defending leading to back-to-back penalty corners which Malaysia converted.

The results: Malaysia 4 (Gurdip Kirandeep, Nuraini Rashid, Nuramirah Zulkifli, Nuraini Rashid) drew with India 4 (Navjot Kaur, Navneet Kaur (2), Lalremrhami).

Napoli held by Genoa

Result puts Juventus coronation on hold

EURO LEAGUES

AGENCE FRANCE-PRESSE
MILAN

Napoli drew 1-1 with 10-man Genoa on Sunday to ensure that Juventus will have to wait another week to seal an eighth consecutive Serie A title.

The champion has a 20-point advantage on second-placed Napoli, which it has beaten in both head-to-head clashes, with seven games to go. Juventus, which beat AC Milan 2-1 on Saturday, needed Napoli to lose to win the Scudetto for the 35th time, ahead of its Champions League quarterfinal first leg against Ajax next week.

A draw next weekend at SPAL would be enough for Massimiliano Allegri's side to win the title which would be the first in Italy for Cristiano Ronaldo.

Despite its numerical advantage, Napoli struggled to Souvenirs issue: Mohun Bagan forms panel

Complaints received from ex-players

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
KOLKATA

Avika Sagwal upset fifth-seeded Renne Singla 6-7(5), 7-6(5), 7-5 in a closely-fought women's singles first round contest in the Zee Bangla Central Excise Open AITA National-ranking tournament at the Bengal Tennis Association courts here on Monday.

Important results (first round):

Men: Anshu Kumar Bhuyan bt Arghya Das 4-6, 6-1, 6-1; Parikshit Somanji bt Shivam Dalma 6-7(5)-6-2, 6-2; Priti Sekhar bt Tarun Anirudh Chiklakalapudi 6-1, 6-1; Faisal Qamar bt Sahil Gaware 6-3, 6-4; D. Suresh bt Vivek Gautam 6-1, 6-3; Mohammed Fahad bt Rishi Reddy 2-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Women: Shreya Chakraborty bt Akshala Kumar 6-0, 6-1; Damra Sunskriti bt Rupkatha Mukherjee 2-6, 7-5, 6-1;

Avika Sagwal bt Renne Singla 6-7(5), 7-6 (5), 7-5; Ayushi Singh bt Shatavisha Ghosh 6-3, 7-6(5); Aarthi Munian bt Dhwanvi Kumar 7-5, 6-3; Vanashika Chaudhary bt Medhavi Singh 6-2, 6-0.

plaints of missing and damaged souvenirs earned by ex-Indian players (who played for the team).

Several souvenirs were returned to their rightful owners but they complained that many other important souvenirs are missing.

The Executive Committee has formed a six-member committee to investigate and find the whereabouts of these prestigious material," said a statement.

Indian boys outplayed will next play Indonesia, before taking on the third seed Australia.

The results (league): New Zealand bt India 3-0 (Jay Friend bt Jay Malik 6-4, 6-3; Corban Crowther bt Divesh Gahlot 6-0, 6-3; Corban Crowther & Aukly Wang bt Sushant Dabas & Ajay Malik 7-6(2), 6-1).

Ayush nets for Delhi

SPORTS BUREAU
LUJHIANA

Delhi edged Meghalaya 1-0 as the final round of the 73rd National football championship for the Santosh Trophy commenced here on Monday. Ayush Adhikari scored the only goal of the game in the 18th minute of the Group A encounter.

The results: La Liga: Real Betis 2 (Lo Celso 11, 63) bt Villarreal 1 (Funes Mori 13).

Serie A: Napoli 1 (Mertens 34)

drew with Genoa 1 (Lazovic 45+3).

contain the visitor which inflicted the only league defeat this season on Juventus last month.

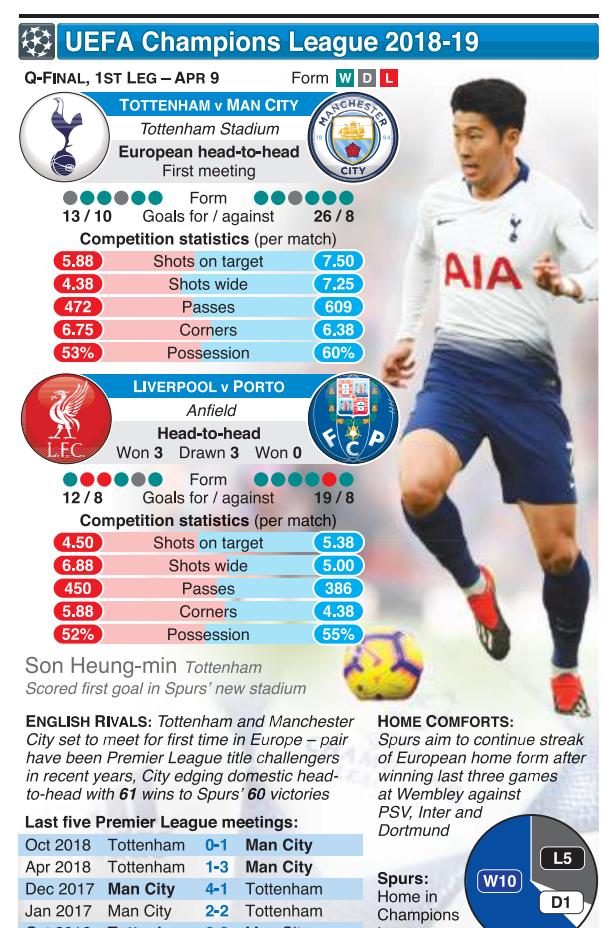

Genoa went a man down when Stefano Sturaro was sent off on 28 minutes following a VAR review for a diving studs-up tackle on Allan.

The results: Liverpool v Porto: Liverpool 1 (Fabinho 10) bt Porto 0 (Hirving Lozano 45+1).

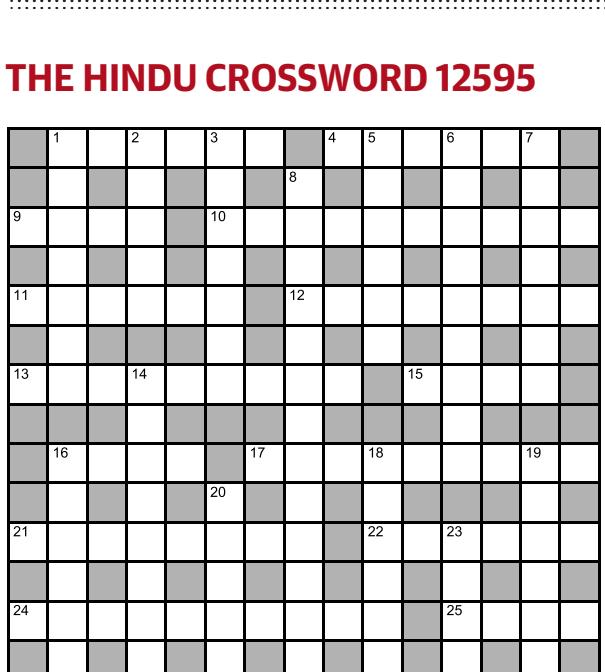

HOME COMFORTS: Spurs aim to continue streak of European home form after winning last three games at Wembley against PSV, Inter and Dortmund

Spurs: Home in Champions League

Sources: UEFA, Gracenote Picture: Getty Images

THE HINDU CROSSWORD 12595

■ ACROSS

- 1 Community: closer to locality (6)
4 Impress Middle East coming back to bully (6)
9 Literally impacts, say pronunciation, for starters (4)
10 Top honcho, perhaps in Romanian capital with foreign emigrants (10)

- 11 Heard snoring in valley's entrance (6)
12 Air trap (8)
13 Scan triggered by unkempt boy right next to security area (6,3)
15 Chain gang (4)
16 Overturn garden cart (4)
17 Sceptically approach source of Yiddish texts of doubtful origin (9)
21 50% of fish swimming regularly in ferny green area of Europe (8)
22 Dismiss nuns eating sandwiches (6)
24 Stick around, keen to have Indian diet, say (10)
25 Run away in order to marry host (4)
26 Scarlet, strangely recalled bloody affair (6)
27 Old president sounds like an honest guy (6)

■ DOWN

- 1 Current trend is to pick up language in church (7)
5 Paddled around river in flood (5)
14 Perhaps she trips Rabbi who's introduced to cashier? (9)
16 Lecture on decimal conversion (7)
18 Crowd-up when sculpture broke (7)
19 Captain took crew, initially eager on board (7)
20 Dad's relative from North, had a grand to start with (6)
23 Paddled around river in flood (5)

(set by Hypatia)

SUDOKU

4	5		3
1			8	4
2	8	9
3			4	5	1
9	8		2
4		9	1	8
		6	</

IN BRIEF

Djokovic heads into clay season as World No. 1

PARIS Novak Djokovic moves into his 20th week as World No. 1 on Monday as the clay season gets under way. The Serb is almost 2,500 points ahead of Rafael Nadal. Japan's Naomi Osaka maintained a slender lead over Romanian Simona Halep at the top of the WTA rankings released on Monday. Osaka now sits 185 points ahead of Halep, with Czech pair Petra Kvitova and Karolina Pliskova in third and fourth. AFP

Caparros suffering from leukemia

SEVILLE Sevilla coach Joaquin Caparros announced on Sunday that he has chronic leukemia but says the condition is under control and will not prevent him continuing in his job. "I have chronic leukemia," Caparros said at a post-match press conference. "I have caught it early and can live a normal life. I want to enjoy my job and for everyone to stay calm. I've had no treatment and am grateful for the club giving me the opportunity [to continue coaching]," he said. AFP

Ko claims first Major title at ANA Inspiration

LOS ANGELES Reigning Rookie-of-the-Year Ko Jin-young captured her first Major title on Sunday, holding off fellow South Korean Lee Mi-Hyang with the ANA Inspiration by three strokes. Ko, who is in her second year, finished with a 10-under 278 for her fourth LPGA title. Ko celebrated her win by taking the traditional dip with her caddie in Poppie's Pond — the water hazard located off the right and back of the green on the 18th. AFP

Coach will be appointed at the earliest: Praful Patel

Praful Patel. • AFP

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

NEW DELHI The All-India Football Federation (AIFF) president Praful Patel may consider appointing a big name as the national team coach only if the candidate fits the criteria and the appointment may be done at the earliest.

The AIFF has received more than 250 applications for the top job, which is vacant after Stephen Constantine resigned following India's failure to make the knockouts of the AFC Asian Cup.

"If the candidate fulfills the criteria, what we are looking at, and if he is well-qualified, then we can think of that (appointing a big name)," the AIFF chief said.

"The appointment will be made as soon as possible, maybe by the end of this month."

The list of applicants for the Indian coaching job also includes candidates from the ISL and I-League.

Siddharth Desai is prize catch

Telugu Titans picks up last season's best debutant for ₹1.45 crore

PKL AUCTION

NANDAKUMAR MARAR

MUMBAI

Raider Siddharth Desai has moved up the ranks, in terms of value at the Pro-Kabaddi League Season-7 player auction.

In only his second season as pro, the Kolhapur-born player (base price ₹30 lakh) was picked up by Telugu Titans for a staggering ₹1.45 crore on Monday. Last season's highest earner, Monu Goyat (₹1.51 crore) moved to UP Yoddhas for ₹93 lakh.

Puneri Paltan and Tamil Thalaivas were involved in a frenetic three-way bid for the former U Mumba sensation, Desai. Named the 'Best debutant' last season for his power-packed raiding and speed, Desai will team up with Iranian coach Gholamreza Mazandarani again.

Titans convinced the only foreign head coach in PKL to switch from U Mumba and bid successfully for the 28-year-old player, a crowd-puller in his own right.

Thalaivas came close at ₹1.44 crore before Titans sealed the deal. U Mumba did not execute the Final Bid Match card. Each of the 12 teams is allotted a purse of ₹4.4 crore to recruit a minimum of 18 and maximum 25 players.

Paltan used the Final Bid Match card to bring back reputed raider Nitin Tomar for ₹1.2 crore, the second highest bid. Thalaivas had beaten off challengers to get the player, only to see him taken away on a technical point.

Tomar represented Paltan last season, so the team held the right to match the highest bid by any other franchise for a former player released into the pool.

Thalaivas got Rahul Chaudhari for ₹94 lakh in a straight bid.

Nineteen domestic players went under the hammer. Iranian Esmail Nabibakhsh, taken by Bengal Warriors for ₹77.75 lakh, became the second-highest paid foreigner (Fazel Atrachali at ₹1 crore last season) is the topper.

Several team managements used the Final Bid Match card to retain stars released earlier into the pool.

Those returning to last season's squads were Ravinder Pahal (Dabang Delhi), Girish Ernak (Paltan), Jai-

Top picks

(CATEGORY A DOMESTIC)

Siddharth Desai (₹1.45 crore, Titans)

Nitin Tomar (₹1.20 crore, Paltan using Final Bid Match)

Rahul Chaudhari (94*, Thalaivas)	Chandran Ranjeet (70, Delhi using FBM)
Monu Goyat (93, UP Yoddha)	Shrikant Jadhav (68, Yoddha using FBM)
Sandeep Narwal (89, U Mumba)	Ravinder Pahal (61, Dabang Delhi using FBM)
Mahender Singh (80, Bengaluru Bulls using FBM)	Rishank Devadiga (61, Yoddha using FBM)
Surender Nada (77, Patna Pirates)	Vishal Bharadwaj (60, Titans using FBM)
Prashant Kumar Rai (77, Haryana Steelers)	Surjeet Singh (56, Paltan)
Parvesh Bhainswal (75, Gujarat Fortunegiants)	Ran Singh (55, moves to Tamil Thalaivas)
Girish Ernak (33, Puneri Paltan using FBM)	Amit Hooda (53, Jaipur Pink Panthers)
	Jaideep (35, Pirates)

(FOREIGN PLAYERS (TOP FIVE))

Eshmaiel Nababkhsh (Iran) 77.75, Bengal Warriors

Abozar Meghani (Iran) 75, Titans

Jang Kun Lee (South Korea) 40, Pirates

Eshmaiel Maghsoudlu (Iran) 35, Pirates

Dong Geon Lee (South Korea) 25, U Mumba

* all rupees in lakh deep (Patna Pirates), Mahender Singh (Bengaluru Bulls), Parvesh Bainswal (Gujarat Fortunegiants), Vishal Bharadwaj (Titans), Chandran Ranjith (Dabang), Nitin Tomar (Paltan), Rishank Deva-diga (UP Yodhas) and Shrikant Jadhav (Yodhas).

Last season, five domestic players earned upwards of ₹1 crore, a season later only two have made the crorepatti club.

Value for money: Siddharth Desai's power-packed raiding in the first season has reaped rich dividends. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

Krishna Nagar wins two golds

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Asian Para Games bronze medallist Krishna Nagar of India won two gold medals at the second Fazza-Dubai para badminton international championships here on Sunday.

A day after upsetting World No. 1 Jack Shepherd in the men's singles SS6 semifinals, Nagar pulled off the second upset in as many days when he defeated England's World No. 2 Krysten Coombs 20-22, 25-23, 21-12 in the most exciting final of the day, that went over an hour.

"This is the biggest win of my career," an elated Nagar said before he went on to make it two-for-two, winning the mixed doubles title along with Raja Magotra.

Team India had a good run, at the event finishing with nine medals including four golds on Sunday.

Among others, World No. 1 Pramod Bhagat and Parul Parmer took the gold in SL3 men's and women's singles. However, Asian Para Games winner Tarun went down to French World No. 1 Lucas Mazur in straight games 13-21, 17-21 in men's singles SL4 final.

Chris Cowdrey — a less demonstrative auctioneer

Chris Cowdrey. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

Player auction is a fantastic new concept, says former England cricketer

G. VISWANATH

MUMBAI

Chris Cowdrey had his own way of being less demonstrative while conducting the VIVO ProKabaddi League Auction 2019 at a South Mumbai five star hotel on Monday.

Picking a card from a bag held by his wife, the former cricketer-turned-auctioneer, Chris was business-like, saying: "Anybody wants to kick me of... I am asking for ten (₹10 lakh), he is going back in once, twice and done".

The gavel is hit hard on the sound block and this time the little-known player goes unsold.

But Chris had a busy morning session as franchises bid hard for Iran's Mohammad Esmail Nabibakhsh and Abozar Meghani.

Having done the PKL auction for the first time last year, most in the 12 franchises knew who Chris was — son of the celebrated England cricketer and captain, the late Colin Cowdrey. Chris, now 61, played for Kent and made his Test debut against India at the Wankhede Stadium in 1984.

Talking to The Hindu he said: "I do a lot of charity auctions in the UK, mainly children's.

"This thing is quite new, I did this last year.

'New concept'

"It's a fantastic new concept to us English people because you are not bidding money for a cause, but actually to buy a player for a franchise. It's very different and exciting. I watch the game, but it doesn't make any difference to the auction.

"My job is only to put it out there and see who wants to bid. It's not for me to say "I think he is a good player. I have done mainly cricket auctions, cricket memorabilia, but nothing like this."

Chennai starts well

SHOTGUN WC

SPORTS BUREAU

AL AIN (UAE)

Olympian Kynan Chenai shot 49 following rounds of 24 and 25 in trap in the shotgun World Cup on Monday.

However, there was stiff competition, in a strong field of 142 shooters, as 11 shooters shot the perfect score of 50 in two rounds, while 22 others were on 49.

Pritviraj Tondaiman shot 48, following rounds of 24 and 24. He was on par with 29 others on 48.

In women's trap in which Caroe Cormener of France and Kirsty Barr of Britain won the Olympic quota places with the gold and silver medals respectively. Shagun wound up well with rounds of 23 and 25, but had dropped eight birds earlier in the first three rounds.

The results: Women's trap:

1. Carole Cormener (Fra) 44 (121); 2. Kirsty Barr (GBR) 41 (120); 3. Silvana Stanco (Ita) 33 (121); 26. Shagun Chowdhary 115; 50. Rajeshwari Kumari 109; 69. Varsha Varman 92.

THE HINDU GROUP

FRONTLINE

JANUARY 11, 2019

THE UNION HOME MINISTRY'S ORDER EMPOWERING 10 CENTRAL AGENCIES TO INTERCEPT, MONITOR AND DECRYPT ANY INFORMATION FROM ANY COMPUTER IN THE COUNTRY CONSTITUTES AN ASSAULT ON CITIZEN'S PRIVACY, A FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT

SNOOPING STATE

The Union Home Ministry's order empowering 10 central agencies to intercept, monitor and decrypt any information from any computer in the country constitutes an assault on citizen's privacy, a fundamental right

READING FRONTLINE IS A REWARDING EXPERIENCE

Gift for 6 Months Subscription (Option available)

Wildcraft Sling Bag

Gift for 1 Year Subscription (Option available)

Wildcraft Laptop Bag

Gift for 2 Years Subscription (Option available)

Wildcraft Trolley Bag

Subscribe Now!

Terms and conditions: a) The gift for the respective subscription, will be sent to the address given for the magazine subscription and the expected time of delivery is upto a maximum of 6 weeks from date of subscription. b) Multiple subscription is also available. If the same person wants to subscribe 2 or more subscriptions to the same address, every subscription will be offered a gift. c) To have a closer look at the gifts and read the T&C for this offer, please log onto www.thehindugroup.in/subscribe.

Cover price ₹100

Periodicity	No. of Issues	Rate @ Cover Price(Rs.)	Free Gift
6 months	13	1300	A. Wildcraft Sling Bag (or) B. Philips Power Bank
1 Year	26	2600	A. Wildcraft Laptop Bag (or) B. AT Back Pack
2 Years	52	5200	A. Wildcraft Trolley Bag (or) B. AT Duffle Bag
Overseas	26	110 USD	NA

To subscribe online, visit www.thehindugroup.in/subscribe.

SUBSCRIPTION ORDER FORM

New Subscription Renewal (Subscription No.)

For subscription, please fill the form, sign and send it to Circulation Department, The Hindu, Kasturi Buildings, 859 & 860, Anna Salai, Chennai - 600 002. E-mail: customerservice@thehindu.co.in Toll-Free No.: 1800 3000 1878

Name: _____
Mailing Address: _____
Pin: _____ District: _____ State: _____
Landline: _____ Mobile: _____ e-mail: _____
I am remitting ₹ _____ for 6 months for 1 Year for 2 Years

Gift Selected: For 6 months A (or) B | For 1 Year A (or) B | For 2 Years A (or) B

By DD/Cheque Number - in favour of THG Publishing Private Limited., (Add ₹10 for non-Chennai cheque)

SHANKAR IAS ACADEMY™

Our results speak for us!

126 out of 759 Selections
in UPSC Civil Services 2018 Examination

17% of all India selections are from our Academy!

Congratulations!

Selections in UPSC (2013-18)

Online admissions start on 14th April 2019

Spot admissions start on 19th April 2019

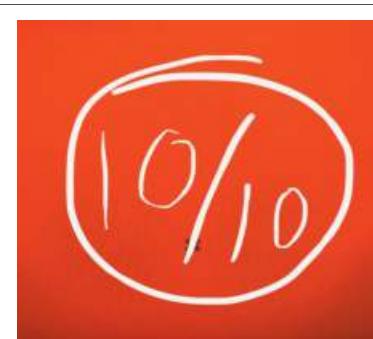

For details on UPSC-2019 batch admissions

Contact
7667766266
044 48574957

For details scan & register

www.shankariasacademy.com
www.iasparliament.com

TOTAL SELECTIONS 400+

All TOP 10 Successful Candidates UPSC-CSE-18 are from KSG

The power of general studies at KSG

KSG
An Institute For IAS Exam...

2018

With the 10 KSG Students featuring in the Top 10 Ranks of the UPSC Civil Services Examination 2018, KSG has now become the synonym of IAS Topper. The numbers speak for themselves. More than 50 per cent of the successful students in the Civil Services 2018 Examination are from KSG. Dr. Khan, the Mentor of the Khan Study Group (KSG) gives entire credit to the hard work of these students. "We at KSG believe in a very simple philosophy. We see a topper in every student that enrolls with us and accordingly put in hard work in each one of them. This approach, along with our super specialization in the General Studies, is the reason of our unprecedented success." Indeed, the General Studies plays the most important role in the Civil Services Examination, and the Result of UPSC 2018 is testimonial to the fact that more and more students are trusting KSG with their IAS aspirations. Accordingly the share of KSG students in the final list of selected candidates has been consistently increasing. KSG is proud of its successful students and wish them all the best in their career.

DELHIMETRO

'Acche din nowhere'

Hundreds of unemployed workers talk about hardships as their wait for 'acche din' continues Page 2

Chor and chowkidar

The upcoming LS poll will be a contest between 'chor and chowkidar', says Manoj Tiwari Page 2

'No steps on air pollution'

The NGT pulls up the DPCC for failing to take steps to curb air pollution in the Capital Page 3

The fabulous

The designer, Farah Khan, traces her bejewelled journey in her début book Page 4

IN BRIEF

Teenager robs cashier of ₹5 lakh, arrested

NEW DELHI
A 19-year-old member of Kapil Sangwan gang and his accomplice have been arrested for allegedly shooting at a school's cashier and robbing her of over ₹5 lakh in Dwarka on April 4, the police said on Monday. DCP (Dwarka) Anto Alphonse said the accused have been identified as Mayank and Atul Pradhan. During interrogation, Atul said that he was given the task by the wife of Joginder Dalal, a member of Kapil Sangwan gang who is in Tihar jail.

CITY ▶ PAGE 3

Centre's reply sought on Johnson & Johnson plea

On compensation for faulty hip implants; no steps till next hearing: HC

STAFF REPORTER

NEW DELHI

The Delhi High Court on Monday sought response of the Centre on Johnson and Johnson's plea challenging the orders by which it was directed to compensate patients who received faulty hip implants made by the company.

Justice Vibhu Bakru asked the Centre's counsel to take instruction on Johnson and Johnson's submission that it was willing to pay ₹25 lakh as compensation to the patients who were affected by its hip implants.

The High Court also asked authorities not to take any steps against the company till the next date of hearing. In its plea, the company contended that the Centre has no jurisdiction under the Drugs and Cosmetics Act to fix and enforce the compensation.

Johnson and Johnson has challenged the Centre's pending in the High Court.

Replacement implants

It challenged the compensation formula worked out by expert committee headed by R.K. Arya, Director, Sports Injury Centre. It has also sought quashing of the report of another committee headed by Arun Agarwal, Professor of ENT, Maulana Azad Medical College, which was appointed by the Health Ministry for looking into the allegations of faulty hip replacement implants.

According to the Arya committee report, compensation payable to patients would be determined in terms of the disability by the faulty hip implants in relation to their age.

A public interest litigation (PIL), which was earlier before the Supreme Court, has alleged that faulty hip implants have been fitted into the bodies of 4,525 Indian patients.

The company said the Centre's order fixing the compensation was based on formula and set of expert committees' recommendations, which have already been challenged by it and are being heard in the High Court.

The clearance, however, is subject to the Delhi High Court's decision on the petition demanding that the project be scrapped.

The High Court had permitted NBCC to draw plans that could minimise or avoid the arboreal decimation.

The felling of trees had sparked protests in Delhi last year and led to the filing of a petition in the High Court and the National Green Tribunal, demanding that the project be scrapped. The High Court then stayed the project.

The project consists of six redevelopment projects in Sarojini Nagar, Netaji Nagar, Nauroji Nagar, Thyagaraj Na-

Green light to two redevelopment projects

Environment Ministry gives fresh approval to Sarojini Nagar and Netaji Nagar plans

JACOB KOSHY

NEW DELHI

The Union Environment Ministry has accorded fresh approval to the stalled redevelopment projects at Sarojini Nagar and Netaji Nagar and permitted NBCC – the public sector construction company – the 'transplantation' of about 5,000 trees as opposed to the felling of 11,000 trees.

Awaits HC decision

The clearance, however, is subject to the Delhi High Court's decision on the petition demanding that the project be scrapped.

The High Court had permitted NBCC to draw plans that could minimise or avoid the arboreal decimation.

The felling of trees had sparked protests in Delhi last year and led to the filing of a petition in the High Court and the National Green Tribunal, demanding that the project be scrapped. The High Court then stayed the project.

The project consists of six redevelopment projects in

Sarojini Nagar, Netaji Nagar,

Last year, several trees were felled for a redevelopment project in Netaji Nagar. ■ FILE PHOTO: SHIV KUMAR PUSHPAKAR gar and Sarojini Nagar – the last of which involves felling 11,000 trees – over several meetings between September 2017 and April 2018.

On March 27, in a meeting of the environment appraisal committee – an expert body constituted by Union Environment Ministry –, the project was cleared as it proposed to transplant, namely transport and replant the trees in another location, splantation should be carried out unless exigencies demand. Where absolutely necessary, tree transplantation shall be with prior permission from the Tree Authority constituted as per the Delhi Preservation of Trees Act... Old trees should be retained based on girth and age regulations as may be prescribed by the Forest Department... In case of non-survival of any transplanted tree, compensatory plantation in the ratio of 1:10 [i.e. planting of 10 trees for every 1 tree] shall be done and maintained..." says the document describing the EAC decision and viewed by The Hindu.

3,500 (+/- 5%) trees and retain 8,413 (+/- 5%) trees at the project site. "No tree trans-

Regarding the component of the project in Nauroji Nagar, the EAC had been told that of the 3,906 existing species, 1,600 (+/- 5%) trees would be transplanted and 2,306 (+/- 5%) trees would be retained at the project site.

According to EAC, other mitigating factors included a reduced requirement for fresh water and a more efficient sewage management system.

Plea against Mufti, Farooq contesting Lok Sabha poll

Asks EC to ban them for 'seditious' comments

STAFF REPORTER

NEW DELHI

A plea moved before the Delhi High Court has sought direction to the Election Commission to ban National Conference's leaders Farooq Abdullah, Omar Abdullah and Peoples Democratic Party's Mehbooba Mufti from participating in the Lok Sabha poll.

The plea filed by advocate Sanjiv Kumar has claimed that the recent statements made by three Jammu and Kashmir politicians in public and social media were allegedly seditious.

'Mockery of democracy'
"Will it not be a mockery of democracy to allow those people and parties to participate in the Lok Sabha election when people/part-ties openly call for sedition to divide Mother India on the basis of religion [Muslim majority] and two Prime Ministers [for Jammu and Kashmir and the rest of India]...," the petition said.

It also sought a direction to book them under various charges, including sedition and inciting hatred, of the Indian Penal Code and the Information Technology Act.

No faith in Constitution
Advocate Kumar said the three politicians "have no faith in the Indian Constitution and hence they and their party PDP and NC should be barred from participating in Lok Sabha election".

The plea is yet to come up for hearing before the High Court.

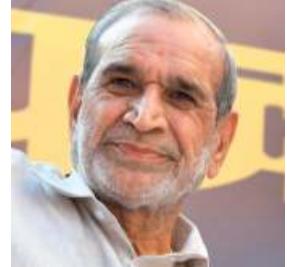

Midsummer day's dream

Pot dealer: Earthen pots being sold by the roadside on a hot afternoon in the city. ■ SUSHIL KUMAR VERMA

CBI calls Sajjan Kumar 'kingpin' of 1984 anti-Sikh riots, opposes bail

Apex court asks probe agency to apprise it of the trial status

Today, you [Kumar] are convicted by the High Court. It is not a charge by police. We cannot treat it lightly

JUSTICE BOBODE

Kumar is convicted and sentenced to the killing of five Sikhs in Delhi Cantonment's Raj Nagar Part-I area of south-west Delhi on November 1 and 2, 1984, and burning down a Gurudwara in Raj Nagar Part-II.

Anti-Sikh riots broke out after the assassination of then prime minister Indira Gandhi on October 31, 1984.

Mr. Mehta described Kumar as a "kingpin" while arguing against bail before a Bench led by Justice S.A. Bobde on Monday. "This is a gruesome offence of massacre of Sikhs. He [Kumar] was the leader and the kingpin of this," Mr. Mehta submitted. The case in which

SDMC, activists make meat vendors aware of laws

Conduct workshop to regulate meat shops, curb illegal slaughter in the Capital

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI

The South Delhi Municipal Corporation (SDMC) and the Federation of Indian Animal Protection Organisations (FIAPO) came together to conduct a workshop with meat shop vendors to raise awareness on the laws governing the trade.

The participants included vendors from Hauz Khas, Malviya Nagar, Hauz Khas, Safdarjung Enclave, and Mehrauli wards. With this, they aim to accelerate the mandate regarding the regulation of meat shops and curb illegal slaughter in the city.

This progressive workshop was organised by the South zone of SDMC in collaboration with FIAPO to curb the violation of rules, regulations and guidelines by the meat vendors," said executive director of FIAPO Varda Mehrotra.

Animal cruelty
Ms. Mehrotra added, "The sessions held recently were aimed at creating awareness and sensitivity amongst the participants towards issues of animal cruelty."

The SDMC and FIAPO organise workshop for meat shop vendors in the city. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT and we hope that this will elevate the sense of responsibility and self-regulation in meat shop vendors."

In the current legal framework, a meat shop is only allowed to sell meat that has been purchased from a municipal corporation regulated abattoir although these rules are routinely flouted with animals being slaughtered in front of one another within the shops.

There are no provisions for food or water and improper disposal of waste from the facilities.

The Slaughter House

department were also present at the session and induced the meat vendors about the various rules and regulations that are mandatory to be followed by them.

Waste management

"The session focused on discussion on curbing animal cruelty in meat shops, water and land pollution by managing waste generated in their shops and maintaining good hygiene standards. The vendors were educated on the laws and regulations to be followed within their shops and the severity of punishments of the violations of these laws," noted a release issued by FIAPO.

Maninder Pratap Singh Sodhi, deputy director of veterinary services, South zone, SDMC said: "We want such counselling sessions to be held regularly and these will definitely help make aware the meat shop owners about the various laws governing the meat shops. Our focus is on educating them to understand the correct and necessary practices within a meat shop and to not exercise animal cruelty."

Drugs worth over ₹200 cr seized, 4 held

STAFF REPORTER

NEW DELHI

Four men were arrested and 50 kg of drugs worth more than ₹200 crore in the international market was recovered from their possession, the police said on Monday.

The accused have been identified as Mohammad Sufiyan (31), Mohammad Ismail (49), and Hasim (30), residents of Barabanki in Uttar Pradesh and Manoj Kumar Das (50), a resident of Begusarai in Bihar, they said.

Based on a tip-off, they arrested Sufiyan and Ismail when they came to supply drugs to one of their contacts on April 4, DCP (Crime) Sanjeev Kumar Yadav said.

During probe, they revealed that the drug was delivered to them by a resident of Manipur on the directions of Manoj, a resident of Bihar. Thereafter, a team was sent to Bihar and Manoj was arrested on April 5. On the instance of the accused, Hasim was arrested from Bawana on April 6, the DCP said.

IN BRIEF

IIT-D-incubated start-up under internal probe

NEW DELHI IIT-Delhi on Monday said that it had come to their notice that institution-incubated start-up Sanfe (Redroomtechnology Private Limited) had falsely claimed that their product Sanfe period pain relief roll on was FDA approved. "An internal inquiry has been initiated against Sanfe founders and a show-cause notice has been issued to them. Based on the inquiry report, action would be taken," the institute said in a statement. STAFF REPORTER

HC stays JNU's decision on two professors

NEW DELHI The Delhi High Court has put on hold JNU's resolution debarring two of its Professors from participating in the university's Executive Council (EC) meetings, saying on first impression, it appears to be contrary to the university's statutes. Justice Vibhu Bakshu stayed the minutes of the EC's 278th meeting to the extent that it debarred the professors from participating in future meetings of the academic body. PTI

NHRC notice to Delhi govt on ration cards

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) on Monday, while issuing a notice to the Chief Secretary of Delhi, took suo motu cognisance of a report that ration cards elude 30-odd families in the same building of East Delhi where three minor girls had died of starvation eight months ago.

In a statement, the NHRC said it had issued a notice to the Chief Secretary, Government of NCT of Delhi, to submit a detailed report, including action taken after the deaths of the minor girls by the department concerned, and the present status of the applications pending for issuance of ration cards and status of the Public Distribution System along with basic amenities in the area. It has asked for a response within four weeks.

The Commission said it had also observed that the contents of the news report were quite disturbing that even after the death of three young girls due to starvation; seemingly the authorities in the Delhi government had not woken up.

"Apparently, the innocent people have become victims of the State's apathy and inhuman approach. This is a serious case of violation of Right to Food of the poor people," the NHRC said.

Finding work on their minds in election time

Hundreds of daily wage labourers talk about hardships faced by them in the city as their wait for 'acche din' continues

SHINJINI GHOSH
NEW DELHI

Small groups of men can be seen approaching any and every vehicle on the Basai Road near Shiv Murti Chowk in Gurugram.

They are the reserve army of the unemployed seeking wages for work that dot the National Capital Region.

At Gurugram's Labour Chowk, hundreds are awaiting their turn for the day's employment, which will get them anything between ₹250 to ₹400 and on, 'acche din', a sum of ₹600.

"There are days when we get paid nothing despite working for the entire day. Yahan toh gulaami chal rahi hai," rues 50-year-old Suresh who is a regular at the Basai Road Labour Chowk for three decades now.

Hailing from Azamgarh in Uttar Pradesh, Suresh like the many others have left behind his family in search of employment with the hope of contributing more to the family income.

Unfulfilled promises

"We have small farms back home but there is hardly any substantial income to sustain the entire family. Here we offer our services for various kinds of construction work but sometimes the contractors do not even pay and when we ask for what we deserve, they start hitting us and shoo us away. Gareeb ka koi nahi sunta iss desh main [No one listens to the poor in our country]," he says.

Shafique-ul-Hasan, who hails from Agra and has been a daily wage labourer for five years, adds, "It's only before election that you will find politicians washing our feet and eating with us. Have you ever seen Narendra Modi meet a single poor person?"

Raj Bahadur, a fellow daily wage earner, says, "Even the ₹15 lakh in our accounts which he promised, has not even reached us. Not even ₹5,000 is in our bank accounts yet."

For Asha Devi, the need to seek employment began a decade back when the family of six needed an extra helping hand. Since then she has been a regular at the Labour Chowk near the Noida Sector 16 metro station.

No identity sans cards

The Jhansi resident says, "We come here around eight in the morning and wait till noon. If we do not get work then we head back home. There are days when we have to make do with ₹350 a day. What can we say about the government? The BJP government has done nothing for us. While promises are being made about Ayushman Bharat and other schemes, here we are struggling to get our labour cards made without which we have no identity whatsoever."

Kranti Devi (43) adds, "We hear that there are housing schemes of the government as well. Lekin humara ghar toh waisa ka waisa hi reh gaya [But our houses have remained the same]. We left our villages as the farms had dried up but unfortunately the work here has also dried up."

A group of workers waits for work at Labour Chowk in Gurugram on Monday. ■ MANOJ KUMAR

On demonetisation

Rajrani, one of the few other women who are seen at the Chowk says, "The demonetisation period destroyed us completely. There was no work and this place was overcrowded with people looking for some source of earning. We could not even leave our spots to drink water fearing that someone else will occupy it. The days were spent by looking for jobs and then at night the men would sleep outside banks."

For Arpit Tiwari, a Bundelkhand resident and a BSc graduate, uncertainty looms as he has been forced to work as a daily wage labourer after he lost his job two years ago.

We left our villages as the farms had dried up but unfortunately the work here has also dried up

KRANTI DEVI
Daily wage labourer

"Despite having a degree I have no employment and come to Labour Chowk in search of some employment. Kya faayda vote karne ka agar humara kuch nahi huya toh? [I will not vote as nobody really cares about what is happening to us.]" he asks.

Those at Sevpuri Chowk in Geeta Colony however argue that even though the move disrupted their work for a few days, the Prime Minister's demonetisation move has been beneficial to the country.

"The best thing about Mr. Modi is that woh nah khaatey hain na khaaney detey hain. Look at the Congress government in the past...they were busy in all sorts of corruption. Nobody even cared about us. At least with demonetisation the black money was caught," says Ramesh Kumar from Uttar Pradesh.

Improved facilities

Sonu Kumar, a Bulandshahr resident, earns anything between ₹500 and ₹1,000 a day by engaging in work related to plumbing, carpentry, painting and so on.

Agreeing to Ramesh Kumar, he adds, "Thanks to the government we have proper toilets in the village. The ambulance service has also become prompt and arrives in five minutes. Pehle kahan tha yeh sab? Just think about it, Modiji went to the extent of attacking Pakistan just for the country. What else do we need? The Gandhis and Yadvads have done nothing for us."

Migrants on voting

With the general election round the corner do the migrants intend to head home?

When asked, Om Prakash another Uttar Pradesh resident vehemently replies in the affirmative.

"Obviously we will go. It's just a day and missing out on one day's work is fine. But it is important to vote into power someone who will work for us," he says.

However, for Birender Kumar from Nalanda in Bihar, going back home to vote is more than "just a day".

"Paisa hona chahiye na ghar jaane ke liye? How are we to go home if we have no money? There are days when we earn only ₹100-150 despite waiting here the whole day till 6 p.m. The income from the farms is not enough so we have to spend almost our entire lives doing mazdoori. We cannot afford to go back to Bihar just to vote. We need to accumulate whatever little money we get," says Birender who was found waiting at the Labour Chowk in Okhla Phase II.

Sant Ram (57) from Gorakhpur remarks, "No politician cares about us. Every five years, the government should change. But all we can do is hope that our situation will improve."

AAP capable of winning all seats in Delhi, says Gopal Rai

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI

Aam Aadmi Party leader Gopal Rai said that his party is capable of winning all seats in the Capital without an alliance with the Congress.

He was reacting to a statement made by Congress leader Randeep Surjewala in which he said that his party was not in talks with AAP or any other party for an alliance in Haryana and Punjab.

State of confusion'

"If the Congress is confident of winning in Punjab without an alliance, AAP is also capable of winning all the seats in Delhi on its own. I would like to ask Mr. Surjewala if the Congress had forgotten about its loss in the bypoll in Jind," Mr. Rai said.

He said that the Congress seemed to be self-obsessed and is in a state of confusion.

"AAP took the decision to contest on 35 seats in different States as it felt it could defeat the BJP in these seats. The Congress, however, is ready to lose these seats as it is reluctant to form an alliance," Mr. Rai said.

It should be recalled that AAP had said it was willing to have an alliance with the Congress only if the two parties fight the Lok Sabha poll jointly in Haryana and Chandigarh too.

AAP for one-on-one interaction with voters in phase 2 of campaign

First phase of campaign started in March and ended on April 7

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI

The Aam Aadmi Party on Monday said it would have one-on-one interaction with over 35 lakh voters in the city in the second phase of their Lok Sabha campaign to popularise the demand for full statehood for Delhi.

The first phase of AAP's campaign that began on March 10 ended on April 7. The third phase would be launched after the candidates file their nomination and the scrutiny is completed, the party said.

Senior AAP leader Gopal Rai said the party has received feedback from the various observers it had appointed to monitor the first phase of the campaign.

He also said the war room had brought out a report, which stated that the public meetings had successfully conveyed the party's message to many people.

However, it also said that Delhi had a large working population that was unable to attend these public meetings and suggested that in the next phase, the party needed to reach out to the voters and speak to them directly instead of relying on them to attend public meetings.

Giving details of what the party had achieved in its first phase of campaigning, Mr. Rai said they have successfully raised the issue of full statehood in a mix of election rallies as well as protests against the BJP and the Congress on their failure to deliver on the issue on full statehood when their respective governments were in power.

An edge over others

"We burned the BJP's 2014 Lok Sabha manifesto in which it promised full statehood for Delhi and our star campaigners, including Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal, campaigned to make people understand the importance of full statehood.

The campaign has given us an edge over the BJP and Congress," Mr. Rai said.

The success of the campaign he said can be measured from the fact that full statehood that was only an issue in the manifesto of the BJP and the Congress was now being discussed by the educated class of Delhi.

"The BJP that was confident about its election prospects in Delhi has now been brought on the back foot by the AAP's full statehood and it is now finding it tough to select its candidates." Mr. Rai said.

The camping, the party said would highlight the Delhi government's achievement over the past four years and how the Central government's interference had caused problems.

The party workers said they would explain to people about the benefits of full statehood and how achieving it was possible by keeping the NDMC area under the control of the Central government. The party said that it would also tell people on how the seven BJP MPs have not delivered on their promises.

Focus is on inclusion of marginalised voters: Delhi CEO

Poll panel undertaking special drives to enrol them

Ranbir Singh

With special drives for homeless people, persons with disabilities (PwD) and people falling under the "third gender" category, Delhi Chief Election Officer (CEO) Ranbir Singh on Monday said that inclusion of marginalised sections of society in the electoral rolls was being focused upon.

Last weekend, a drive was undertaken to enrol homeless people living in shelters run by the Delhi government.

The CEO said that from four districts, forms were collected from 1,922 people. Data from the rest of the seven districts had not come in, he said.

Election officials are also undertaking a drive to promote participation of person ing undertaken in the Chandni Chowk constituency where two NGOs have been roped in to undertake door-to-door surveys to enrol third gender voters. To assist people falling under this category, the CEO had said that pick-up facilities will also be provided. This drive would be scaled up to include other constituencies as well, the CEO said.

To encourage voter enrolment, the CEO's office has written to the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation, to carry messages on at least two trains and has tied up with the DTC to carry messages on up to 1,000 buses.

He said that 30 hamlets had been identified as 'vulnerable' and 35 people had been identified as threats against whom action has been taken.

A special drive is also be-

BJP manifesto is full of false promises, say AAP and Cong

People will not believe a single promise of the party: Dikshit

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI

Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal called the BJP's manifesto that was launched on Monday a "fresh set of 'jumbas'" without telling the country what was the fate of its 2014 jumbas".

Delhi Congress president Sheila Dikshit also said that the BJP manifesto was full of hollow promises and false claims without having any substance that would be beneficial to the people.

"Modi-Shah don't have the courage to speak on why demonetisation was done, what happened to two crore jobs and why farmers were pushed towards destruction," Mr. Kejriwal said.

He added that the BJP had promised full statehood to Delhi in the 2014 Lok Sabha election, but had now re-

The people of the country have understood Prime Minister Narendra Modi's falsehood and his bundle of lies, and the voters have now lost all faith in him, and his hollow promises

SHEILA DIKSHIT
Delhi Congress president

versed its stand on the important issue.

"Now you have removed Delhi statehood from your manifesto altogether. You have deceived the people of Delhi. It is clear that you lie in the manifesto. How can the people trust your manifesto?" Mr. Kejriwal questioned.

Ms. Dikshit said, "The people of the country have understood Prime Minister Narendra Modi's falsehood and his bundle of lies, and the voters have now lost all faith in him, and his hollow promises."

She added that the trust that the people had reposed on the BJP to deliver in 2014 had been completely shattered as the Modi government could not fulfil even a single promise. It had betrayed the people and hence they will not believe a single promise in the BJP manifesto this time.

"The BJP manifesto cannot come anywhere near the Congress manifesto as the latter has many schemes to address the problems of the poor, farmers, labourers, women, unemployment, traders and small and medium-level businessmen," Ms. Dikshit said.

BJP Mahila Morcha protests against govt

Members form human chain at ITO

STAFF REPORTER
NEW DELHI

The Delhi BJP Mahila Morcha on Monday protested against the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP)-led Delhi government for its "failure" to implement the Ayushman Bharat Yojana in the Capital.

The protesters formed a human chain at ITO here.

Led by Morcha's president Poonam Parashar Jha, the protesters accused Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal of "cheating" the people of the Capital and suggested that he wake up from "his deep slumber" or resign from his post.

"The innocent people of Delhi were cheated by Kejriwal's false image of a crusader against corruption and as a fighter for the Jan Lokpal. They gave him a massive mandate and he came to power in Delhi. During the last four years of Kejriwal's rule, the people of Delhi have been disappointed," Ms. Jha said.

"PM Narendra Modi introduced the Ayushman Bharat scheme for the medical care of the common man...due to the anarchic character of Kejriwal, this scheme has not been implemented in Delhi and the people have been deprived of its benefits," she said.

Ms. Jha questioned Mr. Kejriwal, who she accused of "misleading the people in the name of full statehood", for not implementing the "largest scheme of the country" framed for the welfare of the people terming him "the greatest enemy of the people of Delhi" by obstructing the implementation of the scheme.

From rare gemstones to architecture and royal influences, the designer traces her bejewelled journey in her début book

The fabulous jewels of Farah Khan

Colour me pink

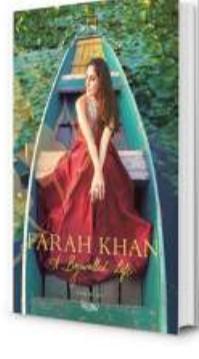

"I love being in love, and sharing that euphoric feeling with the world through my designs. Using the myriad shades of a rose, from playful pinks to velvety creams and blushing reds, I write my love stories with gemstones like morganites and precious metals like rose gold."

SURYA PRAPHULLA KUMAR

Farah Khan celebrated the 15th anniversary of her fine jewellery and luxury lifestyle brand with a new book, A Bejewelled Life – launched worldwide four days ago, on her daughter Fiza's birthday. A PDF (helpfully sent over by the designer's office) of the 300-page volume published by Rizzoli, landed in my inbox soon after.

Scrolling through the beautifully curated, lavishly illustrated book (edited by Paola de Luca, friend and CEO of trend forecasting company, The Futurist), I realised why Farah, 49, calls herself "an alchemist who captures moments and transforms them into objects of art". Photographs of her handcrafted 18-karat gold jewels and gouache renderings of her designs are interspersed with

The India launch is on April 16, at Mehboob Studio, Mumbai, where an art installation will celebrate the artist Farah is inspired by. ₹8,995, the book is available at leading book stores, and on farahkhanworld.com whimsical images of landscapes, animals and architecture (some captured on her phone), works of artists like Manjunath Kamath and Chie Yoshii, and photographers like Ganesh Vanare – all of which inform and inspire her work – steering a visual tale of her evolution.

"I'm often asked where I get my inspiration from, but there is only so much words can convey," Farah tells me, over phone from New York. "This book is an open conversation, an interaction with intellectual dialogue that nourishes creativity."

It's elemental

A designer to the stars – her creations have been worn by everyone from Kareena Kapoor and Sania Mirza to Serena Williams – Farah has been perfecting her craft for 25 years. And

"My jewels hark back to a romantic past but they voice the language of the now. I draw deeply from the rich repertoire and intoxicating history of Indian jewellery design and contemporise these with modern hues and textures. I've re-imagined the classic rose in the 'La Grandiose' necklace, but with petals carved from rubellites and aquamarines."

"Juicy sorbet colours and flirty lilac-pinks, like this brilliantly-faceted kunzite gemstone, bring lightness and a sense of fun to statement pieces."

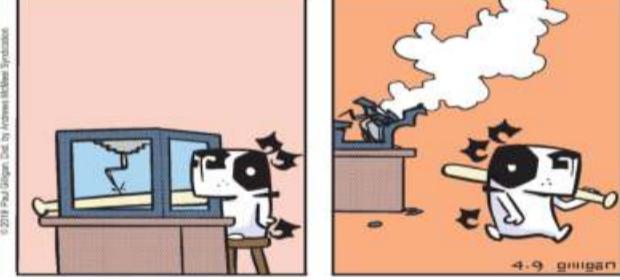

real Vision, "where I take inspiration from the colours, textures and the contradictions of cities" for graphic jewels.

"I wanted to show my different design directions," she explains, pointing out how the book is peppered with quotes from Rumi and other poets, and her own writings (printed as handwritten notes). "I wanted to make it engaging, to say that there are so many facets of expression. This is my world; I am living what I'm saying."

Looking to diversify

Even as it looks back, the book also hints at what's to come. Farah, who studied jewellery design and gemmology at the Gemological Institute of America, launched her first collection of lifestyle products last year, at the Vogue Wedding Show – a line that included bejewelled scarves, scented candles and hand-painted wall plates. "I consider myself a designer, not just a jewellery designer," she says. "Soon I'll be venturing into other areas of design, be it interiors, graphics, or even beauty and make-up."

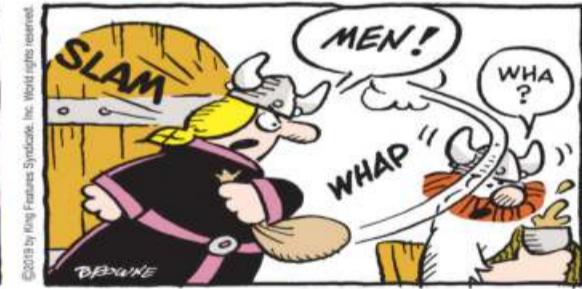

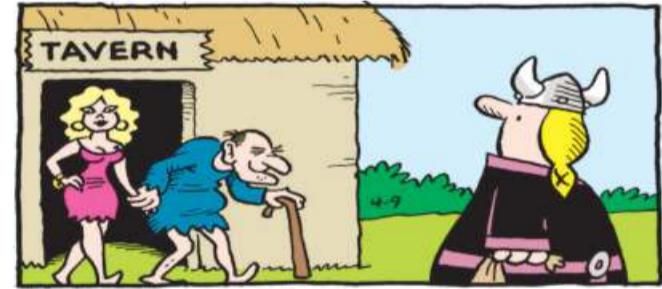

POOCH CAFE

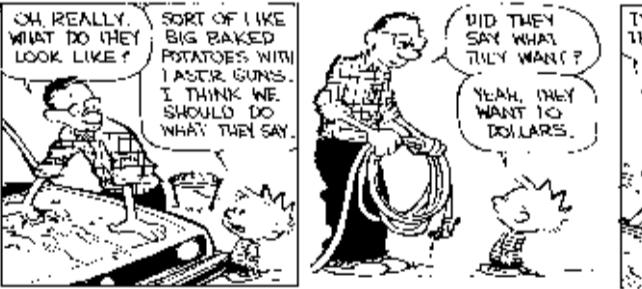

PEANUTS

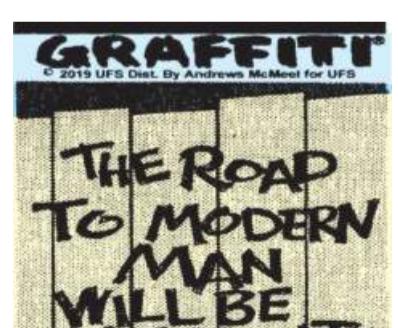

HAGAR THE HORRIBLE

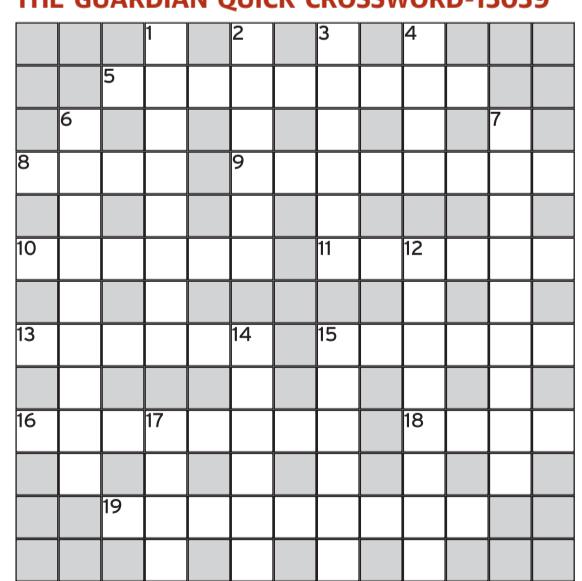

CALVIN AND HOBBES

TIGER

THE GUARDIAN QUICK CROSSWORD-13039

skiing turn (8)
14 Footpaths in the wild (6)
15 Courage (6)
17 Mitt (4)

Solution will appear in Delhi Metro dated April 10, 2019.

Solution No. 13038

WUMO

Across
5 Grief (9)
8 Intelligence (abbr) (4)
9 Extramarital sex (8)
10 Hornet (anag) – lavatory (6)
11 Keep (6)
13 Liveliness (6)
15 Water down (6)
16 Broadcasting (2,3,3)

Down
1 The moment of truth? (4,4)
2 Mysterious (6)
3 Cat – car (6)
4 Come again? (4)
6 Perfectly healthy (2,3,4)
7 Truce (9)
12 Meet Karl (anag) –

PEARLS BEFORE SWINE

HEALTH CAPSULES by Bron Smith
WHAT ARE THE DIRTY DOZEN VEGETABLES?
WHO YOU CALLIN' DIRTY?
THE 12 MOST PESTICIDE-LADEN VEGETABLES INCLUDE:
STRAWBERRIES, SPINACH, NECTARINES, APPLES,
PEACHES, PEARS, CHERRIES,
GRAPES, CELERY, TOMATOES, AND POTATOES. TRY TO CONSUME AS MANY ORGANIC VEGETABLES AS POSSIBLE.
Health Capsules is not intended to be a diagnostic or prescriptive